OITY BULLETIN.

Knooking Down Made Rasy.--Knocking down is cometimes as much a work of necessity ne setting up is. Disorderly, drunken, and bad men, who are unwilling to yield obedience to the law or its officers, must, when occasion demands it, be brought to terms through coercion. The bludgeon is the instrument that is usually applied to this purpose; but the locust or ebouy bludgeon breaks bones and causes contusions, and these results are not the object contentions, and the law in knocking down the refractory. Mr. Mahlon Warne, of this city, has invented a mace that is warranted to knock a man down effectually a supersed of cumally and comfortably. It is composed of gum-clastic and brass, the handle being formed of the latter material, and the portion which comes in contact with the caput of the refractory indi-vidual being a hollow cylinder of gum-clastic, which would scarcely break the skin of an infant, which would entite to fell the strongest man while it would suffice to fell the strongest man.
It is the difference between a blow with a strong, bony fist and one administered with the open hand. The handle elides into the hollow gum, which makes the instrument more compact and portable This humane contrivance has been brought to the notice of the police of the principal cities, and it will probably be adopted as a weapon of offence and defence.

FATAL RESULT OF A KICK .- A man named Pat. Duffy aged 25 years, died yesterday at the Penn-Dutly aged 25 years, died yesterday at the Pensylvania Hospital, from the effects of a kick in the stomach. On Wednesday last he went into Gibbony's tavern, at Seventh and Shippen streets. He sat down to play cards, and had several drinks, for which he refused to pay. He then had an altercation with a man in regard to the payment for the liquor, and was knocked down and beaton and kicked. He started away from the house, but after proceeding a short distance, laid and beaten and kicked. He started away from the house, but after proceeding a short distance, laid down on a cellar door. He was found there, suffering greatly from his injuries, and was conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where he died, as above stated. Corener Daniels will hold an inquest in the case on Monday. The man who is alleged to have kicked the deceased has not been arrested.

A LOCAL TELEGRAPH.-It has long been a matter of surprise that while the magnetic wires stretch almost continuously from all parts of stretch almost continuously from all parts of Europe to the Pacific coast, there is no available local telegraph in use in this city. The Police and Fire Alarm Telegraph is a very useful institution, but it is employed in the public service exclusively, and a private citizen could send a despatch to St. Louis more readily than he could send a message from his place of business to his dwelling. This defect has been remedied, and through the enterprise of the Western Union Telegraph Company messages can be sent all over the city at a very trifling cost. A list of the stations will be found in an advertisement in the BULLETIN of to-day. BULLETIN of to-day.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT: - Yesterday afternoon the cry of murder was heard in the neighborhood of Fourth and South streets, and a policeman of Fourth and South streets, and a policeman observed three men running out of a court. He gave chase, and called on a citizon named Moore, to assist him. Moore succeeded in capturing one of the fugitives, who gave his name as Francis Riley. The officer started back with Riley to ascertain the cause of the disturbance, and during his absence the other two men fell more Mr. ascertain the cause of the disturbance, the during his absence the other two men fell upon Mr. Moore, and beat him in a savage manner. One of the assailants was afterwards arrested. He gave his name as Thomas Craig. The prisoners both had a hearing before Alderman Beitler this morning, and were committed.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR .- Mr. Lewis Waln Smith was admitted to practice in the Court of Common Pleas, and in the District Courts, this morping, on motion of Charles E. Lex, Esq. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the Central High school, and for several years has been connected with the editorial department of the Evening Telegraph. He is a young man of great promise, and will no doubt be very successful in his new STEALING FURS .- An individual named William Lewis, who was dressed in the uniform of a cap-Lewis, who was dressed in the uniform of a captain in the army, was in Oakford's store, under the Continental, yesterday. After he left a set of furs was missed. Lewis was suspected of having stolen the furs, and Mr. Oakford, in company with Reserve Policeman Henderson, searched his room, at the Bingham House. There the stolen articles were found. Lewis was arrested. After a hearing before Alderman Beitler, he was committed to answer at Court. mitted to answer at Court.

A PROTEST.—An ordinance has passed Common Council giving authority to use any wharf on the Delaware river, between Coates and Race streets, for the storage of manure and the preparation of pondrette. The citizens living in that locality, and the merchants doing business on the river front, very justly object to this movement, and have sent a protest to the Mayor and to Select Cornell ripor the subject. lect Council upon the subject.

Susricious.—A man named Charles Davis, who saye that he is from Cincinnati, was found in the counting-room at Twaddell's flour mill, on Market street, west of Twenty-first, yeaterday afternoon. He was unable to satisfactorily account for his presence, and was detained by Mr. Twaddell until a policeman was sent for. He was then taken before Ald. Jones and held in $1,000 for attempted robbery. for attempted robbery.

SAKE BLOWN OPEN .- About one o'clock thi morning, the Moorestown, N. J., steam mill' owned by Mr. John L. Buzby, located near that borough, was entered by burglars, who blew open the safe and carried off about fifty dollars in money and other valuables. The concussion was a heavy one, as most of the glass in the building

Fatal Railroad Accident.

[From the Newark Advertiser of the 27th.] Yesterday afternoon a trackman on the Morris Yesterday afternoon a trackman on the Morris and Rasex Railroad, named John Hannan, at work near South Orange, was struck by the engine of a down train and fatally injured. The deceased had been in this country but a few montas. He stepped in front of the approaching engine to avoid a train on the other track. His ckull was completely turned back from the top of his head, exposing the brain. He was removed in an insensible condition to his residence, where he died at midnight. Dr. Dodd, the county physician, was summoned to attend him.

The trains on the Morris and Essex road going north were delayed yesterday afternoon an unusually-long time by the smash up of a coal train above Morristown. Some of the passengers, eccling no prospect of a speedy removal of the obstructions, returned to this city late at night.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Theatres. — At the Arch this evening Mr. 8. Hemple, the popular comedian, will have a benefit in a bill including Waiting for the Verdict and Our American Cousis. Mr. Hemple's personal popularity, added to his undoubted merit as a first rate actor, should suffice to crowd the house this evening. — On Monday night Mc. Frank Mordsunt will have a benefit. Two popular dramas will be given apon this occasion. The Outcast, and a Husband to Order. In the first of these Mr. Mordsunt will sustain the character of "Henry Dunbar." This is a role which he has made a specialty and a fine performance may be expected. At the Wainut to night The Rag Picker of Paris and Nick of the Woods will be given, with Mr. J. B. Roberts in the former THE THEATERS. - At the Arch this evening will be given, with Mr. J. B. Roberts in the former piece. The American offers a varied performance.
