IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE

The Impeachment Trial. WASHINGTON, May 16. Present Condition of the Vaudois.

While the vote was being taken the members as at the bar of the Senate. They entered headed by Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, and attended by their clerk and door-keeper. Most of the members had preceded them, and Vandols.

Twenty-one of their ministers and fifty-eight had taken seats on the floor of the Senate Chamber and in the galleries.

Vandols.

Twenty-one of their ministers and fifty-eight other agents are dispersed over Italy from Palermo to Courmayeur; their Theological College has been removed from La Tour in the valley to Florence, with a view of affording the students a more effectual education; and the old palace of Cardinal Salviati, where the students are lodged, contains also the Claudian Press, from which issues Bibles, tracts and religious books, by tens of thousands, which are dispersed by colporteurs and book depots throughout Italy. The preachers have to encounter the fierce opposition of the priests, but the civil power affords them protection. The Vaudois, however, are about twenty-two thousand in number, and are very poor, their ministers being content with £50 a year; and they cannot presecute the work on which they have entered without foreign support.

The Chief Justice rising, said: The Chief Justice desires to admonish the clitzens and strangers in the galleries that absolute silence and perfect of the grant of the Senate will precipitate the execution of the fursion, and thought the Court should be let alone by the Senate when sitting for legislative business.

Not guilty—Bayard. Buckalew, Davis, Dixon,
