Very truly yours,
Schuyler Colfax. (Signed) WAR DEPARTMENT. The following order was to-day received by Genera

nan is hereby assigned, according to his brevet rank | to.

Mr. Shebman expressed the same opinion, and said he had withheld his vote for that reason.

Mr. Monron said the 'amendment was in no way connected with the subject under consideration, and that the Senator had placed himself in a false position by offering it.

Mr. Williams coincided in that view, and said that when the Chief Justice retried from the Suprema-Bench it will be time enough for Congress to take such action.

The original resolution was then adonted by the

The original resolution was then adopted by the following vote:

The unfinished business of yesterday was then taken up.

Mr. Howard gave hotice that he would offer an additional section, providing for the admission of South distinctive accorded with that of Congress in the Business of the South Delaware avenue.

Name one of the sections copied irom the existing the section was then adopted by the solid with the fourth resolution in the Chicago plut.

Nr. Schenck said he estimated the saving in the spot form the saystum of the Solid State of Collection by the bill at $689, 176. The committee that matured asystem of the committee proposed that in every judicial district that the existing stanting steam, for the particular and stanting Steam, for the spot of internal revenue, and thus the swell business of yesterday was then the district. free speech would be as unknown from the Potomac to the Rio Grande as ten, "are ago. If the Republican party could have been str. ken from existence when the banner of rebellion was unfurled, and when the response of ne coercien was heard at the North, we would have had no nation today. But for the Expublican party daring could not have been kept flying in the ficial till the long hoyed for vectory same. Without a Republican party, the civil rights bill, the gualantee of equility under the law to the humble and the defenseless as well as to the strong would not be to day upon our national statute book. With such implications from the past, and following the example of the founders of the Republic, who called the victorious General of the Revolution to preside over the land his triumphs had saved from its enemies, I cannot doubt that our labors will be crowned with success, and it will be a success that shall bring restored hope, confidence, prosperity and progrees, South as well as North, West as well as East.

All the low is providence, of national concord and peace.

Very truly yours,

tee of Ways and Means to inquire into the propriety of doing this, but Mr. Holman declined to do so.

The previous question was not seconded, and the morning hour having expired, the resolution went over till next Monday.

The resolution offered by Mr. Eldridge last Monday, it sisting on the right of citizens to be protected from unreasonable search and seizure of their private papers, and on which he had moved to suspend the rules, came up. The House refused to suspend the rules—yeas, 27; nays, 95; and so the resolution was not received. Mr. Poland interrupted, and said he had not be pected any debate.

After some further discussion on the point, Messrs. Maynard, Burr and Poland, objecting to Mr. Donnelly's proceeding with his remarks, the report was ordered to be printed and recommitted, and the House then, at half-past five o'clock, adjourned. Philadelphia Bank Statement.

Mr. Schenck moved that after to-day the House take a recess each day, trom 4:30 to 7 P. M. Agreed

The Committee rose and Mr. Polano, from the select committee on the Washburne and Donnelly investigation, reported that Mr. Washburne had withdrawn all charges against Mr. Donnelly of bybery and corruption, and all charges affecting his cheracter and standing as a member; that Mr. Washburne had right to inquire into the other charge affecting Mr. Donnelly's history before he became a member; that he was not the prosecutor, and would not undertake to prove the truth of the charges. That Mr. Donnelly had offered to prove the fashity of the charges, and pay all the expenses of the witnesses, but that the committee took the view that the action of members before being elected to Congress were not a proper undertoo of the indicated what he had said upon the floor. The committee therefore asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.
