CITY BULLETIN.

CAPTAIN MESSENGER BOYS.—It is unfortunately necessary to inform our readers (especially those who are in the habit of receiving [illegible] despatches) that there is no necessity whatever of paying any "Fourth of July" money to messengers. It appears that several boys who have been dismissed during the last few weeks for dishonesty, have been circulating a petition, and collected considerable money on the strength of it. The managers of the telegraph lines in the city unite in an earnest protest to their customers against any such fraud. These messengers boys of the telegraph companies are paid good wages, ranging from five to seven dollars per week.

NEW BUILDINGS.—The Building Inspectors issued 742 permits for new buildings during the month of June. This is an increase of 86 over the same month last year, and is a larger number than has been issued in any one month since the Bureau was established. Bug had a hearing before Alderman Swift, and was committed to answer.

ROBBERY OF BONDS.—Mrs. James, residing at No. 148 North Fifteenth street, went to the office of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States this morning, to draw interest due on bonds. She took with her the bonds amounting to $900. The coupons were detached at one end of the desk and handed to her. She then put the bonds into her pocket, and while passing to another compartment in the same office they were abstracted.

LARCENY OF CROCKERY.—John Culbertson, aged 14 years, was arrested last evening while engaged in putting his hand through the straw of a crockery crate in front of the auction store of Charles J. Wolbert, on South Sixth street. In all his pockets were found several small cups, and it was afterwards found that three or four dozen cups and saucers had been abstracted from the crate. Culbertson was held in $500 bail by Ald. Beitler.

SUPPOSED RIVER PIRATES.—Three young men, named James Reynolds, Michael Holden and Geo. Smith, were arrested last night at Noble street wharf. FALSE ALARM.—A false alarm of fire was given from box about noon from the Diligent Hose House, on Sergeant street, near Tenth. The Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph has directed the telegraphic instrument to be disconnected, until the person who made the false alarm is discovered.

PICNIC.—The private picnic of the Washington Grays given yesterday at Engel Grove, was a military assemblage of members and their friends, large and the affair passed off pleasantly and successfully.

DIED.—Sibley, aged sixty years, a native of Wilkill, at Sansom street wharf, Delaware avenue, was drowned. His body was found and taken to his late residence.

DEATH OF CHURCHMAN, ESQ., an old merchant of Philadelphia, highly esteemed in business circles, died this morning at his residence, Twenty-second Ward.

The regular stated meeting of the Press Association of Philadelphia, will be held this afternoon at the rooms, No. 607 Walnut street.

CITY NOTICES.

THE project of bridging the Delaware is being received with great favor. The chief wonder is that it was not done twenty-five years ago, as it was much wanted then. If a bridge is meant in the talk now, let us have it; but there will be no abridgment in the qualities and variety of the ready-made Summer Suits of Clothing always on hand at Charles Stokes & Co.'s Clothing House, under the Continental.

THE Y. M. C. A. of Chicago certify that they tested cushions filled with the Elastic Sponge, side by side with those stuffed with curled hair, and are unanimous in their opinion that the Elastic Sponge is "very fair superior"—"being thicker, fuller, softer and more elastic."

BONNETS AND MILLINERY AT A GREAT SACRIFICE—Messrs. Wood & Cary, 725 Chestnut street, have reduced their prices along the whole line, and are now making a fearful slaughter of their thousand and one elegant novelties, in the way of French Bonnets, fancy trimmed hats and bonnets, for ladies and children, all kinds of Millinery goods for cutting, and their superb styles of new Sun Hats, among which their Rip Van Winkle is becoming a universal favorite.

MEDICAL.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Address to the Nervous and Debilitated Whose Sufferings Have Been Protracted From Hidden Causes, and Whose Cases Require Prompt Treatment to Render Existence Desirable.

IF you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the luster of your eyes as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy. Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have you but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

Is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
