Mr. Smith then supported the bill in a speech of considerable length.

Mr. Ewing, of Washington: Mr. Boyd, of York Mr. Mann, of Potter, and Mr. Chalfant, of Moniour, spoke against the bill.

Pending the discussion the hour of adjournment arrived.

Senate bill, an act to revise, amend and consolidate the severel laws axing corporations bankers and brokers (as revised by the Civil Code Commissioners) was considered.

One provision of this bill imposed a tax of five per cent, upon deposits in incorporated banks, and also on unincorporated institutions. This provision struck out on motion of Mr. Mann, of Potter. The bill then passed finally.
