HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA. - The members of the Historical Society held their stated monthly meeting last evening. John W. Wallace, Esq., President in the chair, and S. L-Smedley, Secretary. Mr. Shrigley made his monthly report as Librarian, which was of a very encouraging nature; 207 volumes of books and 150 pamphlets having been added to the Library. Among the former is a finely bound edition of "Genlevine"s Magazine." embracing 198 volumes. "Gentleman's Magazine," embracing 198 volumes. Nine autograph letters and other articles of interest have likewise been added to the Museum

Department.
Mr. Morris reported the death of George T. Thorn, a member of the Society.

Colonel Snowden made a report of the halls and other public buildings he had examined, and other public buildings he had examined. with a view to obtain rooms more easy of access and better adapted to the purposes for which the and better adapted to the purposes for which the Society was established, when, on motion of Dr. Coates, it was resolved that the Bullding Com-mitec, of which John A. McAllister is Chairman, be instructed to make such fairther examinations be instructed to make such farther examinations and investigations as will enable them to report more definitely at the monthly meeting in June. From the commendable spirit o'enterprise which seemed to pervade those present, we doubt not that the ensuing fall will see the society in the possession of such rooms and conveniences as will tend greatly to promote its interests. will tend greatly to promote its interests.

These monthly meetings of the Historical Society are usually very interesting and instructive, and should be attended by all who feel interested in preserving historical matter relating to the State and nation.

THE NATIONAL GUARDS' BALL. - The floral military and citizens' dress ball of the National Guard Regiment, given at the Hall on Race street, below Sixth, last evening, was a very fine affair. Both saloons were used, and were approaffair. Both saloons were used, and were appropriately decorated. In the lower saloon there was a profusion of evergreens and flowers, and around the celling and under the three chandeliers were suspended numerous pretty cages, containing canary birds, the warbling of which added greatly to the effect of the dazzling scene. Immediately over the platform were gas jets, forming a large star, with the letters "N.C." in the centre. The upper saloon was gaily and tastefully festooned with flags, and there were also several devices in gas jets.

The attendance at the ball was large. The military costume predominated. The First City military costume predominated. The First City Troop turned out in force, the members wearing their handsome uniforms. Members of the Gray Reserves, Baxter's Zonaves and the Brookly Fourteenth Regiment were also present in un Fourteenth Regiment were also present install form. The orchestras were large and efficient, and were under the direction of Chas. R. Dodworth and J. G. S. Beck. Major General Geo. Cadwallader was Director General, and General Charles M. Prevost, Master of Ceremonies in the lower saloon, and Gen. C. F. Ruff, Master of Ceremonies in the upper saloon. The dancing commenced at nine o'clock, and was kept up until a late hour. Everything passed off in the most successful manner, and everybody who participated in the feativities enjayed themselves

During the intermission at midnight, a handsome frame, containing a set of resolutions beau-tifully engrossed, and photographs of members of Company H, 14th Brooklyn Regiment, was Brooklyn organization, as an appreciation of the kindness and attention received during a visit to this city last summer. The presentation speech was made by Capt. McNeill, of Brooklyn, and was responded to by Major Harmauns Neff, of the FATAL Accident .- Yesterday afternoon, about 41/2 o'clock, Mr. Lemuel S. Levering was coming up South Broad street, on his way home from an afternoon drive. His wagon came in contact with one of the tree-boxes which line the so-called "boulevard," and which have already caused the loss of several valuable lives.

Mr. Levering was violently hurled from his wagon, striking his head and fracturing the skull in a terrible manner. Of the profuse 1655 in a terrible manner. Owing to the profuse loss of blood, Mr. Levering retained his consciousness, and several gentlemen who were driving in ness, and several gentlemen who were driving in the neighborhood coming to his assistance, he was conveyed to his residence, No. 1113 Walnut street. Notwithstanding the terrible nature of the injury, Mr. Levering was able to walk to his room, and medical assistance was promptly ob-tained, but he soon sank into unconsciousness under the fatal effects of the blow, and died at about the cyclek in the evening.

about ten o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Levering was unmarried, and about fifty years of age. He was well known in business circles, and especially in the sugar trade, with which he had been long connected as a broker. His sudden and very sad death will be severely felt by a very large circle of friends and accountraces.

MR. VINCENT'S LECTURE. - Mr. Henry Vincen the popular English lecturer, will deliver hi' the popular English lecturer, will deliver his lecture on "Home Life; its Duties and Pleasures," at Musical Fund Hall, Tuesday, May 19. The following topics are involved in the subject: Morning Dreams; First Steps in Life; Business Duties; Adult Education; Courtship, Leve and Marriage; Husbands and Wives; Parents and Children; Friendship and Friends: Acquaintances; Noxt Door Neighbors; The Person who Lives Next Door; Men who Row With the Stream, and Men who Row Against the Stream; The World is What We Make It by a Self-reliant and Heroic Action.

PGLICEMAN BADLY TREATED. - William Ent wissle, was before Alderman Toland this morn. ing upon the charge of assault and battery. It seems that while Policeman Myers was passing the house of Entwissle, near Front and Green streets, last evening, he heard cries of "murder!" evidently from a female. He was about entering the house when Entwissle set a dog on him, and he was bitten several times in the leg. Myers drew his revolver and shot the dog. He then arrested Entwissle. The latter was held in

THE DELAWARE RIVER DISASTER .- The names of the unfortunate men who were drowned by the capsizing of a skiff on the Delaware on Sunday were Benj. F. Wade and Joseph Fowler. Wade was a painter, about thirty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. Fowler was a tinemith. He was about twenty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and four children. They were brothers-in-law, and resided in the same house, on Second street near McClellan. Both families are left in destitute circumstances.

NORTHERN HOME FOR FRIENDLESS CHILDREN. -The friends of the Northern Home for Friendless Children should not forget that the anniver-eary of that noble institution takes place to-night at Horticultural Hall, and the exercises, which have been prepared with unusual care, will be of a most interesting character. Should the evening prove pleasant, those who desire to secure cligible seats should go early. Rev. Dr. cure eligible seats snould go carry. Willits will be the principal speaker.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT .- Prof. L. Engelke, who was Director of the Tenth General Sängerfest, which was held in this city last summer, and discharged his duties so efficiently and satisfactorily, has been tendered a complimentary benefit by the singing societies of this city. The affair will come off at the Academy of Music on the 30th inst. Five hundred singers and sixty musicians will participate.

FIRES IN APRIL.-The number of fires in this city during the month of April was 35. The loss sustained was $27,135. The insurance was $19,885, being a net loss of $7,250. In New York city, for the same time, there were 68 fires, with a loss of $204,000; which exceeds the loss sustained in Philadelphia during the present

ASSAULT WITH A TUMBLER. -- Geo. Brown had a licaring before Alderman Beitler last evening, upon the charge of assault and battery on James Willey, a servant at the Continental Hotel: Brown became enraged at Wifley for some reason, and, it is alleged, struck him on the head with a tumbler causing a serious wound. Wiffey was taken to the hospital, and Brown was arrested. The latter was held for trial.

DISASTERS.

A Man Carried over a Cataract. A letter to the Montana Herald, dated at the Great Falls of the Missouri on the 15th of April,

"For some time past there has been a camp of five of us on the prospect stationed on the north bank of the Missouri, just above the Great Falls, from which point we were testing bars and gulches for gold, for a range of twenty miles. As guiches for gold, for a range of twenty intes. As a means of crossing the river, we had, a few days previously, built a strong and somewhat unwieldy skiff, to be propelled by oars. Some whisky was brought to the camp day before yesterday, and by 10 o'clock in the morning Patterson became intoxicated, and to show his skill and strength, jumped into our skiff alone and pushed out into the stream, boasting that he could cross the river near the brink of the main rapid of the first fall. He heeded not a word that was said to him, but shipped his rudely-constructed, soft-wood oars, and began-towing a circle, each round dropping down nearer and nearer to the irresistible suction.

"When he had pulled about two-thirds of the way cores he riesed his care from the water and

way across, he raised his oars from the water and paused in his labor, which had been violent for full ten minutes, and looked below him. Apparently apprehending his situation, he again bent to his oars with almost superhuman exertions; but, in these struggles he appeared to have caught one of his oars on a rock under water, and it snapped in twain like a pistol shot. Almost instantly he was drifted on to the very brink of the dashing, foaming rapid, and the suction had swing his skiff bow down stream, when our company of the street of rade was beyond rescue. Patterson made a few wild and useless strokes with the remaining oar, which only made his case worse, and then taking it in and hurling it on the bottom of his craft, stood up, swung his hat in the air, and resigned

Disastrous Fire in Harrisburg-Valuable Property Destroyed. [From the State Guard of May 11.]

On Saturday night, about 11½ o'clock, another destructive fire, the work of an incendiary, occurred at the corner of North and Poplar alleys. When we arrived at the scene of conflagration immense volumes of smoke and flames were issuing from the pattern shop of Messrs. James Bay & Bro., and it was soon evident human effort could be of no avail in saving it from destruction, and the firemen turned their attention. tion to the surrounding property. The fire extending, an adjoining frame house owned by Mr. George Cunkle, tailor, Market street, and two frame houses on the opposite side of the alley, occupied by two families, also caught fire the heat and sparks, but this danger was averted.

The building was entirely destroyed, and nothing left but the charred and blackened ruins. The Messrs. Bay lost heavily through this fire, and are not insured.

The adjoining building, owned by Mr. George Cunkle, was a double frame, Gothic cottage, and is badly damaged by five and water.

The two frame houses on the opposite side of the alley, owned by the Girard Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, caught fire from the heat generated, and the fire had made rapid headway before the flames could be checked.

Remarkable Cave in Pennsylvanie its Recent Discovery in Mifflin County-Description of It.

A Milroy correspondent of the Lewistown Ga-lette gives the following particulars of the dis-lovery of a wonderful cave in Armagh township, Miffilin county: "On the 24th of April, while Charles Nageny, of Milroy, was having a site dug for a limekiln, he was surprised by finding an opening in the side of the hill. The moment it opening in the side of the hill. The moment it came to view a strong stream of air began oozing forth, like the pressing of a pair of bellows; the work was continued until the aperture opened in size large enough to allow the body to crawl in, and then it was found to be a splendid cave, with gorgeous subterranean gangway; during the week the work progressed, and a formal entrance was made. On Saturday, May 2d, the citizens of Milroy and vicinity had the pleasure of a full plant of the progressed of the state of the sta view. [The attendance was composed of about cne hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen. Lights being at hand, having been furnished by Mr. Nageny, it made the affair quite interesting. After first entering we found ourselves enclosed in a narrow underground path for the distance of twelve feet; here the great cave came to view; the gangway about fifteen feet wide, with gigantic walls of rock, was a direct line of about sixty feet, in the centre of view. The attendance was composed of about direct line of about sixty feet, in the centre of which we beheld the hanging or projecting rocks, in the shape of a mantel, underneath which were small, crystalized rocks, long and hollow, ap-pearing like icicles on a house in winter time Here we turned to the right, and had a full sight of the "Platform Rock," a natural platform, about three feet above the level of the floor and about three feet above the level of the floor and running together in the centre; above it was a shelf or canopy, which indeed presented a sublime sight. Here, one hundred and seventy feet under ground, and in natural formed rooms or gangways, with a splendid spring of iresh water beneath your feet, who could not reslize that the hands of nature had truly been at week here? A short distance friction on the had work here? A short distance further on, we be-held the hanging lamp, and then came the subterranean chamber, situated below, where the rocks seemed to be more marbleized, as they are firmer, whiter and more solidly settled. After returning, we, with the assistance of a ladder, pro-vided by Mr. Nageny, were enabled to take a look up stairs. Here was another chamber, with colossal walls of rocks, which presented a sight never to be forgotten; the distance traversed was about 600 feet. The air within is very warm, and the floor or ground seems as if cemented, and is firm and or ground seems as it cemented, and is arm and solid. The diagram is in the shape of an H, written, and very neatly laid out. The base of the springs are like small pebbles laid aside of each other, with a border composed of a larger size. The cave is situate on the line of the Millin and The cave is statute of the first of the samula and centre County Raliroad, about three-fourths of a mile below Milroy, and is a grand and sublime sight—a relie of nature's handlwork that Mifflin sight—a relic of nature's handwork that mining county may some day be proud of. It will be open for visitors during the coming week, when all who may wish to improve themselves in the study of nature's works may have an opportunity

Another Tradition Gone. We spoke the other day of the "historical dif-ficulties" of Dr. Octave Delapierre, whose recent book destroys some curious traditions. His ex-ample is followed by an American investigator, who has disposed of Ethan Allen and the famous Ticonderoga story. This icondelast, who rudely pulls down the revolutionary hero from his proud pulles down the revolutionary nero from his proud pedestal, is the Rev. B. F. De Costa, of this city, who has written a paper to prove that Ethan Allen was not the originator of the attack upon the fort, but that the real author of the plan was Colonel John Brown, a lawyer of Pittsfield, while the final success was making due to Benedics Arrold. a lawyer of Pittelield, while the final success was mainly due to Benedict Arnold. It was also shown that Nathan Beaman, whom Mr. Sparks brought forward in his life of Ethan Allen as the person who guided the party into the fort, was entirely untrustworthy, and that in all probability he had nothing to do with the matter. Ethan Allen's character was also examined. It was shown that subsequent to the year 1770 he was shown that subsequent to the year 1779 he remained indifferent to the cause of Independence, and with his brother, Ira Allen, then in England, was engaged in the movement to attach Vermont to the royal government.—N. Suicide in Pittsburgh. (From the Pittsbursh Dispatch of May 11th.)
About cleven o'clock yesterday morning, a young man, named George Booth, committed suicide near his home, by stabbing himself with a knife in the heart. Booth was for some time a hack driver, but more recently in the employ of Mr. E. Young. He had contracted the habit of drinking to excess, and for this he was thrown out of employment. For some time back he had been in search of work, but failed to get any, and was very low spirited. It is said that at the time of committing the rash act of self-murder he was perfectly sober. He sat down on the steps of a neighbor on Wilkins etreet, in the Ninth Ward. His late employer coming along, Booth borrowed a knife from him, and then in a few minutes stabbed himself in the left breast [From the Pittsburgh Dispatch, of May 11th.]

THEATRES, Etc.

THE THEATRES.—At the Arch this evening the drama The Fast Family will be produced in splendid style, with a cast including Mrs. Drew and all the leading members of her excellent company. For the benefit of those who have forgotten the fact we may state that this drama is a translation and adaptation of La Famille Benoiton, by Victorien Sardou, a play that had immense popularity in Paris some years ago, and was so much the rage that the title "Banoiton" was applied to multitudes of individuals and things from the Princess Metternich, down to the latest style of hat. Mrs. Drew produced the translation once before and it proved very translation once before and it proved very opular. At the Walnut this evening Mr. John Broug-At the wainut this evening Mr. John Brougham will appear for the second time in his fine personation of Doctor Savage, the central figure of his own brilliant little comedy Playing with Fire. Most of our readers are already familiar with the excellent qualities of both play and player and the excellent qualities of both play and player, and it is hardly necessary to do more than simply assert that the performance is so good that is well worth seeing half a dozen times over. Now that Mr. Brougham has come up out of the slough of sensationalism, and given us purely legitimate drama, he deserves the hearty support of intelligent play-goers.

The Black Crook will be withdrawn from the Chestnut at the end of this week, and in the midst of its success. In the meantime it will be produced every evening with all its gorgeous appointments, and with Morlacchi and her sister tists in their most brilliant dances, including

At the American this evening an entertainment of a miscellaneous character will be given. ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE .- The pro gramme for this evening's performance at this popular place of amusement is an excellent one. The Black Crook ballet is a leading attraction in the way of an extravaganza, and The Impeuchment Trial, with a capital burlesque of Tangled Threads, also, are very amusing, and caunot fall to please the large audiences which nightly attend these minstrel performances. Mr. J. L. Carneross will "sing, several pathetic ballads this evening, and there will be singing, dancing, and negro comicalities by the company.

National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of from $15,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second tien as security, and receives payment to a large, if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These Bonds are issued as each twentymile section is finished, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair-shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,300 acres of land along the line to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the serie of the Government and no more. Hon E. D. Morgan and Hon. Cakes Arnes are Trustees, for the Bondholders, and de-liver the Bonds to the Company only as the work pro-resser, so that they always represent an actual and preductive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over eight and one half millions have been paid in upon the work already done. Contracts for the construction of 914 miles wes from Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, have been made with responsible parties at the average rate of sixty-cigh thousand and fifty eight dollars (863,059) per mile. This price includes all necessary car shops, depots, stations, and all other incl dental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage and freight cars, and other requisite rolling stock, to an amount that shall not be less than $7,500 per mile. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, A GOVERNMENT WORK, built under the super vision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Covernment direction. It is believed that no similar seurity is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the city of New York, at the rate of six per cent, in gold. The Principal is payable in Cold at maturity.

At the present rate of Gold these bonds pay an annual

. be at a Premium. The Company have but a very limited supply of their Bonds remaining on hand; but it is expected that the first instalment of the New Bonds, to be issued on that portion of the road to be completed this year, will be ready in May.

Any subscription accepted to a greater amount than can Any subsection be filled from Bonds now in the Company's possession will be supplied from the new Bonds in the order in which they are received.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscription on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office money has not been actually paid at the Company's once before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds, and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid.
