CHOKED to DEATH .- A boarder at a hotel No. 1629 Market street, was choked to death last evening. White engaged in eating supper a piece of mest lodged in his throat, and all efforts to remove it proved unavailing. FOUNDLING .- A male infant, about four days old, was found last evening on the steps of a house in Gossamer avenue, Noble street, above Touth. The little one was properly cared for by a lady living in the neighborhood.

ascertained that he has collected and receipted for $195 41, and made no return of the money. Upon searching him after his arrest, several checks for seats in private boxes in a place of amusement where liquor and cigars are dispensed to the audience were found. It was then suspected that Coohoun had been leading a life of dissipation, and an investigation of his past movements were made. It was then found that he had been in the habit of visiting the theatre referred to and always occupied a private box. He was not senting of his many and two or three bottles of always occupied a private box. He was not sparing of his money, and two or three bottles of wine per night was not an unusual circumstance. He has also taken a fancy to one of the ballet girls on the stage and sent her a magnificent and costly basket of flowers. After the hearing Coohoun acknowledged his guilt. He was committed in default of $1,200 bail to answer at Court, and instead of enjoying himself in a private hox at the theatre last night, as a ticket in his pocket indicated was his intention, he occupied very private quarters in a certain stone palace in Moyameusing.
