Mr. Ross made a speech in support of it. He said the subject could be thoroughly i vestigated, and if it was found that any man had received a bribe, let him be expelled. He the went into an elaborate vindication of his course, saying he had endured calumny how he thought it was his right and duty to vindicate himself. He declared himself an earnes supporter of the Congressional policies of reconstruction, and said he should move for a copy of all the evidence taken by the Managers. He admitted he had expressed an opinion i favor of some of the articles, and argued in fa vor of the privilege of changing his mind, citing the remarkable case of the two West Virginia sages whose views were changed by Mr. Chases's for mula of procedure on the 11th article, though strange to say, in opposite ways. He spoke o his record as a soldier and his past history, and closed by submitting a substitute, making the committee consist of three Senators. [Special Despatch to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, May 27.—The Revised Revenue Bill, which had been made the special order for to-day, was postponed until to-morrow, on the motion of Mr. Schenck. The opinion of the committee has been that this bill could be finished in three or four weeks, but the more general sentiment now seems to be that t will take from six weeks to two months in the House, and little if any less time in the Senate, and should this seem likely to be the case, after it has been taken up, it will very possibly be postponed until next winter. Notice was given that on Monday next a motion would be made to suspend the rules to fix some future. time to consider the River Harbor bill in Committee of the Whole.

General Thomas had an interview with the President during the forenoon. Mr. Woolley was again brought before the Impeachment Committee to-day, but, as hereto-fore, failed to give satisfactory responses to the questions propounded. > Murder in Massachusetts. PLYMOUTH, May 27 .- Cornellus Holmes, brother of Alexander Holmes, formerly President of the old Colony Railroad, was found murdered about o'clock this morning, in a by-road near the back entrance of the Cometery, in the adjoining town of Kingston, with his brains beaten out. It is stated that at 8 o'clock last night, while he was at the house of Samuel Andrews, a boy camet o the door and delivered to him a note, upon which he rema must be going, and started by a path, across the cemetery for the Stony Brook neighborhood, at the depot. Holmes was quite a wealthy man, but not being of atrong mind, his property has mostly been held in trust. It is known that he received quite a large sum of money yesterday, which was found upon him. It is supposed that the murderer was frightened away before robbing his victim. The scene of the murder gave evi-dence of a violent struggle. No positivo clus has yet been obtained, and much excitement per-that entered the cars was smaller. The arrest of McCoole at Lawrenceburg was announced, and created intense excitement in the egion around. The Springs is a desolate place. The spot chosen is a level meadow, and as earl as 4 o'clock this morning all the trees command ing a view of the battle-ground were fille with men and boys. The arrest of McCoole took place between one and two o'clock this morning, at the residence of Henry Marshall, near the ground. It was made made by Sheriff Arnold. Coburn succeeded in dodging the officers admirably. He wont from place to place, and thus escaped arrest, althoug a large lot of officers were on his track. Th round this morning is moderately soft, but no so much so as to be disagreeable. At this hour, 11.30 A. M., there is a good prospect of rain. The news of the release of McCoole on $2.000 bail, and that he was on his way to the fight, thus forfeiling his bond, created a great sensation and caused general rejoicing.
