Sr. PATRICK'S DAY. The Irish residents of the city are pretty generally observing St. Patrick's Day. The weather is clear and pleasant, and very invorable for the greatest enjoyment. As usual, Solemn High Mass was colebrated, and the panegyric of the Saint was proached at St. Pat-rick's Church this morning. The Church was crowded. This afternoon there will be rick's Church this morning. Ine onucle was crowded. This afternoon there will be a parade of Company A, Eighth Regiment I. R. A., in full uniform, to receive Gen. O'Nelll, and to scort him to National Guards' Hall, wore a mass meeting is to be held, and where, as we go to press, the Irish people are assembling in large numbers. An oration on "The Future of Ireland" will be delivered by Charles W. Brooke, Esq. Addresses are also expected from John Cochran, Esq., Gen. O'Neill, and others. This evening several locures on subjects connected evening several lectures on subjects connected with Ireland will be delivered, and the celebra-tion of the day will conclude with a ball given by the Feman Brotherhood, at National Guards' Hall.

FITH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION. -The Fifth Congressional District Republican Convention met at the County Court House, Doylestown, Bucks county, yesterday, and was organized by electing Jas. B. Lambert, of Bristol, President; John C. Sees, of Twenty-fifth Ward; Philadelphia, and John W. McDowell, Doyles-

Philadelphia, and Jonn W. McDowen, Dopto-town, Secretaries. The following Delegates were elected to the National Convention: Alfred C. Harmer, Twenty-B. cond Ward, Philadelphia, and Mahlon Yardley, Doplestown. Alternates—Nathan Hilles, Twenty-third Ward, Philadelphia, and Geo. W. Cunning-ham Bucks counts ham, Bucks county.

ham, Bucks county. A resolution instructing the Delegates elected to the National Convention to vote for U.S. Grant for President, and A. G. Curtin for Vice President, was adopted.

ARREST OF DISORDERLIES .- For some time past the residents on Ogden street, between Ninth and Tenth, in the Thirteenth Ward, have been and Tenth, in the Infreenin ward, have been greatly annoyed by a gang of young men, who behaved in a very disorderly manner, yelling and making all kinds of noises. A petition on the subject was sent to the Mayor, and yesterday the sport of the men was interfered with by the police. David Seyferheldt and James Barford were arrested, and after a hearing before Al-derman Massey, were held to bail to keep the neares.

DEATH IN A POLICE STATION .- A man was found in a helpless condition yesterday afternoon at Seventh and Shippen streets, and was conveyed to the Seventeenth District Police Station House, where he died. By papers found on his person his name is supposed to have been Louis A. Quinlan. The deceased was about 40 years of age, had black hair, moustache, and goatee, and wore a black sack coat, and gray pants and vest. The Coroner took charge of the body.

PRESS CLUE.-The regular stated meeting of the Press Club of Philadelphia will be held tomorrow afternoon, at the rooms, No. 515 Chestnut street. This being the last meeting in the quarter, it will be devoted to business purposes and matters connected with a change of quarters will-be considered. A general attendance of members is requested.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY .- Martin Campbell, John Nevins, Edward Smith and Thomas Dar. ragh were arrested yesterday and taken before Alderman Patchel, upon the charge of having broken into the stand of Mrs. McFadden, at Twenty-fourth and Sansom streets, on Sunday night, and stolen therefrom a lot of candy and cigars. They were committed for trial.

THE ICE IN THE DELAWARE .- The ice which has been blocking up the Delaware above the city gave way yesterday and commenced to move down the stream. Opposite Port Richmond there was a stoppage of the floating cakes, and the river at that point is dotted with ice moun-tains, which, in some places are thirty feet high. The scene viewed from the shore is very pretty. SERIOUS CHARGE .-- A negro named David Kates, aged 25 years, residing in the neighborhood of Sixth and Race streets, was arrested yes-

a white girl, aged 12 years. He was taken before of 169 years.

Ald. Titlermary, who sent him to prison to awalt terday at Penn and South streets, on the charge of having committed an outrageous assault upon deeds, while outside is heard the voice of a friend inging a ballad in the praise of "housest men." The performance, last night, necessarily drugged. Making every allowance for the awkwarduces of a first representation, it cannot be called apything but a failure, except in the case of Mr. Smith, who did more than justice to his part. the play from absolute inanity and stupidity. Mr. Leake represented a drunken man, who was -evidently-introduced by the playwright to gratify a mere arbitrary desire to have a drunken party in the piece. Ho is an utterly useless and disgust-ing abareter. It is an utterly useless and disgustng character. In his endeavor to interpret faithfully this latter quality, Mr. Leake succeeded, admirably, but for his own sake we hope he will not strive for further trimphs in the same direction. Mr. McManus hope was the villain of the piece, and a more boorish, stupid, generally objectionable villain never did dustatoly deeds upon the stage. We believe that both these gentlemen did what they could with the characters allotted to them. The fault is with the dramatist; the actors indeed deserve some commendation for the heroic fortitude with which they did their duty in striving to infuse life into such a very corpse of a play. Mr. Jerry Taylor, however, deserves hardly this much. It is not pleasant to say it, but this gentleman's aspirations are not supported by his ability, and in his case there was no regret that the author had not given him a bot-ter opportunity, but rather subject for re-joicing that the text was of such a quality that use the most indifferent actor could not do itin-justice. Mrs. Eberle, Miss Arlington and Miss

Buchanan did as well as they could with the ma-terial in their hands. We are informed that this drama is having an we are informed that this drama is having an immense "run" in London, where the author en-joys some popularity. If this is the case, it does not reflect any credit upon the intelligence or twiste of London play-goers. We have too much faith in the presence of these qualities in our own public to believe that the play will be successful here.

THE THEATRES .- At the Chestnut to-night Dearer Than Life will be given at quarter to englit o'c'cock. Miss Maggie Mitchell will appear at the Walnut as "Fonchor" at half past seven. Light at Last will be done at the Arch at quarter to cight o'clock. The American will give a varied entertainment.

ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE .- The bur-ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE.—The bur-leque entitled Anything You Like will be given, this evening, at Carneross and Dixey's opera house' with all the startling stage effects, sharp local hits, rich humor and effective situations. This is one of the most anusing pleces ever pleced upon the minstrel stage, and is well worth steing. There will also be a burlesque upon Dickens' Readings, together with singing by Mr. J. L. Carneross, and other members of the com-pany, dancing negro delineations, &c., &c.

MRS. THAYER'S BENEFIT .- To-morrow evening Mrs. Thaver will have a benefit in a fine bill at the Arch Street Theatre. Any praise of this ex-cellent actress would be entirely superfluous. For years past she has been before the public, and has become a great favorite in all of the many lines of parts which she has essayed. We incerely hope that her benefit to-morrow night will be a handsome testimonial to her merits as an artist and to her personal worth.

SEVENTH STERET OPERA HOUSE. --- Messis. Tu-nison & Co., offer a very attractive pro-gramme at their pleasant little theatre this eyen-ng. There will be several entirely new bur-lerques and extravaganzas, filled with fun and iollity; Mr. Frack Moran will appear in favorite impersonations, and there will be vocal and instrumental music, dancing, Ethiopian comicall-tics, and the usual melange of good things which go to make up a first-rate minstrel performance. BURNETT.-Mr. Alf. Burnett, the celebrated humorist, will appear at Assembly Buildings to-night in several of his most famous personations. Burnett is an inimitable mimic, and his entertainments are intensely amusing.

MUSICAL.

ITALIAN OPERA. — The Maretzek-Harrison Italian Opera Troupe will begin a brief season at the Academy of Music this evening. Madame Parepa Rosa will appear in her great role of "Norma," supported by a number of eminent artists in the parts. A full orchestra and a well-trained chorns will be present.

COMBINATION CONCERT .- On Wednesday evening, the 25th inst., a grand combination concert will be given at Concert Hall, in which Madame Gazzaniga, Leopold De Meyer, and several other eminent artists will participate. Tickets can be procured at Trumpler's music store.

AMUSEMENTS. The CHESTNUT.—At the Chestnut Street Thea-tre last night was produced for the first time a drama, by H. J. Byron, entitled Dearer Than Life; or, the Profiguet's Return. Upon the bills the piece is styled "a beautiful domestic play," but its claim to either of these adjectives is not at all evident, while its demerits are so great that the most considerate and partial spectator might strive in vain to find a single , passage worthy of comin vain to find a single passage worthy of com-mendation. The plot is stale and hackneyed. A fast young man loses large sums of money by betting in a wholly unitelligible manner upon a race horse, which has undergone the mysterious operation of "teratching," and as this misfortune insures the animal's deteat, for some reason not by any means apparent, the youth is driven to commit a forgery and emberglement, which are dis-covered and he is consequently compelled to fly to a foreign land. In the meantime his family are reduced to want, and after enduring intense suffering are saved from absolute starvation by the
