The Surratt Trial. WASHINGTON, May 12.—In the Criminal Court of this district, Chief Justice Cartter presiding, the case of John H. Surratt was called up this morning. The number of spectators were very few, and none of the excitement which attended the former trial manifested itself on this occa-tion ion. The prisoner was brought into the court room about half-past ten, and seated within the bar, near his counsel. Measure. Merrick and Bradley, Jr. Joseph H. Bradley, counsel for the defence on the former occasion, was present as advisory counsel. The United States was represented by Messers. Carrington, District Attorney; Wilson, Assistant District Attorney, and A. G. Riddle, associate trial. Mr. Morrick then entered a motion to admit the prisoner to ball, stating that any reasonable amount was ready to be offered. He proceeded to argue in behalf of his motion, and subse-quenity it was determined by the Court to hear arguments from counsel on the motion to-morrow morning. The witnesses in the case were discharged until

 All 2017 Annual of the solution of Mr. Paine (Wis.), the communi-cation was referred to the Reconstruction Com-mittee and ordered to be printed. The bill reported by Mr. Schenck from the Committee on Ways and Means, relating to interne revenue taxes, was ordered to be printed and recommitted. Mr. Schenck gave notice that he would bring the bill back to the House within perhaps a week from this time, if there should be no recess. I there was a recess he should ask the House t take the bill up to be considered and acted upon immediately after the recess, which might be per-haps some eight or ten days hence. Mr. Garfield (Ohio) asked Mr. Schenck to indicate his purpose as to the discussion to be al-Mr. Schenck replied that it was not the purpose or desire of the committee to put off discus sion on the bill unless necessarily. Two or three sion on the bill unless necessarily. Two or three days would probably be allowed for general dis-cuesion, but after that he should certainly ask that the debate be reduced to a mere business discussion. The amplest op-portunity would be allowed for amendment and debate on all parts of the bill. If it should be found that discussion was likely to become almost interminable so as to interfere

If it should be found that discussion was likely to become almost interminable so as to Interfere with other legislation and to prolong the session, it might become needful to put a stop to it. In conclusion he offered a resolution to print 5,000 extra copies of the bill, which was referred to the Committee on Printing. Mr. Schenck, from the same committee, re-ported a joint resolution authorizing distilled spirits produced during the experiments made by the late Commissioner for testing meters for the internal revenue service, to be turned over to the aternal revenue service, to be turned over to t urgeon-General of the army, for the use of t Army Hospital, at a reasonable cost.

Read three times and passed. Mr. Schenck, from the Committee on Ordinan reported a joint resolution directing the Secretary of War to sell damaged or unserviceable ordnance and ordnance stores. Mr. Ellot (Mass.) objected to its consideration until after the morning hour, and the House then, at 12.30, proceeded to the business of the morning hour, being the call of committees for reports. Mr. Rice, from the committee on the Pacific Mr. Rice, from the continues on the facture Railroad, reported a joint resolution to construe the provision in the Pacific railroad acts, regard-ing the use of American iron, so as to declare that American iron only shall be used for all rails, chains, fish-bars, bolts and spikes, in laying and repairing the railroad. This was agreed to.
