NEW JERSEY MATTERS.

CAMDEN'S FALLEN HEROES. Yesterday afternoon was set apart by order of Post No. 6, Grand Army of the Republic, to pay an appropriate tribute of respect to the fallen heroes of the Union army who lie buried in the cemeteries in, and adjacent to Camden. The day was a beautiful one for the occasion, and the citizens turned tiful one for the occasion, and the clitzens turned out generally to participate in the solemn rites. At twelve o'clock the survivers and companions in arms of these brave but failen National defenders met at their hall, Fourth and Federal streets, dressed in black suits, white gloves and fulgue caps, where they were joined by the members of the City Council. Flowers had been contributed in profusion, and the citizens seemed to vie with each other in contributing to the importance of the occasion. At one o'clock the procession started. They yested the various cemeteries in the vicinity of Camden where soldiers are buried, and planting the Stars and Stripes, with appropriate addresses, proceeded to strew their graves with flowers. This was done in the best of order, and with a solemnity that added great impressiveness to the beautiful that added great impressiveness to the beautiful tribute thus performed, while the comrades of those noble heroes returned to their respective homes, conscious of having discharged a pleasing

The Courts.—The petty criminal business of the courts of Camden county has engaged the attention of that body during the past week. On Wednesday next the case of Mr. Dickson, charged, in connection with William Hanna, with forgery, will come up. This is a case of seme importance, as it embraces the constitutional questions whether a man can be tried in New Jersey for a crime committed in Pennsylvania. guestions whether a man can be tried in New Jersey for a crime committed in Pennsylvania, the language of the Constitution declaring that the trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the State where the said crimes shall have been committed." As Mr. Dickson committed the acts charged as offensive in Philadelphia, the case will allow the lawyers a fair opportunity to display their legal crudition.

Congressional.—Considerable interest is being manifested in the First Congressional District of New Jersey with reference to the nomination for Congress. Hon. William Moore, the present able incumbent, by precedent and right is entitled able incumbent, by precedent and right is entitled to a renomination, but it is said Hon. James M. Scovel, of Camden, is widely named in connection therewith. Whoever is chosen by the convention, however, will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

ACTIVELY MOVING.—The members of the Union ACTIVELY MOVING.—The members of the Union League and Republican party of Camden are actively at work in organizing for the campaign. Preparations are making for holding a monster mass meeting to ratify the nominations of Gen. U. S. Grant and Hon. Schuyler Colfax for President and Vice President of the United States. The meeting will be called at an early day.

The meeting will be called at an early day.

Fencing in Railroads.—An ordinance has been presented by the ordinance committee to the City Council of Camden, providing for compelling railroad companies to fence in their tracks within the city limits. The same ordinance provides that when the Camden and Amboy Company shall do so, the city will vacate Bridge avenue from Second street to the rivor. from Second street to the river.
