OITY BULLETIN.

THE CASE OF GEN. WAQNEE. -In the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday the jury in the case Turk CABE OF GER. WARNEL for y in the case Quarter Sessions yesterday the jury in the case of John Struthers, charged with perjury in falsely swearing that General Louis Wagner had taken a watch from him while a soldier at Camp William Penn, brought in a verdict of guilty. During nearly two years General Louis Wagner-has labored under the "houndings," as District-Ationmey Mann styled it, of persons who, from political and other motives, have charged him with taking the watch from this man. The sister of the prisoner, however, has relieved the Gene-ral from this serious imputation by promptly averring that she never gave Struthers the watch, as he swore to in the District Court. The jury have, by their verdict, said the case in the District Gourt was cut out of the whole cloth, and thereby vindicated the character of General Wagner from one of the foulest aspersions that could rest on a man who is jealous of his good name. man who is jealous of his good name.

THE ALMSHOUSE .- The annual statement of the Guardians of [the Poor for 1867 was submatted to Councils yesterday. The appropriamsticd to Councils yesterday. The appropria-msticd to Councils yesterday. The appropria-tion for the year was $454,140; oxpenditures, $448,540 24. This includes house purposes, steam pipes, masonry, and out-door purposes. The average population of the Almshouse, in-cluding assistants, during the year, was 3,082. The average weekly cost of the inmates was about $2. There has been quite an improvement over last year in the health of the institution, and there has been considerable decrease in the number of deaths. The mortality of the house for 1866, was 893; for 1867, 809; decrease, 84; number in the house, December 31, 1866, 8,309; December 31, 1867, 5,550; number of admis-sions, 1867, 5,901; average population, 1866, 3,075; 1867, 3,082. 1867. 3.082

TAPPING A TILL .- A colored man named James Cole was arrested this morning by Detective Levy, upon the charge of having robbed the Levy, upon the charge of having robust the money drawer of the tavern of William Maher, No. 602 Lombard street, of $87. Mr. Maher alleges that he was out for a short time and upon his return the money was missed. Cole, who had been about the place, was seen to go behind the bar. In a short time he loft and did not return again until last night. He will have a hearing at the Control Streing this afternoon.

the Central Station this afternoon. BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY .--- A young woman, named Sarah Kitchen, while passing along Kitchen's lane, below Ridge avenue, on Wednes-Kitchen's lane, below Ridge avenue, on Wednes-day afternoon, was accosted by a man wearing a United States uniform, who demanded her money. She refused, and was then knocked down by a club and robbed of her finger rings. The facts were reported at a house in the vicinity as soon as the vicitm of the outrage recovered consciousness, and the country was scoured, but no clue to the robber could be obtained.

ROBBERT .--- Yesterday afternoon an individual entered the store of W. A. Miller, No. 126 North Front street, and said that he wished to buy some Front street, and said that he wished to buy some cider. While the attendant was engaged with him, another man entered and busied himself with the Directory. Before the sale of the cider had been effected, the second man left, and after his departure it was formd that a pocket-book containing $40 in money and a check for $60 had been abstracted from the drawer.

FAST DELVING ON BROAD STREET .- The police made quite a raid upon persons who were indulging in fast driving on North Broad street yester-day afternoon. Wm. K.Stackhouse, Henry Zeig-ler, William W. Jones, Patrick Daily and Joseph Watts were arrested. They were taken before Alderman Fitch, who imposed the usual penalty for violating the city ordinances, and held each to ball to keep the peace. ball to keep the peace.

MUSIOAL. ITALIAN OFREA.—Last ovening the Academy of Music was very well filled with an audience assembled to hear the Carnival of Venice. The performance was in every respect an orcellent one. Probably Signor Ronconi carried off the unost honors by his excellent acting. He kept the audience in a continual roar of langhter while he was upon the stage. Miss Hauck also performed her part in a very praiseworthy and acceptable manner. She sang delightfully, and gave evidence of the possession of considera-ble histrionic talent. This young lady has made a very favorable impression in this city whonever she has appeared, and it is a matter of sincere re-gret that our opera-goers do not have opportu-nity to see her more frequently. Mad. Testa and Miss Ronconi acquitted themselves in a very sat-iefactory manner. This evening Mad. Agatha States will appear, for the first time in this city, in the opera of Ernani, supported by a strong cast. To-morrow afternoon Crispino e la Comare will be given, and in the evening Faust is an-nounced, with a great cast. Of Madame States' first appearance in New York the Herald epoke as follows: Ernani last night, to a fashionable and delighted audience, was spiritedly and handsomely done at this popu-lar house. As the bill defines it, "the spiendid cast" of Madame Agatha States as "Elvira." Pan-cani as "Ernani." Bellini as "Carlo Quinto," and Antonucel as "Don Sylvio," was well adapted for an effective execution of the several parts in detail and in combination. It is a powerful team, pulling beautifully together. Madame States, fine as she was on her first appearance here, was still better last night. She had passed the ordeal of her introduction to a New York operatic au-dience with marked approbation, and she was therefore "at home" on this occasion, and with-out reserve, and confident that the house was with-ber, she has a remarkably fresh, vigorona, therefore "at home" on this occasion, and with-out reserve, and confident that the house was with her, she sang with the enthusiasm of an accepted lavorite. She has a remarkably fresh, vigorous, elastic and powerful slivery voice, and is withal handsome in person and graceful in her move-ments as a born duchese. With half a chance she will surely make her mark in the world and get her diamond necklace from the Czar. Pancani was splendid as the "Ernani" of this "Elvira" and Bellini was really grand in his role. MUSICAL SOIRKE.—This evening at Musical Fund Hall, a muisical soirce and festival will be given in aid of the building fund of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church. A number of prominent musicians will participate. PARLOR CONCERT.—On Wednesday evening, the 25th instant, Mr. William H. Reiff will give a at Haverford streets, West Philadelphia. An attractive programme has been prepared, and an entertainment of more than usual merit may be anticipated.

COMBINATION CONCERT.—On Wednesday eve-ning, the 25th inst., a grand combination concert will be given at Concert Hall, in which Madame Gazzaniga, Leopold De Meyer, and several other eminent artists will participate. Tickets can be procured at Trumpler's music store. ORGAN CONCERT.—A grand organ concert will be given at Concert Hall on the evening of the 26th. A large number of well-known musicians will participate.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.

NEW JEBSEY MATTERS. ATLANTIC CITY.—The fine weather has caused an active revival of improvement in Atlantic City, and various improvements are now going for-ward with easergy and vigor. A large number of new buildings are in contemplation, and the work on several is being pushed rapidly forward. It is estimated that by the time the season opens about twenty new buildings will be completed. Other improvements are going forward. The CULTIVATION OF CRANBERTIES.—The cul-tivation of cranberries in South Jersey is rapidly increasing, and great care is manifested in pre-paring the groands. It is said that in the imme-diate vicinity of Williamstown, Camden county, there are about four thousand acres of excellent

CHESTNUT STREET THEATRE .- "Nobody's Child" ought to be a great success as a sensational drama. Three villains, three lovers, one for each act, two murders, one strong-minded heroine, and an idiot, combine to form the personages of a strong and exciting story, well calculated to please the most exacting of audiences in these days of the sensational. The new play last night, well cast, and assisted materially by the beauti well cast, and assisted initiating by the beautiful scenery of the Chestont, was received with favor, and the several tableaux and "thrilling situations" incident to the drama, apparently pleased the audience exceedingly. Two or three of these situations have a familiar look, but the effect of the piece was not destroyed by this circumstance. The spirited acting of Miss Orton as the "Mills-mid," and Mr. Leake as the idiot ("Nobody's child") carried the play through successfully, notwithstanding the difficulties of a first night notwithstanting the uniterates of a refer in the when few of the performers were perfect in the text. On the whole, the drama was a success. It is purely and strictly sensational, and cannot lay claim to the merit which belongs to legitimate drama, but it is good of its kind, and ought to have as long a run as other plays of the same character have had.
