tried by the Benate without unnecessary delay.
Mr. Boutveil (Mass.) from the Impresement Managers, ret orted the following resolution:
Meso red. That on the day when the Senate shall meet for the trial of the President on the articles of impeachment exhibited by the House of Representatives, the House, in Committee of the Whole, will attend with the Managers at the Bar of the Senate at the hoar named for the commencement of the proceedings.
Mr. Word (N. Y.) asked whether the resolution was to be understood as meaning that the House should remain in the Senate Chamber during the trial.
Mr. Boutwell said he did not understand there was any compulsion, except what rested on each member by his own sense of propriety.

The Speaker—There will not be under this resolution in the days of the trial. Mr. Boutwell—Yes, during the hours of the trial. My understanding is that the bouse does not adjourn, but will return to this Chamter.

Mr. Jenckes suggested an amendment to the resolution, providing that on the days of the trial the House will meet at 11 o'clock, so as to have a morning hour.

Mr. Washburne hoped that would not be agreed to. It would be netterly impossible for the committees to get No clock.

Mr. Boutwell declined to accept the amendment. It would be presented to the House itself.

The resolution was agreed to.

The Speaker appointed Messrs Butler, Lawrence (Ohio) and Burr as the House conferees on the Pension Appropropriation bill, the Benate conferees being Senators Grimes, Edmunds and Hendricks. The point in dispute is relative to the Naval Pension fund.
