MURDEROUS ASSAULT UPON A POLICEMAN, This morning between twelve and one o'clock Policeman W. Ervin, of the Tenth District, was Policeman W. Ervin, of the Teath District, was violently assaulted at Cadwallader and Jefferson streets. The assailant was Timothy McCarty. who has a very bad reputation, and has frequently threatened to use violence upon the officers of that district, and Ervin in particular. As Ervin passed the corner he noticed McCarty standing there, but nothing was said. McCarty followed the officer and struck him a violent blow, which felled him to thesidewalk. He jumped up, however, there, but nothing was said. McCarty the officer and struck him a violent blow, which the officer and struck him a violent blow, which felled him to thesidewalk. He jumped up, however, and seized McCarty. A tussel ensued, and Ervin used his billy pretty freely upon McCarty. A man named John Bacon then came up and knocked Ervin down again. Another policeman, attracted by the noise of the disturbance, secured Bacon and Ervin held on to McCarty. The prisoners had a hearing this morning before Alderman Shoemaker. McCarty was held in $2,500 hall and Bacon in $1,500 ball, to answer at court. Some years ago McCarty was charged with having knocked down and killed a man in a tavern. He was convicted and sentenced to an insert. He was convicted and sentenced to an insert. ern. He was convicted and sentenced to an imprisonment of four years, but was pardoned before the expiration of his term.

THE SIEWARD HOMICIDE.—A man named Bush was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having been the cause of the death of David N. Steward. been the cause of the death of David N. Steward.

Bush states that on Saturday afternoon he was at Smith's Island with two children. While crossing the river to the city, Steward, who was intoxicated, behaved badly about the children. On Delaware avenue Bush stopped to arrange some of the clothing of one of the children. While engaged in that a man came along and said—
"What did that man say about the children." Bush replied, "Oh, nothing much—he's drunk." The man then said "I'll drunk." The man then said "I'll ix him—he insulted me on the island," and passed on after Steward. Bush continued on up Chestnut street, and just before he reached Front street the fatal blow was struck. Bush declares Chesinut street, and just before he reached Front street the fatal blow was struck. Bush declares that he does not know the man, and never saw him before. Some of the witnesses examined by the Coroner mentioned the fact of a man with two children being upon the opposite corner at the time of the assault upon Steward, and this would go to confirm the statement of Bursh. The later is retained in custody and the detectives are pursuing their investigations.

DETERMINED TO HAVE A HOME.-A WOMAN named Elizabeth Moore was arrested yesterday for disorderly conduct. As she was a miserable specimen of humanity without a home, she-was sent to the office of the Guardians of the Poor, in Seventh street, below Arch, in order to get admission into the Almshouse. She had been an immate of that institution before, and had given considerable trouble. For that reason those in inmate of that institution before, and had given considerable trouble. For that reason those in charge of the Seventh street office refused to have anything to do with her and sent her away. She then smashed both windows of the office. She was arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Beitler, was sent to prison.

SAD ACCIDENT-BOY KILLED .- A lad named Thomas Nevins, aged 14 years, was run over by a coal train at Ninth and Master streets yesterday, coal train at Ninth and Master streets yesterday, and was instantly killed. He has been subject to fits for some time past. He was standing by the side of the train as it commenced to move off, and fell under. It is supposed that he was suddenly taken with a fit. The wheels passed over his body, cutting it nearly in two. The parents of Nevins reside on Ninth street near Jefferson. A brother of the deceased had a foot taken off last week while attempting to jump en a train on the same road.

THE NORTH BROAD STREET PRESBYTERIAN Church.-A grand Strawberry Festival, gotten up under the auspices of the Young People's Association of the North Broad Street Presbyterian church, commenced in the Sabbath School room of the church edifice, corner of Broad and Green streets, last evening. It was a most de-lightful affair, and it afforded unbounded happiness, particularly to the young people who participated in it. It will be continued this evening. The entire proceeds are devoted to the aid of the worthy poor, who are the objects of the care and attention of the Association.

A HANDSOME PRIZE.—The prize to be sent by the Philadelphia Rifle Club to the Grand Shooting Festival to be held in New York next month ing Festival to be held in New York next month is now on exhibition at the store of J. E. Caldwell & Co., on Chestnut street above Ninth. It consists of a plain but neat frame, with a green ground upon which appears the word "Philadel phia," formed by one and three-dollar gold pieces, there being one hundred of the three-dollar pieces, and fifty of the one dollar pieces.

A LARGE FUNERAL .- The funeral of Timothy Heenan, who died from the effects of a shot received in a fight at Fifth and Spruce streets last week took place this morning from the residence of his uncle, John Heenan, No. 521 Pine street. The funeral was one of the largest which has oc-curred in Philadelphia for some time. Previous curred in Finladelphia for some time. Frevious to the starting of the cortege, Pine street was filled with people. The funeral services were held at St. Mary's Church, and the interment took place at Cathedral Cemetery.

FOUNTAINS, BIRDS, flowers, strawberries, icecream, and a magnificent hall are the attractions at the fair and festival commencing to-day in the beautiful building of the Bethany Mission, at Twenty-second and Shippen streets. The cars yo within a block, and tickets are sold at the door, and the object a most noble one in be-half of the children of that section of the city.

FINED.—Seven boys, aged from 12 to 16 years were arrested last evening by the Schuylkill Harbor Police, for bathing in the Schuylkill at Race street wharf, contrary to the provisions of an ordinance of the city. They were taken before Alderman Lungren and were each fined $2 50. POINT BREEZE PARK .- On Friday afternoon next there will be an exciting race at the park for a purse of three thousand dollars-double teams-mile heats, three in five. Four teams have been entered and the race promises to be REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—The Republican Convention of the Fifth Ward held an adjourned meeting last evening and made the following nominations: Select Council—Samuel C. Perkins School Directors—S. T. Eldridge, Joseph Kenney, Geo. White and W. J. Brecknell.

FOUND DROWNED .- The body of an unknown man was found in the Schuylkill at Sansom street wharf this morning. The Coroner was notified.

The Peabody Fund.

The Peabody Fund.

The semi-annual meeting of the trustees of the Peabody Fund was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday afternoon, the following trustees being present: Ex-Governor Aiken, of South Carolina; ex-Governor Clifford, of Massachusetts; Messrs. Katon, of Maryland; Hamilton Fish, of New York; McAllister, of Philadelphia; Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio; Samuel Wetmore, and Mr. Peabody Russell, and ex-Governor Graham, of North Carolina, who arrived in the evening. The report to be read represents that the best possible feeling exists on the part of the Southern people who have made strenuous efforts to cooperate in the views of the trustees who consult the school superintendents and other State officers, and so arrange that there shall be perfect accord in all the undertakings with the wishes of the educational authorities. According to the terms of the bequest one-third or more is to be advanced from the fund at the discretion of the trustees and in most instances the South-ra terms of the bequest one-third or more is to be advanced from the fund at the discretion of the trustees, and in most instances the Southern people have supplied the remaining two thirds. The trustees have drawn solely from the $1,000,000 given in United States currency, as the $1,000,000 worth of the Mississippl Planters' Bank bonds, having only a nominal value, have not been brought from England, where they now are. The trustees continue in session to-day in order to hear the report of the general agent, Dr. Sears, and to discuss the best methods of carrying out the purposes of the trust. The trustees, and the ladies who have accompanied them, dined in private at the hotel, and in the evening held an informal ineeding to interchange opinions and ideas. They are unanimously convinced, from the experience of the past year, that their lauors will be agreeable, and the Southern States, by hearty co-operation, have shown their deep sense of gratitude for Mr. Peabody's benevolence. advanced from the fund at the discretion of the

THEATRES, Etc.

THE THEATRES.—At the Chestnut this evening The Theatres.—At the Chestnut this evening the pantomime Humply Dumpty will be repeated with important changes in the baller, scenery, &c., and with several new dances. Mr. Jefferson will again present at the Walnut his remarkable impersonation of "Rip Van Winkle." The play Under the Gaslight remains upon the boards at the Arch, and continues to draw large hoards at the Arch, and continues to draw large houses. At the American this evening a mis-cellaneous performance will be given.

cellaneous performance will be given.

Mr. W. H. Sedley Smith, one of the best and most useful members of the Chestnut Street.
Theatre company, will have a benefit there this evening, when the ballet pantomime of Humply Dumply will be played for the last time but three.
Mr. Smith deserves a crowded house.

STUART ROBSON.—On Saturday afternoon next, STUART ROBSON.—On Saturday afternoon next, at the Academy of Music, Mr. Stuart Robson, the comedian, will appear in conjunction with Mr. Robert Craig in a first-rate performance. Mr. Robson is an old favorite with the playgoers of this city, and with Mr. Craig, he will prove such an attraction that we doubt not the house will be crowded. Tickets can be procured at Trumpler's, No. 926 Chestnut street.

HOOLEY'S MINSTRELS.—This popular troupe of Hooley's Minsterls.—This popular troupe of Ethiopian performers will perform at the Seventh Street Opera House this evening. Among other noveliles they will present a "spectacular burlesque" entitled the Wild Fawn. This piece is placed upon the stage in very handsome style, with scenery, transformations, &c., of the most beautiful character. In addition to this there will be instrumental and vocal music, dancing, burlesques, farces, and the multitude of good things which make up a first class minstrel entertainment. tainment.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—This Wednesday evening a dramatic entertainment will be given at Concert. Hall by the Dramatic Union. The plays of Grandfather Whitehead and Charles the Second will be presented.

LINGARD'S CONCERTS—At the Florenth Street.

Second will be presented.

LINGARD'S CONCRITS.—At the Eleventh Street Opera House this evening Mr. W. H. Lingard, the celebrated mimic, will give an original entertainmet, in which he will appear in a multitude of different personations. Mr. Lingard possesses very remarkable talent as an imitator, and the celerity with which he changes from one character to another is simply wonderful. His performance is in the highest degree satisfactory and interesting, and he cannot full to attract large andiences during his stay.

Love, Jealousy and Suicide. Shortly after nine o'clock yesterday morning a young girl named Belle De Camp, seventeen years of age, died from the effects of a large dose of arsenic. Which she had swallowed on the prearsenic, which she had swanowed on the previous evening, at the residence of her mother, a dressmaker in comfortable circumstances, at No. 365 Plane street, Newark, N. J. It appears the unfortunate girl, in accordance with the wishes of her mother, had dismissed a suitor on Sunday evening. The following day (Monday) she saw him with another girl, and that evening she took the poison, seventeen cents' worth of which she had previously procured at a druggist's him with another girl, and that evening she took the poison, seventeen cents' worth of which she had previously procured at a druggist's in Market street. Later in the evening, while enjoying some ice cream in a saloon, she suddenly became sick and on reaching home commenced vomiting excessively.

Two physicians were sent for, but their efforts
were useless to prolong the poor creature's life.
A post mortem examination was held yesterday afternoon by the county physician, Dr. Lehlbach, and the cause of death established beyond a doubt. Here it is proper to remark that it is high time some proper restrictions were made by the New Jersey Legislature relative to the sale of poisons. The law at present permits druggists to sell any quantity provided solely that they label it "poison." The matter has been brought before that body several times, but for some reason not explained it has never been acted upon.

Warning to Newspaper Contributors. Correspondents of newspapers should take warning by the following example of the evils warning by the following example of the evils attending upon bad chirography. A western poet having found his verses mutilated by the types in a local journal, addressed to the editor a note, which appeared in print thus:

"Mr. Nichols: I suggest that your confounder charged the Biography of A. Ward in my piratical article of Wednesday last, which effected the scent. In the tired horse from the Bottom, for rapt acclaim, read wrapped in flame. I want the wadmitted enwrapped. Respectfully,
