HOUSE.—Mr. Webb presented a communication from the firm of Dunglison, Forney & Kaufman, proprietors of the State Guard, offering to print the Daily Legislative Record for $12 per page. An act authorizing the laying of rallway tracks on Thirteenth and Fifteenth streets, and on Broad street, south of Carpenter, was considered. Mr. Thorn positively denied that he was in favor of any railroad on any part of Broad street. was in violation of parliamentary usage to call the previous question while a member was caking. The Speaker decided that it was entirely in accordance with the rules to call the previous question at any time. Mr. Hickman appealed from the decision of the Speaker. The Speaker and Mr. Hickman respectively explained their views. The decision of the Speaker was sustained by a vote of 51 ayes to 8 noys. Finally, Mr. Josephs (having charge of the bill), sgreed that a proviso should be added thereto ab-solutely prohibiting any part of Broad street from being used, which was done, and the bill
