unanimously adopted : Resolved, That, having heard that a report was nessurer, inay, naving heard that a report was in circulation representing that violence had been done to a brick yard where the wages have been refused, and that the blame had been thrown on the journeymen brick-makers, that we, the members of this Association, condema we, the members of this Association, condemn any such conduct, and ccunsel all the members of the society to refrain from violence and use their influence in detecting the guilty party, that they may be properly dealt with by this Asso-ciation. name. George Peasey, John F. Riday and Michael Quigley were appointed a committee to wait on employers to see to whom they intend paying the ages. The following employers, it was reported, had agreed to give the wages: Frederick Smith, Joseph Grim, Isaac Blann, and Brady & Dowling. On motion of William A. Murtha, a vote of thanks was tendered to the persons named for their kindness in giving the advance desired b nd knowing my must die. Thave the journeymen brickmakers. The meeting was then addressed by persons in terested in the welfare of the journeymen, after which it was resolved that the wages demanded ($4 per day) should date from to-day, and that no less than the price named should ns, Ido not want After some unimportant business the meeting adjourned.

> A GREAT BENEVOLENCE .- With all her great and noble charities, unsurpassed in number and efficiency of those by any city in the world, Philadelphia still lacks one of the most important institutions required by the demands of a crowded population. It is a well-known and deplorable fact that the lives of hundreds of poor, innocent creatures, the children of unfortunate people, are sacrificed every year on account of misfortune, of false ambition and of want of proper care. It is now molated to establish in this city a foundling well-known plan of the lospital, upon the foundling hospitals of Paris and enterprise has been started by G. Paul, Esq., the agent of the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Com-pany, in the following manner: A fund is to be raised through the aid of the said gentleman by ontributing the payment of all policy fees re ceived from the insurers in said company As all insurers have to pay a policy fee of one dollar, the above-ramed agent has volunteered to relinquish said fee by tendering receipt for it behalf of said institution, and depositing th amount with one of our most reputable bankin houses. Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., or others, fo By this means all insurers will have tendered a share to a highly praiseworthy undertaking, without incurring any extra costs for their insur Every one will perceive the great importance and necessity of this enterprise, and no doubt exists that thousands of our fellow-citizens will avail themselves of such an opportunity as the tion of such a moral ent to pro nd benevolent character, in the manner above Subscriptions may be made at the office of the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company, G. Paul, Agent, Nos. 237 and 239 Dock street, Philadel-

FIRE.-Yesterday, about half-past 12 o'clock, a fire occurred at the house of Mr. Richard Clark, llowhill street. Some reofers, repairing the spouting, had left while at dinner a portable nace upon the roof, and it is supposed that tames or coals from this set fire to the roof. fire spread to the roofs of the houses Nos. and 2237 on the east, and 2231, 2229 and 2227 on the west, all of which were more or less destroyed, and the furniture of the inmates damaged by water. The roof of Mr. Clark's house was entirely burnt off. The occupants of the other houses, Messrs. W. H. Eastwood, Dr. W. B. Small, Jacob Albright, Sarah Reed and Margaret Richmond, were not insured. Mr. J. encer, who owned the houses Nos. 2231 and 2229 is insured in the Fire Association. GRAND UNION FESTIVAL.-A grand union festival. harvest home and Fourth of July celebration, in aid of the school building fund, under the direction of the trustees of the Gibbsboro strict and Union Sabbath Schools, alded by the Library Association and employes of the Gibbs-boro White Lead, Paint, and Color Works, will be held in the School House Woods at Gibbsbor near White Horse Station, N. J., on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, on the 4th of July. Excursion tickets have been arranged for, and the most excellent arrangements devised to have

Mr. HENDRICKS, too, held that this was a matter entirely within the discretion of the Senate. Mr. CONKLING arbmitted that such a practice ought not to prevail. Under it, any bill to the Senate might be backed to the appropriation bill. He might to-morrow, for example, move to back on a bill for the extension of a patent. The President protem, having resumed the chair, ar as this proposition would carry it. It would be violating seriously the rules of parliamentary law. He would vote at the proper time for the funding Ne would vote at the proper anterial simply to present bill. Mr. SHERMAN said he.desired simply to present equarely to the Senate whether it would adjoarn with-out acting on the question of funding, a question of importance, and even vital, in his opinion. He con-'ended again that there was sufficient precedent for the action proposed. A loan bill was attached to an appropriation bill during the Mexican war. Mr. WILLIAMS hoped this great and important sub-ject would not be set aside on a mere point of order. It would be sacrificing the interests of the country to a mere matter of form.

The Frince of Wales two previous nights. It was generally explored which a division would take place. The Frince of Wales and Prince Alfred were present. The Duke of Argple made a speech in support of the suspensory bill, strongly arging its immediate passage. He regret-ted that the royal commission on the Irish Church had as yet made no report, as he was sure that among their recommendations there would be one for the re-duction of the number of appointments in the Irish Church. The rejection of the suspensory bill would be a pecuniary loss. The measure was to conciliate, not the Fenians, but the people of Ireland. The Church Establishment was a relic of anclent wrong, and its abolition would heat the wounds of Ireland. The itsue was one of policy and not property. The Issue was one of policy and not property.

The Hones at half-past seven keaumed its session in Committee of the Whole, Mr. Orth in the chair, and continued the consideration of, the bill appro-priating $7,200,000 in coin to fulfill the stipulations of the treaty with Russia for the acquisition of R us-ian America. Mr. LOUGHENDE gave notice of an amendment to the bill, reciting the points of the treaty, declaring that those subjects are among those which, under the Constitution, are submitted to Congrees, and over which Congress has exclusive jurisdiction; and that having taken into consideration the treaty, and ap-proved its stipulations, the assent of Congrees is given to the supulations of the treaty. He proceeded to argue sesins the assumption of authority by the treaty-making power, but in favor of making the ap-verontion needed to carry out this treaty. to argue against the assumption of authority or the treaty-making power, but in favor of making the ap-propriation needed to carry out this treaty. Mr. Boyrn expressed himself in opposition to the appropriation for the purchase of Alaska, stating that he had come to that determination reluctantly. Mr. PRUYN argued from Kent and Story that the duty of Congress to make appropriations to carry out a treaty fairly made, is imperative. He ap-proved of this treaty, and was glad that the Senate had confirmed it by an almost unanimous vote. The integrity, honesty, and fairnees with which the
