THE ADDRESS OF THE STATE OF THE S The Irish Church Establishment—In-teresting Debate in the Mouse of Commons.

Property of the property of th perm of internal disruption over the ritual. All men, said Mr. Bright, learn something, even a Prime Minister.

All begin to see the great principle which underlies these great questions. He asked the House to grasp the subject boldly, tear up the foul weeds, and leave the Irish Church an ornal for the property of th

Usher, of Lynn, to of Newburyport, and R. G. Usher, of Lynn, to represent them in the National Convention at Chicago. Willard P. Phillips and Ben Perley Poore are the substitutes, and all are instructed to vote for Grant and Wilson.

Upon the impeachment question the convention declared as follows:

Resolved, That we rejoice to see the great criminal of the White House at last brought to trial; that believing him guilty, we demand his speedy trial and prompt conviction and removal. trial and prompt conviction and removal.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to our distinguished representative in Congress, Hon. B. F. Butler, for his bold, manly efforts to secure the impeachment and removal of Andrew Johnson, and we congratulate the country and him that these efforts seem likely to be crowned with success.
