LONDON, March 25th .-- The House of Commons ast night passed the bill for the abolition of Church rates. VIENNA, March 25th .- The New Free Presse, in an editorial on the recent visit of Prince Napoleon, asserts that his object in going to Berlin was to hold a conference with the signers of the treaty of 1815, for the purpose of arging them to treaty of 1810, for the purpose of unging such of Nos. 435 and 437 Chestnut Street, Poland by Russia.

The New German Treaty. WASHINGTON, March 25 .- The President sent a brief report from the Secretary of State, saying that, in his opinion, it is not compatible with the public interests at this time to comply with the resolution calling for copies of all correspondence, negotiations and treaties held or made with any of the German States since Jan. 1, 1868, relative to the rights of neutrals.

Proceedings in the Senate. WABHINGTON, March 25th .- The Senate consumed a considerable part of the afternoon in discussing the report of the Committee on Revision of the Rules, which was finally adopted. The vote by which the Army Appropriation bill was passed was reconsidered by the Senate, on motion of Mr. Morrill, of Maine, and the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

He finds fault with the retroactive effect of this section, and indulges in a laudation of the high character and dignity of the Supreme Court. [Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, March 25 .- The President today sent to the Senate a message returning, with his objections, the bill repealing so much of a former act as provides for appeals from Circuit Courts to the Supreme Court of the United States. It will be recollected that the design of the bill, as openly expressed by members of the House, was to prevent appeals in the McArdle and other similar cases.
