the journal to-day the House took up the bill to guarantee to the several States of the Union a republican form of government. Mr. Broomall took the floor in support of it. He was followed by Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania, in opposi-tion, who in turn was succeeded by Mr. Knott, of Kentucky, who is now speaking. It is understood that Thaddeus Stevens, who has been brought into the hall, extremely weak and flook. ing unusually pale, will speak for a few minutes from the Clerk's desk, where he is sitting. The Report on the Whisky Frauds. ISpecial Deepatch to the Phila Evening Bulletin. J WASHINGTON, March 18.—There is considerable talk in Congressional circles to-day over the report made by Mr. Van Wyck on the whisky fraude. It appears that he was entrusted with this labor by the Retrenchment Committee, and without any authority from them, or making the sub-report to them, he laid his report before the House. Many members the Committee are greatly exercised over it, especially those who represent the Senate, and they are indignant that the report was not first made to the entire committee. They wish it understood that it is not the report of the Retrenchment Committee proper, but merely that of one of its members.

It is very probable that the attention of Congrees will be called to the conduct of Mr. Van Wyck, and that some action will be had in the matter. Some members talk very freely of censuring him, although admitting that the expose made in the report is perfectly just.

The Tax on Manufactures. Special Despatch to the Philada. Evening Bolletin.] WASHINGTON, March 18th .- The Senate this
