but after all, the subject on the whole is not of so melancholy a character as would appear from the picture we have drawn. The "Nigger" has not been an "cvil unmixed with good" to the Democratic party. On the contrary they owe their very-political existence to day to this source alone. It is their stock in trade—the great cohesive power which has thus far preserved them from disruption and ultimate annihilation. It has served them in the place of argument and intelligent reasoning on scores of political battle fields. A brainless demagogue, ambitable their stock in trade—the great cohesive power of deep-scated and ominous discontent.

printing, especially in connection with the printed, and of which additional copies could be procured at a much less expense. He inquired what the probable cost would be.

Mr. Anthony replied, probably about $10,000.

Mr. Sherman thought it time to stop the waste of money in the distribution of documents to their constituents, who could buy them at the book storce, if they wanted them.

Mr. Buckalew (Pa.) moved to add the following as an amendment: "And the distribution of the same shall be in accordance with the population of the States respectively."

Mr. Anthony denied that the expenses of Conhat they are not so much now in greenbacks as Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) thought, from an exami-ation he had made last seasion, the Senator was staken, that the expenses had largely increased ting the reporters of the Associated Press to a seat on the floor, as had been proposed, without Vestay Elections.—Yesterday, being Easter Monday, the annual Vestry elections were held in the Episcopal Churches in this city. They took place, chiefly upon Issues growing out of the Ritualist movement. Two tickets were in the field, and a very active canvass of the contrymen in the place of three who had been a tively identified with the Ritualist views. I following is the result in detail:
