NEWS BY THE CUBA CABLE

Mayal Demand on Turkey-Meve-ments on the Coast of Crete. Sr. Petersburg, Feb. 23, 1868.—The Russian Sr. Petersburg, Feb. 23, 1868.—The Russian Admiral in command of the imperial squadron on duty in the waters of the Grecian Archipelago, acting under instructions from the Czar, has demanded from the Grand Vizier of the Porte an explicit explanation of the authenticity of a report prevailing in Turkey, and published in shape in a late issue of the Levant Herald in Constantinople, to the effect that the vessels of the imperial Russian fleet had afforded material aid and comfort to the insurgents and Christian revolutionists in Candia.

The government of the Porte replies that the Sultan's Cabinet is in possession of late official reports from the Turkish Admiral serving off Candia, and that the documents contain no such charge against the Russian officers or sailors as that referred to in the despatch received from charge against the Russian officers or sailors as that referred to in the despatch received from the representative of the Csar.

The Turkish government seizes this opportunity to express its censure of the newspaper writers and editors who furnish and publish such statements as matters of fact. ST. CROIX.
