Sion resseembled this morning at Rev. Dr.
Steel's Church, corner of Eighteenth and Filbert streets, for the purpose of continuing their proceedings it relation to the difficulties pertaining to the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, Bread street, near Spruce. The Commission was called street, near Spruce. The Commission was called to order by the Chairman, Rev. Dr. McMaster, and the session was opened with prayer by that gentleman. The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

The following remarks were made by Mr. Alexmoder Kerr, who had been requested to give information respecting a meeting held at the First Reformed Presbyterian Church. He said that a meeting of the Reformed Presbytery was held in the First Church, Broad street, near Spruce, on Friday, the 19th of June, at 4 P. M. The meeting was special. A resolution was passed that the meeting be considered legal. It was said that the object of the meeting was to report on the action object of the meeting was to report on the action of the Synod, and other matters which might of the Synod, and other matters which makes come before it. All the members were pressing except Mr. Stevenson, of Ulster. After that resolution had been passed, several members denounced the action of the Synod in general, as partial and unjust, and that the Synod had assumed certain things they had no right

Dr. Wylie read resolutions to the effect that the Synod was illegally constituted; that its action was arbitrary in taking the case out of the hands of the Presbytery; that Mr. George H. Stuart should be reinstated; that the suspension of Dr. McMurray and Mr. Guy should be continued, as before the meeting of the Synod, until it frescinds its action in reference to Mr. George H. Stuart. Mr. Kerr alone objected and voted against the resolutions.

resolutions.
Mr. Thomas Stewart, of New York, stated that Mr. Thomas Stewart, of New York, stated that he had seen Dr. Sterreit, as requested, and he acknowledges the receipt of the requisition, but said that he had not been able to get together the Presbytery in relation to giving up the property of the Presbytery. The report was adopted. Mr. Stewart complained of the heading of the reports as they appeared in certain papers of this city. He thought they were partial, and calculated to bias the public mind. The following resolution was then offered by Mr. Stewart. Resolved, That this Commission has nothing Resolved to do with the suspension of Mr. George Mesoived, That this Commission has nothing whatever to do with the enspension of Mr. George H. Stuart; that its only business is to inquire into and adjust difficulties existing in the First Reformed Presbyterian congregation of Philadelphia delphia. Adopted.

The remarks of Mr. Stewart drew forth replies from the reporters of the Press, Ledger and Bul-

Mr. Lewis stated that in justice to the Press, the reports had been made as truthfully and fairly as could be, and that from the first the caption of the articles had been the same: "The Nolen stated that the captions in the Ledger were correct, and the reports made were impartial and strictly in accordance with the business transacted by the Commission The Chairman of the Commission, Dr. McMas ter, stated that thus far the Ledger, Press and BULLETIN had represented the transactions fairly, and the Commission had no complaint to make

The proceedings of the morning session were then brought to a close by Dr. Douglas offering prayer; and an adjournment took place until 3 o'clock, in order to allow time for the minute embodying the final action of the Commission to be properly prepared.

REVIEW OF THE POLICE FORCE.—The annual inspection and review of the police force of the inspection and review of the police force of the city by the Mayor came off this morning. The men from the several districts assembled in their respective stations and were marched to Broad and Chestnut streets. They appeared in their summer uniforms, consisting of Panama hats, linen vests, and blue fiannel blouses and pants. The material of which the coats and pants are made is of fine texture, and was all supplied by Kemble & Co., at Second and Market streets, the same firm having also furnished similar goods for police uniforms for Trenton, Pittsburgh. Cincinnati and other cities. In their new rig the officers all presented a fine appearance.

On Broad street quite a crowd of spectators gathered. The line was formed at 10½ o'clock, the right resting on Chestmut street. The Liberty Silver Cornet Band furnished the music. The Henry Guards had the right of the line, and were followed by the Reserve Corps. Then came the District forces in their numerical order. Mayor McMichael and Chief Ruggles passed along the line, and then the entire force was marched in review before His Honor, who occupied a position at Broad and Sanson streets.

Various evolutions were gone through with, under the direction of Capt. John Spear, and the whole affair passed off very satisfactorily and creditably. city by the Mayor came off this morning. The

The race for boats of the first class starts from a point oppoboats of the first class starts from a point opposite the Skating Club House, at five o'clock. Two boats are entered for this race—the Hesperus, four-oared shell, of the University Club, and the Bachelor, six-oared shell, of the Bachelor Club. At the termination of this race, the six-oared smooth gunwale barges, Ione, of the Ione Club, Iris, of the Philadelphia Club, and Thistie, of the Quaker City Club, will start. The course is to a soint opposite Belmont Cottage and return—a listance of three miles.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—Chas. Ravenor, residing at No. 1249 South Thirteenth street, had a hearing before Ald. Bonsall this morning, upon hearing before Ald. Bonsall this morning, upon the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. It appears that last evening he got into a quarrel with George Richle, at Twelfth and Federal streets, because Richie asked him about some money matters. He had a pitcher in his hand at the time, and, it is alleged, struck Richle on the head with it, causing such a serious wound as to confine him to the house. Ravenor was committed to await the result of the injuries inflicted.

ATTEMPTED SCICIDE.—This morning about 1 o'clock a man named Cyrus Wright was found in Seventh street, above Arch, by Policeman Homeyard. He had taken Paris Green and was suffering greatly. He was conveyed to the Fourth District Police Station, where the proper remedies were given and the would-be-suicide

Monday morning, 22d. ATLANTIC CITY,-The Camden and Atlantic railroad furnishes excellent facilities for brief and delightful excursions, which can be made without interfering with business. TheSunday mail train, leaving Vine street wharf at 7 o'clock A. M., has already become popular, and as the season advances will be extensively patronized. Excursionists by this train can spend several hours on SUNDAY EXCURSIONS.—The new steamboat Twilight makes two excursions to Burlington and Bristol every Sunday morning and after noon, from Chestnut street wharf. The Twilight is a superb boat, fitted up in the most elegant style known to the cabinet-maker, the gilder, and the upholsterer. The promenade saloon runs the entire length of the vessel, is palatial in size, and has appointments which would do credit to Windsor Castle or the imperial parlors of Versailles. Captain Henry Crawford commands, and is all, in experience and courtesy, that is expected from an officer holding so responsible a

The splendid steamboat John A. Warner also makes two excursions to Burlington and Bristol, stopping each way at first pier above Poplar street. For time and place of departure see advertisement.

Mr. Lingard possesses very remarkable talent as an imitator, and the celerity with which he changes from one charac-ter to another is simply wonderful. His per-formance is in the highest degree satisfactory and interesting.

OITY NOTICES.

THE VERY LATEST IMPROVEMENT IN SEWING MACHINES.—The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company, which had already won the highest bones in this magnificent domain of invention, has just brought out, and now presents to the public the very latest, and we think, one of the most important, improvements that have yet been added to any Sewing Machine extant. The improvement consists of a scient Feed Motion, which makes the Wheeler & Wilson the most quiet running machine in use. This, added to their many other incomparable merits, renders these instruments more than ever the champions in the Sewing Machine field. The Machines, with the Improvement referred to, can be seen in operation at the warerooms of Messrs. Peterson & Little, agents for the Wheeler and Wilson Company, No. 704 Chestnut street.
