The Whisky Business-Another Raid Among the Distilleries-Twelve Stills Captured. Col. Peter C. Ellmaker, the United States Marshal, made another raid among the illicit whisky distilleries in Port Richmond, this morn-

Marshal, made another raid among the illicit whisky distilleries in Port Richmond, this morning. The last expedition was considered a failure, inasmuch as the parties most concerned had evidently gained knowledge of the intended visit of the officers, and had taken good care to remove or effectually conceal all the stills and other apparatus used it was therefore determined that the expedition of to day should be conducted in the most secret manner. It was arranged that the Marshal, his chief Deputy, Hanline, and Deputies Duke and Gordon, and four reliable men selected by Duke, should meet at Richmond Hall at daylight this morning, and all hands were present at the appointed time. Lieut Murray, of the Eighteenth District police, who had received a quiet intimation of the matter through Chief Ruggles, had five men detailed to assist the Marshal was to arrest two notorious characters, but these fellows could not be found, and it was discovered that some of the stills were then a raid, and the same section which has received attention before—William, Salmon and Edgm intestretts—was visited. The raid was very successful, and resulted in the capture of twelve stills were either in operation, or work had just ceased. None of the workmen were captured however. In two or three houses, when the doors were opened, coat tails were seen disapposaring through a back window or however. In two or three houses, when the doors were opened, coat tails were seen disappearing through a back window or over a rear fence. One barrel of whisky which had been chptured was stolen away while the Marshal's attention was given in another direction for about three minutes, and although the most diligent search was made, it could not be found again. In all the places visited more or less mach was discovered, but it was not destroyed, as the Marshal is liable for damages for any property injured when it is not mentioned in any property injured when it is not mentioned in The first place which received the attention of The first place which received the attention of the officers this morning was on William street, below Edgmont. The house had no number. A copper still and a barrel of whisky, and one partly filed, were found.

At No. 1185 William street a copper still was found in the rear of the hone.

At No. 1185 William street a copper still was found in the rear of the house.

In the rear of No. 1189 William street, a copper still and a barrel of whisky were found.

No. 1186 William street was next visited, where a copper still was found in the rear of the house. At No. 1188 William street a copper still and a barrel partly filled with whisky were seized.

In the house northeast corner of William and Edgmont streets, a barrel of whisky was found, but there were no signs of a still.

No. 1187 William street, a copper still and a barrel of whisky were confiscated.

No. 1137 William street, a copper still and a barrel of whisky were confiscated.

The officers then took a turn into Fremont street. At No. 1048 two barrels of whisky and a copper still complete were found.

In the yard of a house opposite there was a tin still in good running order.

At No. 1720 Richmond street a copper still, worm and a barrel of whisky fell into the hands of the raiders.

On the adjoining premises, No. 1722, a copper still and worm were also found, and at a house still and worm were also found, and at a house on Salmon street, below Clearfield, the Marshal met with like success. This is the most successful raid which has been made. Everything was accomplished in the most made. Everything was accompused in the most quiet and orderly manner, as scarcely any body was astir, and the raiders were able to work without being annoyed by a crowd of men, women and children.

and churth.

The property selzed and confiscated was placed in furniture cars and removed to the Government storehouse used for that purpose.

LARCENY.-Philip Callahan was arrested yesterday at Twenty-fourth and Pearl streets upon the charge of the larceny of copper kettles, from the yard of a confectionery store at Twenty-first and Vine streets. He was taken before Ald. Pancoast and was held in $600 bail to answer.

Thomas Meagher was before Ald. Morrow this morning upon the charge of having stolen a shawl and frock from a house at Sixth and St. Mary streets. He was held in $600 bail for this.

A MAN'S BACK VERY EXPENSIVE. A gentleman of wealth has traveled over Europe and America, visited every medical institute of notoriety and paid over $5,000, to rid himself of pain in the small or lower part of the back, from which he had suffered twenty years without a moment of cessation, until he called at Dr. Wolcott's office, 170 Chatham equare, New York, where all are relieved of all pain tree of cost, in less than ten minutes, by painting with Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. All pain was gone and he exercised himself by assuming various postures and movements of his body which he had never been able to do since first attacked. It invigorates the feeble, gives tone to the body, leaves no stain, is perfectly harmless in the most delicate

An Engenesino Firm. Mesers. Jones, Tem ple & Co., the well-known hatters, No. 29 South Ninth street, above Chestnut, have just received from Europe samples of the very latest styles of hats, and they are now prepared to manufacture to order elegant silk hats, ranging in price from five to ten dollars, of any of these styles, or of any other shape their customers desire. They make a specialty of young men's silk hats, and they have incurred the expense of erecting an additional story to their building, and have greatly increased their force of workmen in order to accommodate their constantly enlarging custom. This firm leads the fashion in hats and headgear generally, and persons purchasing of them can rely upon always being in the latest style.-From Sunday Transcript.
