A large meeting of delegates of the "Boys in Blue."

A large meeting of delegates of the "Boys in Blue" was held last night at their new room on Chestnut street, below Sixth, General Owens, President, in the chair.

General Owens said that "after a long season of total and the company was now approach."

TRUE BILLS.—Ine Grand Jury, now sitting for the May term of the Camden county courts, have already presented a large number of true bills, among which there are ninety-three against Wm. Hanna, on charges of forgery. It will be remembered that about three months ago he was arrested for carrying on these operations to a Meeting of "Boys in Blue." General Owens said that "after a long season of rest, and as the campaign was now approaching, it was proper to call the council of the 'Boys in Blue' again together. It is a body that is acting in perfect accord with the Republican party, and possibly, and I hope truthfully, will be of great benefit to it. I have every reason to believe that the campaign will begin on Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock, for I have undoubted authority that the man who has betrayed his party, his companions and his country will be convicted at that ime."

membered that about three months ago he was arrested for carrying on these operations to a great extent, and it was found that he had forged the hames of a very large number of the most prominent business men of Camden, and some of Palladelphia, to notes, amounting in the aggregate to some $75,000. At the time he was taken into custody he waived a hearing, and it is said he designs to plead guilty to the indictments as made out against him. The criminal business of the draw on this particulous. The way to make clothing pay, a good interest for your money is to always buy it at Charles Stokes & Co.'s, under the Courts will commence next week.

RESIGNED.—Rev. Charles E. Ford, for twenty reconsidered at the last meeting, Gen. Bodine offered the following preamble and resolution:

many who wished to attend the Chicago Convention. In regard to the necessity of early organization, it was well proved in 1866, when coldiers rapidly advancing in value, and a large amount were nominated and carried the ticket successfully through, In 1867, men said trust to the generosity of the conventions. We did so, and failed disastrously. I am for examest, thorough or to the conventions of the conventions of the conventions. anization such as will bring the corrupt political ring, that has been sucking the life-blood of the Republican party to its knees. There is not the slightest shadow of a doubt that the great mass of the people would rather bestow its political favois on a brave soldier than on those miserable politicians and tricketers who have hung around the State House trees for years. If we attempt to do anything they cry "Soldier! soldier! He has been paked well enough while in the army," Let us decide like men whom we will put up, and call a convention and nominate our men, and demand convention and nominate our men, and demand of the convention to place them on the ticket.

Mr. J. W. Monterth thought that it would be proper to nominate a whole city ticket to present to the different conventions. A LUXURY FROM WHICH ISRAELITES HAV withdrew his resolution.

General Collis asked what it was intended to do. If a candidate was nominated to each convention then each would shirk, and say "let the other conventions nominated a solder," so that none would be nominated. We should have the Constant with the conventions attached as there are none would be nominated. We should have the offices that have patronage attached, as there are hundreds of deserving soldiers out of employment who should have it. If we had the Mayor these deserving applicants could be accommodated.

Mr. Montieth moved that the night of the delegate elections be left to the wards, respectively, to determine. The motion was lost.

The resolution of General Biles was then put and adopted.
