Men's, Youth's and Boys' Spring Clothing... A large assortment of goods...

EVENING BULLETIN.

Friday, May 15, 1868.

Whatever be the price that Senator Henderson is to receive for his services, it is sufficiently plain that he is hopelessly lost.

It is not to be expected that the majority of the people will be so easily deceived as to believe that the present City Council will be able to do anything more than to keep the city in a state of anarchy.

The House yesterday took another important step toward the consummation of the great design of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congress.

The debate yesterday, assumed a very personal tone, and gave Mr. Stevens an opportunity to administer a terrible castigation to the traitorous Union League.

We are glad to see the League actively engaged in the work of the war. The influence of this powerful and patriotic organization was felt throughout the country.
