It will be a double anniversary for The democracy accord to the Tennessee BITE J. H. SCHENCK'S Furment Syrap; South Care of Consumption. The proprietor of the medicine was himself, many years ago, reduced so low as to be given up by his how arraigned himself before the Senate and physicians and friends in the last stage of consumption. When all hopes of ever getting well had fied, he was When all hopes of ever getting well had fied, he was When all hopes of ever getting well had fied, he was swoogly recommended to use a strup made from an old Indian recipe, which succeeded in effectually curing him. The family physicians and a large number of merectable gentlemen certified to the facts of this case, and soon the Pulmonic Syrup obtained a repu-bation never equalled in that section of the country. The family physicians did a constitution of the country, in the people's representatives for a worse intem-perance, an intemperance, which here here tation never equalled in that section of the country. perance, an intemperance which has been furnishing substantial aid and comfort in the if a miracle, Dr. Schenck was waited upon by many if a miracle, Dr. Schenck was waited upon by many imilarly afflicted, to whom he administered the Symp samed at the liberties of the law with the same beneficial results. In fact, such was the motoriety of this medicine, that eminent practising pbyiciane had their attention drawn toward the rising repuscience and their attention drawn toward the range rend-sation of it, from having witnessed its curative powers, and freely extended the hand of friendship and en-ocuragement to Dr. Schenck, and introduced the medievuragement to Dr. Schenck, and introduced the moni-sine to the public, and used it in their daily practice. No other medicine operates upon the system in the manner that the Pulmonic Syrup does. It produces a healthy action upon the morbid parts, by purifying healthy action upon the morbid parts, by multifying healthy action upon the morbid parts (by multifying) healthy action upon the morbid parts (by multifying) healthy action upon the morbid parts, by purifying them from disease: it promotes the expectorations, allays the cough, ripens the matter in the lungs, and, when it is discharged, it heals the opening that the breaking of the the breaking of the breaking of the lungs and, when it is discharged in the structure of the lungs and, when it is discharged in the structure of the lungs and when it is discharged in the structure of the lungs and when it is discharged in the structure of the lungs and when it is discharged in the lungs and when it is discharged in the structure of the lung and the lung an subcretes or abscretes produces, and the lungs become arrogance, to say nothing of his hereditary knees never crook unless thrift is to follow Custom Work. sonnd, and resume the performance of their natural sonnd, and resume the performance of their natural sunctions: it also soothes the irritated portion of the songs and other organs, and thus restores those parts to hitle personal feeling in the matter. Everybody feels the ne-cessity for a speedy settlement of the impeach-ment question. The House signified its re-cognition of this necessity in confining the original articles, practically, to a single sub-ject or group of subjects. The Senate affirmed trial. The common sense of the people at trial. The common sense of the people at large endorses the action of Congress in this suble pretext for delay should be added to the case. But there are two important suggestions, one offered by General Logan and the other by General Butler. The one is that the ad-ditional article cannot possibly facilitate an other the added to the suble pretext for delay should be added to the case. But there are two important suggestions, one offered by General Logan and the other by General Butler. The one is that the adindictment. The other is that the managers of the trial can withdraw the article if they find it is being made the foundation for need-less delays. That it will be thus used there is little reason to doubt, but with this power of withdrawal in the hands of the managers, the attempt to delay the proceedings will only damage Johnson's case. While the presidential traitor is scorned and opposed by every disinterested man in the great party which voted for him in 1864, he looks for support to a mongrel com-bination which has three prominent elements. These components are: first, the rebel ele-ment that, during four years of war, drenched the country in blood: secondly. the Demo the attempt to delay the proceedings will only damage Johnson's case. It is anderstood that the case will be finally presented by the managers to the Senate to-day, and that Andrew Johnson will be sum-to survey where and the the case will be sum-to survey where and the the case will be sum-to any survey to any survey where and the the case will be sum-to the country in blood; secondly, the Demo-cratic party; and thirdly, the army of Fede-ral office-holders.
