FROM NEW YORK.

New York, June 6.—Judges Nelson and Benedict passed sentence yesterday afternoon upon the three prisoners recently convicted of defrauding the Government, in the United States Circuit Court. Theophilins C. Callicott, ex-collector, was sentenced to imprisonment in the Albany Penitentiary for two years and to pay a fine of $10,000; John S. Allen, Deputy Collector, to one year's imprisonment and a fine of $2,000, and Richard C. Euright to eighteen months' imprisonment and a fine of $2,500.

Augustus Bernstein, a Custom House broker, doing business at 37 William street, committed suicide at his residence in Holoken yesterday by shooting himself in the head. He left a few lines in his own handwriting—"Driven to death; not zuilty." Evidence on the inquest went to show that he was divorced from his wife and had overworked himself at his business.

Mrs. Margaret Lee committed suicide yesterday at No. 120 East Houston street, by taking arsenic, in consequence of domestic unhappiness. Coroner Keenan held the necessary inquest. Deceased was only 24 years of age.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow.—James Ellinger, who is charged with being concerned in the murder of Richard Taylor in October last, was in the dock this morning and had a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus. A portion of the witnesses who had been examined before the Coroner were heard, but no one testified that Ellinger was one of the particular crowd that was engaged in beating Mr. Taylor. There was no explanation of Ellinger's flight after Mr. Taylor's death.

It appears necessary to again state the position of American Israelites on the anti-Grant question.

Politicians who are thoroughly indifferent to any other interest besides their own personal profit are striving to embroil the Hebrews as a body in the approaching campaign, by dwelling upon the wrong done them by one of the candidates for the Presidency in this General Order. "expelling Jews as a class from the Department of the Tennessee." We do not suppose his "Order! has been forgotton, and it is certainly prebable that many Israelites will on this account vote against Grant for the Presidency.

But no sensible Jews are taking part in the public meeting called at St. Louis to oppose to Grant. They would only be the tools of designing politicians who have no love for the Union, and who seek to create a sentiment in favor of principles and men antagonistic to the true interests of all good citizens. If Hebrew members of the Republican party decline to support its candidate, they will certainly do so on their individual account and need no pressure. They will not identify themselves as Jews with any partisan movement. Judaism has nothing in common with partisan politics. Each Synagogue is like each Church, by no means a unit on politics, or on science or on society questions. Mr. Beecher may be a good Republican, but there are members of his church who like to hear him preach on every subject except politics. A minister, of a Jewish congregation once preached a political sermon; to the surprise and regret of his brethren. The experiment has not often been repeated. Israelites areltoo intelligentiand too self-asserting to be driven or led by their ministers, especially in matters that have no connection with religion. Much less can they be influenced as a body by aspiring politicians, who care for them only as so many votes secured, or as so much capital made for men rather than for principles.

We have personally our own politics—but we cannot force our views upon our readers—save in this way, to confirm them i

we have personally our own politics—but we cannot force our views upon our readers—save in this way, to confirm them in a resolute determination to talk and work and vote in politics as they please, without reference to religious predictions, and without regard to the pressure of partisan leaders, and furthermore, to urge them partisan leaders, and furthermore, to urge them to give no countenance to any movement calculated to involve the Hebrews as a body in any political contest. There is no religious issue. If israelites are disinclined to support a candidate like Grant, they exercise their suffrages as American citizens, and not as Hebrews.

We ask our brethren of the press to take cognizance of this 'platform,' which represents the sentiments of the better class of Israelites, without distinction of party.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE

His Conversation with Mr. Bundy-Mr. Bundy's Account of the Inter-view.

The following card from Hom H. S. Bundy appears in the Jackson (Ohio) Standard:

I am in receipt of the Washington Daily Morning Chronicle, containing a reported conversation between the Hon. S. P. Chase and myself, on the occasion of my recent visit to Washington, the main features of which are very incorrect, in so far as relates to anything said by the Chief Justice as to his plans, purposes or "intentions" in the ensuing Presidential election. There is an entire misapprehension of the facts as stated by me, in relation to any plans developed by him regarding his "intentions" of becoming a candidate for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket. The conversatian very naturally turned on the great question pending in the Senate, upon which he expressed his views fully, frankly and without reserve, distinctly asserting that he was opposed to the impeachment of the President, and opposed to the Congressional plan of reconstruction. Nothing expressed in model by him. opposed to the impeachment of the President, and opposed to the Congressional plan of reconstruction. Nothing expressed or implied by him indicated a desire on his part to conceal any views he entertained on this subject. In fact, the contrary purpose was inferred by me, from the manner in which he gave expression to his views. Hence I felt at liberty to report to some of my political friends in Washington his views on these questions. Of course I was surprised, to say nothing worse, to hear the Chief Justice express himself thus—for hitherto I had regarded all the reports in the newspapers in relation to his nosi. bimself thus—for hitherto I had regarded all the reports in the newspapers in relation to his positions on these questions as wholly unreliable. It was then and there that I realized my mistake and disappointment. Hitherto I had defended him from what I had considered unjustifiable attempts of a partisan press to defame his standing with the Union party of the country. In general terms I did report to some of my acquaintances in Washington the result of the interview between the Chief Justice and myself, and the effect it had produced on my own mind. But as to the third or new party, and its future operations, all that I ever reported to anyone was the sum of my own and the speculations of others, never having said or intended say that any part of the plan, purposes or intentions of any part of the plan, purposes or intentions of the Chief Justice, or Senators named, had been communicated to me by him or them.

Communicated to me by him or them.

Therefore I desire to state distinctly that all of that which appears in the Chronicle in reference to the "failure of impeachment," the "organization of a new party," the candidacy of the Chief Justice for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket or any other ticket, did not emanate from him or was even infimeted by him to me. cratic ticket or any other ticket, did not emanate from him, or was even intimated by him to me; but whatever I may have said in the several conversations had with parties in Washington was the report of speculations rife there at the time, and that the correspondents have improperly connected the result of my interview with the Chief Justice as to his status on "impeachment" and "reconstruction" with the speculations referred to in regard to the new party.

Neither is it true that the Chief Justice "requested the interview" with the remark that "he had important matters to communicate." He simply invited me to dine with him at six o'clock on Tuesday, and I accepted the invitation.

I cannot but regret Mr. Editor that vitation.

I cannot but regret, Mr. Editor, that anything I may have said while in Washington in relation to the personal interview between Judge Chase and myself should have been deemed of sufficient importance to find its way into the press of the country, and particularly in such a garbled form. But for which I would not trouble you with this hastily drawn up statement of the fact. But for which I would not trouble you with this hastly drawn up statement of the facts, and even this not so much on my own account, as that I cannot consent, by implication even, to have injustice done to one whose friendship I have so long enjoyed—one whose great swisdom has accomplished so much for his country, and one in whose political integrity and wisdom I have, with you, hitherto had such unbounded confidence.

On the 23d of April Ku-Kluk posters were found on the doors of Dr. Hunsacker and other found on the doors of Dr. Hunsacker and other Union men' in Sumpter, Texas, and on the following day Thomas Lawson, a Ku-Klux, attempted to assassinate the doctor by shooting at him three times, but he returned the fire and wounded his assailant. The Livingston (Texas) Republican says that the mad thirst for loyal blood seems to have no bounds. Loyal men are hunted up under secret orders from secret conclaves for no other reason; than that they have rendered themselves obnoxious because they are loyal citizens. The San Antonio (Texas) Herald comes to the defence of the Ku-Klux Klan in a long diatribe of passionate misrepresentation and comes to the defence of the Ku-Klux Klan in a long diatribe of passionate misrepresentation and falsehood, and winds up as feliows:

A loyal paper, in reply to this, suggests that the whites who left their property, their wives and daughters under the protection of these negroes while they enlisted to overthrow the government, have no fear of the "brutality, rapacity, and ferocity of the black barbarians."

MEXICO.

General Rivera's Rebellion-Mis Pro-Mexico, May 14, 1868.—There is no reason to doubt the rumors which have prevailed for the past twenty hours that General Aureliano Rivera has prouncunced against the general government, and that he has issued a proclamation declaring that the present Congress and the Executive were not contitutionally elected, and that consequently Juarez is a usurper. He invites the pre-not copetintionally elected, and that consequently Juarez is a usurper. He invites the people to Join him.

The rumor that he was to attempt to kidnap President Juarez and family from Chapultepec, where they have been since early in April, was so well believed at the palace that Colonel Soyera was sent out there with a large force of cavalry to guard the place. There are no guns mounted upon Chapultepec and the earthworks and fortifications are rather dilapidated. This afternoon it is rumored that General Rivera had declared he would not feel that General Rivera had declared he would not of the supply of food from the city in a few days. We anxiously wait to record the steps which the government will institute to suppress General Rivera—whether money or powder will be used. General velez is here. He is said to have remarked that he finds it difficult to fall in with Negrete, inasmuch as the latter, at a few moments notice, finds no difficulty in breaking up his command into small ficulty in breaking up his command into small parties and scattering to the mountains and secret hiding-places. We hear nothing new from Negrete. The great excitement to-day is in regard to General Rivera. The Diario Official has gard to General Rivera. The Diario Official has this moment appeared with the above "proclamation," which I enclose, in hopes that it will reach you by Spanish steamer. The names of the officials who sympathize with this movement, it will be seen, are somewhat familiar.

The following is an abstract of General Rivera's proclamation.

He asserts that the party in power meant, only to drive out the foreign oppressor so as to make way for domestic tyrants. He states that it was an incalculable misfortune for Juarez ever to get way for domestic tyrants. He states that it was an incalculable misfortune for Juarez ever to get power; that he issimply a usurper. He accuses him of having illegally promulgated the Convocatoria, of having interfered in the elections, and of having set up his own minions in the gubernatorial chairs. He concludes by stating that he dees not seek to become either President, Minister, Deputy or Governor, and proclaims his adhesion to the constitution of 1857.

The document is signed by Generals E. Huerta, M. Negrete, J. N. Cortena, J. N. Mondez, B. Tellez, P. Vega, A. Martinez, Jimenez, E. Zepeda, S. Canales, F. Chayarria, S. Escandon, P. The manifesto of General Leonardo Marquez covers seventy-three pages octavo, and contains very little that is new to the reader who has followed the course of events in Mexico.

He cites an order from President Miramon to shoot the prisoners at Tacubaya for their insurrectionary complicity, and leaves the odinm of that measure on that General. He also cites a number of instances where he pardonedthose who has throws upon Miramon the responsibility for having taken the specie from the British Legation in 1860. He then tries to clear himself, the charge that he helped to get up the intervention and betrayed his country to the foreigner. There is nothing new or striking in this part of the document. As to having hetrayed the Emperor, he asserts that Baron de Lago mast have misunderstood the Emperor in the conversation in which Lago pretends to have heard the charge. He maintains that he was not ordered to go to Queretaro with troops from the capital. He asserts that the chaplain of the Emperor is his witness that Maximilian never uttered a word disparagingly of Marquez. He concludes by stating t winess that Maximilian never uttered a word disparagingly of Marquez. He concludes by stating that should a foreign foe invade his native soil he prays God to grant him the favor of dying in defence of her independence.

THE FRUITS OF JOHNSON'S A Colored Church Burned by Southern Democrats

[From the Memphis Post of June 3d] Near the half-way point between Memphis and Raleigh, our colored citizens not long since erected a substantial frame church of spacious dimensions, at a cost of about fiften hundred dollars, all of which was contributed by themselves, with the exception of three hundred dollars, which was deputed by the Exercise 19 for the service of ars, which was donated by the Freedmen's

Nothing could be said against the decorum of the services held there, and no one could wish to molest or harm them except those who once owned the humble worshipers as slaves, and who once sought to destroy the Union, and are still wanting nothing in spirit to restore the old buses and renew the lost battle.

Last night, about eleven o'clock, these villains went forth to do the dastardly work of destroying the building, and setting fire to it, accomplished their foul purpose. As there was neither vater, nor the means to use it in extinguishing the flames, the whole building was rapidly and utterly destroyed. Who the parties were that accomplished this incendiarism, and who will secretly glory in the deed, are not as yet known, but such a clue to their whereabouts is already but such a cine to their whereabouts is already known by their tracks, which led into this city, that they will doubtless be ferreted out.

A despatch came to the Mayor's office yesterday, from New Orleans, apprising the authorities here of the arrest of A. F. Several charges of forgery and embezzlement are awaiting his arrival. The arrest was brought about mainly—through the Chief of Police of this city, who has had the case in hand ever since the departure of the aforesaid.

Destructive Tormado in Hilinois.

[[From the Reck Island (Ill.) Union, June 3d.]
Rock Island was visited by a tornado yesterday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock. The wind was blowling quite strongly from the North, while the tornado began its peculiar whirling motion in the west, rapidly bearing to the eastward. It passed over the city, dipping down four different times, and then was gone, leaving abundant marks of its visitation. A few moments previous to its arrival the sky was darkened by a mass of blue-black clouds, and many people becoming alarmed, hurriedly closed their doors and windows, while some few sought refuge in their cellars. The hurricane came, tearing up the roofs of buildings and whirling them some distance in the air, then dashing them orgainst and breaking in the walls of other buildings. An immense amount of damage was inflicted upon property, and the losses will probably amount to more than $20,000. amount to more than $20,000.

The New Minister to China.

[Pekin Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.]
The announcement that Mr. J. Ross Browne had been appointed American Minister to Pekin had been appointed American Minister to Pekin caused some little astonishment out here. Some of the papers talk of his literary talents in a way which would make us think we had drawn a prize in the way of representatives. Knowing nothing of him beyond the gossip of the very small American circle here, I cannot offer any very original remarks. The prevailing opinion seems to be that Williams, the present Charge d'Affairs, should have got the appointment. But, then, he is only a profound Chinese scholar and an able man, but is uscless as a political partisan; so, of course, he is passed over. Talking of him, his brother, H. O. Williams, Commissioner of Customs at Swatow, has just returned to California, having refused to avail himself of the liberal offer of the Inspector-General to commence the study of Chinese at some forty-five years of age. forty-five years of age.

debated all day without coming to a vote. The House, until 2 o'clock, was considering various bills of minor importance, principally those reported from the Committee on Invalid Pensions. At that hour the House resumed the consideration of the Tax bill.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Doubting.

"I will not ask to press that cheek,"
Without a guarantee
That Nature spread the pearl and red
Which there I always see;
Those lustrous lips I will not touch,
Unless you promptly say.
That their bright hue is fast and true,
And will not week away. And will not wash away.

Those brilliant eyes may owe their charm Complexion tints, I've heard dark hints,

Are changed by walnut julee;
And if I ask the dearest girl,
For whom alone I live.
For one long tress to kiss and bless,
It mayn't be hers to give.

The pencilled brow, the raven lash,
Are open to a doubt,
And some mistrust, but they're unjust,
The shape I rave about;
So in this dubious state of things,
And as the weather's warm,
I will not seek to press that cheek, Or ask to clasp that form.
