CITY BULLETING

THE CATHEDRAL ORGAN.-It is expected that the new organ, built by Mr. Standbridge, for the Roman Catholic Cathedral, in Logan Square, Roman Catholic Cathedral, in Logan Square, will be ready for use on Easter Sunday, April 12th. A further description of it in the Catholic Standard says the organ case is 30 feet wide and about 45 feet high. A central semicircular partition over the music desk rises like a tower, composed of richly glided metal-pipes. Above is a beautifully carved cornice and broken pediment, rich in architectural design, and surmound by a large golden cross. The tower referred ted by a large golden cross. The tower referred to is flanked by ranges of smaller pipes, and at the ends are other projections, all crowned by neat cornices, and divided into sections by large fluted columns with Corinthian capitals. It has fluted columns with Corinthian capitals. It has four banks of keys.

There are four manuals, the compass of each being from CC to A, 58 keys, and a pedal board of 28 keys, from CCC to E. The podal organ has flive stops and 145 pipes. The choir organ, 12 stops and 749 pipes. The great organ 15 stops and 1,159 pipes, and the swell organ 13 stops and 812 pipes. The solo organ contains some grand reeds, an orchestral oboc, clarionet with bassoon basses, a splendid trumpet, a stopped diapason with a double mouth, and a harmonic flute. There are blanks for other stops, which can be added in the future.

added in the future. The Bishop has obtained, and had placed in the Cathedral, a set of magnificent oil paintings, "Stations of the Cross." They are the handlwork of an Italian artist of reputation and fame, and were obtained by Bishop Wood during his recent tour to the Eternal City.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY .- A young man named George Caldwell was arrested this morning by Detective Levy. About two years ago, it is alleged, he went to the store of Adamson & Baeder, No. 750 Market street, to collect money for an Orphans' Home. He was given a check for $100, drawn to the order of Charles F. Norton. The check was presented at the bank and paid, and it was afterwards found that the endorsement and it was afterwards found that the endorsement of Mr. Norton was a forgery. This morning Caldwell went to the same store on a similar errand, He was recognized, and the former transaction was remembered. Detective Levy was sent for, and as soon as he appeared Caldwell got ready to leave, but he was taken into custody. On the way to the Station-hease he broke away and ran. Levy pursued, and captured him on Sixth street above Market. The accused will have a hearing this afternoon at the Central Station. About a month sgo, it is alleged, he collected $50 for a charitable institution without authority.

SMALL SWINDLE .- A few days ago a man, giving his name as Connor, and representing that he is from Key West, stopped into a store in this city and engaged in conversation with a member of the firm. He appeared to know considerable about the business of the establishment, and, in a measure gained the confidence of the gentleman. He got 85 cents to meet a pressing necessity and left. It was afterwards found that he had ordered in the name of the firm a frame store-house to be built at Frankford for shipment, and a steam engine at Camden. This, of course, is very annoying to all the parties concerned. It is supposed that the man is somewhat deranged. He is about 35 years of age, has light hair and and whichers and sould supply the supposed that the man is somewhat deranged. sandy whiskers, and equiuts.

POLICE BUSINESS .- During the month of March 2,948 arrests were made by the police of the city. The prisoners were divided among the several districts as follows:

FIRELast night a fire was discovered in house, No. 309 Shippen street, in an apartment occupied by a Mrs. Carrigan and three children, two girls and a boy. The policeman who first observed the fire found that it was under the door. He tore up some of the boards and extin-guished the dames, which were found among some rags. It seems that some rat holes had been plugged up with rags, and the rats had drawn the rags in. Last night one of the children dropped a penny into the hole, and taking a lighted stick, poked it into the hole to find the lost nickel. In that way the rags were set on fire. The damage done was trifling.

BAD Boys.—The Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Reilroad Company is constantly annoyed by boys throwing stones at the cars. At several places along the line the trains are stoned. Recently some of these mischievous yeuths have located themselves on a bridge by which the township line road crosses the railroad, has above Broad street, and have amused themselves by dropping stones upon the tops of the cars. Some of these stones have been so large that they broke through the roof of the cars. The Company has determined to break upon. cars. The Company has determined to break up the nuisance, and yesterday two of the boys were arrested. They were held to bail by Alder-

New Buildings .- During the month of March 387 permits for the erection of new buildings were issued by the Building Inspectors. Of that number 5 were for four-story dwellings, 191 for three-story dwellings, and 106 for two-story dwellings. Boller-houses, 2; coach-houses, 2; dye-house, 1; depot, 1; factories, 4; ice-house, 1; mill-house, 1; offices, 9; picture gallery, 1; slaughter-house, 1; sheds, 4; shops, 20; school-houses, 3; store-houses, 3; stores, 11; stables, 20; tower, 1. There were also 127 permits issued for alterations and additions.

ALL FOOLS' DAY .- This being the 1st of April, is known as All Fools' Day, and the mischievous urchins are playing their pranks upon unsuspecting individuals who pass along the streets. Greenbacks with strings to them, small parcels in like condition, and other articles, were lying around loose upon the sidewalks, this morning, to be snapped up by passers-by—always provided that they could sneeed in getting their hands upon the waiting prize. Various other hoaxes were got up in different parts of the city.

Suicide.-A woman, named Elizabeth Huston. aged 65 years, committed suicide, this morning, at her residence, at Wildey and Ayre streets. She got up about 4 o'clock and went to an out house, where she was afterwards found dead. She had cut her throat with a razor, which was found in the building. It is supposed that she was laboring under a temporary derangement at the time of the commission of the act of self-

SERIOUS CHARGE .- J. W. Hurn, a photographer doing business at No. 1319 Chestnut street, was arrested yesterday by Reserve Policeman Parker, and was taken before Alderman Beltler, upon the charge of misdemeanor, in having enticed into his place two little girls, with whom he took improper liberties. Hurn was held in $3,000 ball to answer at court.

TRACHERS' MRETING .- A meeting of the principals of the Grammar, Secondary and Primary Public Schools will be held on April 3d, at 3½ o'clock P. M., at the Central High School, for the purpose of conferring with the Committee on Revision of Studies.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE .- A man who was engaged in digging a cellar on Fetter lane, in the Sixth Ward, was arrested yesterday, upon the charge of violating an ordinance in throwing the dirt into the street. He was fined five dollars.

FATAL RESULT.-David Walker, who was so shockingly injured by being caught in the machinery at his planing mill, at Sixteenth and Fitzwater streets, died yesterday afternoon, about

THE LOSS .- The loss of Messra. Weiss & Co., by the burning of their cabinet manufactory, on Alder street, above Master, on Monday night, is estimated at $10,000, upon which there is an insurance of $4,500.

RESIGNED .- Joseph Manual has resigned his position as Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia Gas Works. Thomas E. Brown, Chief Clerk, will temporarily act as Chief Engineer.

PRESS CLUB.—A stated meeting of the Press Club of Philadelphia will be held this afternoon, at four o'clock, at the rooms, No. 515 Chestnut

HELMBOLD Dear Sir:-In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buours, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years I do not think there is any form or preparation of it] have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such inedicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has be extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu-the powdered leaves, the simple decoction, tine tore fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence ever all others.

I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases o the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu, or any other proprietory compound of whatever name. Respectfully yours, &c.,
