THEATRES, Etc.

THE THEATRES.—The pantomime Humpity Dumpty will be repeated at the Chestnut this evening, with transformations, ballet, &c., intro-ducing the Can-Can. Mr. Joseph Jefferson, at the Walnut, to-night, will repeat his personation of "Rip Van Winkle." Under the Gaslight will be presented at the Arch. The American an-nounces a miccellaneous bill.

MADANE RISTORI began a new season at the Academy of Music last ovening, with a play called Sor Teresa—a highly sensational drama, of the Academy of Music last evening, with a play called Sor Teresa-a highly sensational drama, of the Braddon and Mrs. Henry Wood class, the scene, however, being laid in Italy. The plot is intri-cate, and we do not pretend to give? it. Many of the scenes, however, are highly dramatic, and they afford the great actress some of her best op-portunities for exhibiting her wonderful power. None but she could make so long a play tolera-ble. But her "Sister Teresa," while not likely to be as popular as her "Marie Antoinette," her "Elizabeth," her "Mary Stuart," or some of her representations in the classical drama, is one of her most affect-ing and powerful personations. She was admirably supported by Mile. Luigia Glech, and". Messra. Cesare, Ristori, Glech, Mancini, and indeed by all the company. The play was finely put upon the stage, and the scenes, as portraying conventual life in certain phases in Italy, were highly interesting. The great artist was highly applauded, and several times called before the curtain. This is conceded to be the most effect-ive play in which Ristori appears, and whevere many to see the most effect-ive play in which Ristori appears, and whevere many to see the most effect-ive play in which Ristori appears, and whevere many to see the most superbacture of the age BOWER'S SENNA FIGS, FOR CONSTIPATI fifty cents. This is conceded to be the most effect-live play in which Ristori appears, and wheever wants to see the most superbacting of the age, should try to be present at the performance. MR. OWEN FAWCETT.—The Philadelphia friends of this excellent comedian will be gratified to learn that he has met with great success at the Theatre Royal, Montreal, where he is playing an engagement. Upon the first night of his ap-pearance, he sustained the character of "Glavis" in The Lady of Lyons, and the part of "Mouser" in the little farce, Betsey Baker. On the following evening he appeared as "Bob Acres," in The Ri-rals. Mr. Fawcett's talents will be appreciated by intelligent audiences wherever he may appear. ELEVENTH STREET OFERA HOUSE.—A very by intelligent audiences wherever he may appear. ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE.—A very attractive performance will be given at this iopular place of amusement this evening. There will be a choice selection of farces, burlesques, extravaganzas, negro comicalities, together with ballad singing by Carneross, instrumental and vocal music by the troupe, and a general melange of good things. Thus Europeans Curves, This mecanical and THE EUROPEAN CIRCUS .- This menagerie and THE EUROPEAN CIRCUS.—This menagerie and circus combination, now exhibiting on Eighth street, between Race and Vine, will remain here during the present week. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening. The com-pany of acrobats and equestrians is an excellent one, and the collection of wild animals decidedly the best of any we have had in this city for a long time. ong time. MISS EDITH ABELL .--- The Washington National Intelligencer speaks thus of the young Soprano who made her debut in this city a few weeks ago under the auspices of Miss Caroline Richings, and of whose merits we spoke in terms of warm praise: On Saturday evening the "Bohemian Girl" was repeated to a large andience, and Miss Abell won the warmest approbation in Artine, which she sung with sweetness and effect throughout, being enthusiastically recalled in "I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls." Her acting in this part was, moreover, extraordinarily refined and cap-tivating, and marvelously so, when it is con-sidered that she has scarcely yet got her feet firmly upon the stage. We think Miss Richings has shown another evidence of her wonderful sagacity as a manager in bringing this glited, graceful, aspiring, and freah young vocalist into her fine company. Her bearing upon the stage is that of a thoroughly well-bred young lady. Simplicity and naturalness are the striking peculiarities of her acting. She gives her-self wholly to her character, and sings as well as acts, as though she were in a reality. That dis-agreeable effort at display so often seen in singers is entirely absent from her efforts. There are some features in her acting of Arline which her fine intelligence will, with practice in due time-greatly improve, and her sweet, fresh vocalism will also inevitably grow strong, and put on more endurance at the same time. Her success is On Saturday evening the "Bohemian Girl" was with larceny. Butler pleaded guilty, Cooley went to trial.» The defendant lodged in the dwell-ing part of No. 824 Walnut street, and it was al-leged that from the entry be obtained an entrance into the shoe store of Mr. Wilson, on the first floor. Butler and Cooley had been seen together, and when the former was arrested burglars tools were found on his person. Cooley was convicted, William Bilitz and John Cooley were convicted.

William Blitz and John Gooley, were chivities of a charge of stealing a quantity of shoes from a store on Ridge avenue. These three defendants, Blitz, Butler, and Cooley are young men, and have been in the habit of congregating in the neighborhood of Eighth and Walnut streets, and on their trial this morn-the wethology witness against them was Joand Walnut strets, and on their trial this mora-ing, the principal witness against them was Jo-seph Nicholson, a companion, a young had, who detailed the several exploits, using in his testi-mony all the thieves slang, apparently proud of the fact that he was able to do so. "Swag." "Cracking," "Crib," "fild," "Cheese it" (keep quiet), tell from his lips in such profusion that there was some difficulty at first in understanding his story. He was careful, however, not to im-plicate himself except that he saw what was done. Cooley, from the dock, denonneed Nicholson as a jall bird, who had just been released from pri-son, and who had committed several robberies since his release. since his release. Blitz was sentenced to two years and six months in the Eastern Penitentiary; Butler to two years in the Eastern Penitentiary, and Cooley to eighteen months in the County Prison.

CITY NOTICES.

CITY NOTIOES. THE New Hampsbire House of Representa-tites have voted not to choose a chaplain, but will de-pend on the voluntary prayers of those clergymen in-cluded among its members. This is a reform in the right direction. One other improvement is wanted; the erection in the House of a regular Japanese "pray-ing machine," well olied, so that the noise of it will not interfere with the members' letter-writing or con-versation, as is the case with the procent method. A clergyman serving a party in a House of Representa-tives is a good deal like a Pratagonian serving in the article by exhibiting the want of it. Ay Easy Foot.—An easy foot. pext to an easy
