THE NATIONAL ASYLUM FOR DISABLED VOLUNTEERS.
The quarierly meeting of the Board of Managers of the National Asylum for Disabled Volunteers was held at the office of the Surgeon-General to day, Majori General B. F. Butler in the chair. There were present Major-General Schoffeld, Secretary of War; Governor Smyths, of New Hampshire; Major-General J. H.
Martindale, of New York; Judge H. L. Bond, of Maryland; Lewis B. Gunckle, of Ohio; General John S. Cavender, of Missouri, and Dr. E. B. Walcott, of Wisconain.
Reports from the several exylums showed them to be in a most flourishing condition; 1,720 disabled solders have been cared for by the Board during the past quarter, as follows: At the Central Asylum, Dayton.
Ohio, 857; Eastern branch, Angusta, Maine, 100; Northwest branch, Milwankee, 174; Philadelphia, 210; Northwest branch, Milwankee, 174; Phila DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HIGHWAYS, OFFICE No. 104 SOUTH FIFTH STREET.

the men there admitted, 170 have each but one legs 28 have each but one arm, 3 have lost both legs, and 3 have lost each an arm and a leg; 187 disabled by other gunshot wounds, 85 are in the second and third stages of consumption, 16 are insane, 25 blind, and 153 under hospital treatment. The reports shown decided improvement in the morals and general behavior of the men, and of the good work accomplished by the men, and of the good work accomplished by the schools, libraries, and reading rooms recently established, and temperance and other societies organized for mental and moral improvement among the inmates. Governor Smythe reported that the committee appointed for that purpose had made satisfactory arrangements with the Managers of the Philadelphia Soldiers' Home, by which that institution was made a temporary branch of the National Asylum. Plans for additional buildings at Augusta, Dayton, and Milwaukee were adopted, and appropriations made for their construction during the summer. It is the intention of the Board H. W.
