The Lincoln Monument in Wash-ington.

The dedication of the Lincoln Monument took mates that seven bodies are consumed, which can-not be verified until the wreck is removed. The following is a list of the casualities: The dedication of the Lincoln Monument took place yesterday afternoon, in front of the City Hall, Washington. The monument consists of a Tuscan pillar, thirty-five feet high, surmounted by a colossial statue of Lincoln, all of white marble. It is the work of Lot Flannery, of this contract to purchase goods, and will execute any orders entrusted to him promptly, and for a small correction. KILLED. Ephralm Hoyt and wife, of Chenango Forks, New York. ty, and was procured by voluntary contribuous of citizens of Washington, costing $7,000.

Thousands of spectators were present, including Masonic, Sons of Temperance and other civil organizations.
On the stand, among others, were the President of the United States, Major-Generals Hancock and Emory, and other military, and also naval aents of the government, members of Congres and a large representation of foreign countries, yiz.: The Ministers from England, Prussia, Italy and Greece; the Charge d'Affaires from Denmark, and the Consul-General from Switzerland, toge-ther with their attaches, and gentlemen connected with other legations. General Grant and Major-General Howard were near, but not on the stand.

During the proceedings there were alternate rai After prayer and the playing of dirges by the bands, Major B. B. French delivered an address on the Life and Services of Abraham Lincoln, at the conclusion of which the band played the "Ranzi des Vaches," and Colonel E. B. Olmstead ecited a poem, when the President of the United States was conducted to the front of the platform, and then pulling at the halyards, unveiled the statue. Shout after shout was given by th dense assembly: the band meantime playing an air, while the Star-Spangled Banner was waved on the platform. After the introduction of the artist and the pronouncing of the benediction, the
