Boys in Blue. - A stated meeting of the Exccutive Committee of the "Boys in Blue" was held last evening in their Room on Chestnut street below Sixth, General R. L. Bodine presiding, and Colonel James Givin acting as Secretary.

A communication was received from the "Boys in Blue" of the Ninth Ward, settling forth that the delegates claiming to represent the Ward the City Council had not been elected in accordance with the bylangs of the georgiation, and ance with the by-laws of the association, and ance with the by-laws of the association, and that the delegates elected on the 14th of the present month were justly entitled to a seaf in the council. The communication was referred to a special committee of five, who were instructed to report of the next that most terms.

to report at the next stated meeting.

General R. L. Bodine congratulated the coun-General R. L. Bodine congratulated the council upon the nomination of General Grant for the Presidency, who, with Colfax at his back, he did not doubt would lead them to victory, as he had during the rebellion, and called for three cheers for Grant, Colfax, and Victory.

The call was responded to most heartily, making the walls resound with cheers that were evidently sincere and heartfelt.

Captain Reading moved that the candidates who are to appear before the convention of the "Boys in Blue," on Friday next, shall previously pledge themselves to abide by its decision. Agreed to. Adjourned.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY .- Edward Doughcrty, whose arrest on suspicion of having been concerned in the robbery of Martin's jewelry concerned in the robbery of Martin's jewelry store, No. 2120 Market street, was noticed in the BULLETIN of yesterday, had a hearing before Ald. Jones, at the Central Station, yesterday afternoon. The watch which was found on his person when he was arrested was identified by Mr. Martin, proprietor of the store. It was also in evidence that Dougherty was seen after the robbery with a lot of watches in his possession; some of these watches were bloody and Dougherty had his hands cut. REMOVAL.

Now open at their new Store, 1218 Chestnut street, where families about furnishing or replenishing have the advantage of making their selection from the largest stock of all the new shapes of China, Glass and Stone ware in the city, from a single plate to the most extensive outfit at the lowest wholesale importer's prices, and can depend on the quality of the goods.

FAMILY COAL.—This is the best time of year for housekeepers to lay in their stock of coal. The falling off in the general demand has the effect of causing a decline in prices, and those who can purchase at this time will find it to their advantage to do so. Undouhtedly the best place to buy coal is at the yard of W. W. Alter, Ninth street below Girard avenue, and at the corner of Sixth and Spring Garden streets. Mr. Alter has just returned from an extended trip through the Lehigh and Schuylkill regions, and has made very large purchases of the best varieties of the black diamond. These coals he now offers at greatly reduced trices, and we recommend all who wish to take time by the forelock, and fill their coal bins for the coming summer and next winter, to give Mr. Alter a call and a trial.
