THE STREETS.—The mild weather of yesterday and to-day has had the effect of melting much of and to-day has had the effect of melting much of the snow and ice which have blocked up the streets for weeks past, but on most of the streets occupied by passenger railways where the snow was thrown in immense piles upon each side of the track, in violation of the ordinances of the city, it has become exceedingly hard and requires much hard work with picks to loosen it. In the compact form in which this ice now lies upon the streets, several weeks must clapse before it will be entirely removed by the sun's rays. In some places to-day men are employed with picks and shovels, and after getting the ice loose, are spreading it about the streets, not sparing the railroad tracks. As the laws of the city make it the duty of the passenger railway companies "to clear the streets or other public highways that they may occupy, of snow or any obstructions placed therein by such companies," there is no reason why citizens should be put to the expense of having the snow and ice carted away. It is not just that the great inconvenience which they have suffered under for so long should be continued, and the only practical mode of getting over the difficulty is to throw the ice upon the railway tracks, and thus compel the companies to share in the trouble and expense. the snow and ice which have blocked up the

It is gaining rapidly in flesh and spirits, and bids fair to become a bouncing girl. GENTLEMEN'S OPENING .- Rather a new idea has been thought of by our wide awake tailoring friends, Wanamaker & Brown. They are receiving large lots of new goods for Spring for gentlemen's and youths' clothing, both in ready made wear and in piece goods to make up to order, and they will follow the plan of our dry goods houses and millinery establishments, whose "openings" are special features, by giving an "opening for gentlemen" on Thursday next, when their immense sales-rooms will be spread with new and stylish goods, and throngs of carer people anxious for the best selections will doubtless crowd the establishment at Sixth and Market
