Cheap and Deligatful Travel. The Camden and Amboy Railroad Company ave renewed the excursion trips that have been o popular during several seasons past. They offer a schedule of no less that sixty-nine dif ferent routes in the North and East from which tourists can make choice of their summer trips; and all these routes have been so arranged as to enable the traveler to pass through the finest scenery and the most attractive localities of Canada, New England and the United States. Niagara Falls, Montreal, Quebec, Lakes Champlain and George, and Memphremagog, the Green and White Mountains, Ticonderoga, Saratoga, Newport, the Hudson river, the St. Lawrence, the Thousand Islands, Delaware Water Gap, and hundreds of other points of interest in respect to grandeur of scenery, local importance or historic association are before the tourist for his choice The time tables are so arranged that the various trips can be made with the utmost economy of time, and the traveler for a fortnight in 1868 can see more and do it more comfortably than could have been accomplished in three months thirty or forty years ago. As regards the expense of these popular trips, they have been put at prices that seem excessively small, when the distance traveled and the facilities afforded are taken into consideration. These trips are peculiarly Ameri can, and they precisely suit the temper and tastes of our countrymen who desire to see a great deal, to do it in the least possible time, and with a prudent eye to economical expenditure. Mr. Wm. H. Gatzmer is the General Agent, and Mr. J. W. Gore is the General Ticket Agent. These gentlemen, who are thoroughly at home in everything relating to Northern railway travel, wil furnish all desired information.

LETTER FROM LONDON.

Arrival of Prince Alfred-The Irish Church Question-Public Feeling in Regard to it—Debates in Parliament —Railway Accidents—General Items.

Correspondence of the Philada. Bally Evening Bulletin. I London, June 27.—His Royal Highness, Alfred Ernest Albert, Duke of Edinburgh, arrived at Spithead yesterday, from Sydney, in the screw frigate Galatea. The arrival of the frigate was about ten days earlier than had been anticipated, and her guns, as she exchanged salutes with .1er Majesty's ship Victoria, the flagship of Admiral Sir Thomas Sabine Pasley, created a deal of excitement and bustle ashore. The Duke was suitably received by the authorities of the borough of Portsmouth. He soon left for Windsor, where he was welcomed by an immense crowd, the bells pealing merrily, the streets lined with bunting, &c. The Duke has quite recovered from the effects of the wound inflicted by the would-be assassin. O'Far-

The disestablishment of the Irish Church is still the all-absorbing question with the English people, both in and out of Parliament. The Parliamentary speeches, especially in the House of Lords, are dreadfully long-winded. In regard to the Suspensory bill, the Times well says: "The sole questions to which Parliament attends with reference to the property thus under its control are these: Does it continue to serve the use to which it was applied? Is that assumed use still which it was applied? Is that assumed use sting beneficial? Have any circumstances arisen destroying its advantage and converting it into an injury? Apply these questions to the Irish Establishment. It never has served its intended use. It was meant to make Ireland Protestant; it has converted it into the groups. Catholic country of Europe There most Catholic country of Europe. There is not the alightest prospect of its realizing its end; and in the meantine it remains a standing monument of offence, and a danger to the Em-pire, because, put at its best, it exhibits England as the stronger section of the nation, forcing its will on the weaker, contemptuous of the creed to which the weaker clings, and obstinately bent on supplanting it. The conclusion is inevitable. The property Parliament meant to serve good ends, is powerless for good, effectual for mischief and there is nothing to be done but to resume its possession by the disestablishment and disendowment of a system which, as a system, has proved a pernicious failure." Some hard blows, how-ever, are yet to be struck before the final demoli-

The debates in the Commons have latterly had much of personality. We had a most welcome rest from personalities for a time, but they have now broken out as butter as ever. Mr. Disraeli himself is bitter, and provokes bitterness among himself is bitter, and provokes bitterness among other men. I can point to no recent debate, however, which is quite of the style of your Washburne-Donnelly controversy. That certainly was unique. The most solemn-faced man couldn't help bursting his buttons off with laughter on reading those speeches, but what sad thoughts must come afterwards. The Times, after speaking of Mr. Disraeli's success in provocation, says: "To do the Opposition justice, they do not require much to rouse them. If the Tory bite his thumb, the Radical's rapier is out in a moment."

tion of the Irish Church edifice, especially that part which has its foundations in the House of moment."

The Bristol election petition case has been closed, and W. Miles is unseated. The testimony in this case shows a quality ond quantity of bribery which must excite the envy of even New York politicians. One of the wholeses testified before the Committee: "Workingmen, you see, can't be expected to lose their time to vote without being paid for it." It was proved that a number of workmen were taken from a particular factory, and having been, according to their own accounts, vigorously plied with beer, were sent to the polling booths, to personate absent voters, for which service they were thereupon paid. In short, a multitude of things were proved, anything but satisfactory to lovers of purity in the ballot, and leading to congratulation that the election petition and corrupt practices bill is again up in Parliament.

again up in Parliament.

A collision took place on Wednesday, on the Blythe and Tyne Rallway, between a coal train and a passenger train. There were fourteen passengers on the latter train, and they were all more or less injured.

On Thursday Mr. Bierstadt submitted some paintings for the inspection of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

THE PRINCE OF WALES ON AMERI-

Opinions of His Royal Highness on Fenianism, the Alabama Claims, Peace and International Union.

[London correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.]

London, June 27, 1868.—I am authorized to state that the Prince of Wales made some very important semi-official declarations (previous to the levee which he held at St. James' Palace yesterday by command of the Queen) in regard to the American policy of the British government. The occasion was an interview granted by the Prince to Blerstadt, the American painter, at which Colonel Sanderson, late of the United States Army, was also present. In the inspection and commendation of Mr. Blerstadt's new pictures the Prince of Wales was joined by the Princess Louise, who happened to visit Marlborough House while the Interview was in progress. [London correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.]

Referring to the accounts of the preparations for another Fenian invasion of Canada, the Prince of Wales said: "I hope that the United States Government will be sincere enough to pen in the Canada to those Fenial Wales and the Canada to those Fenial Wales and the Canada Tallong Fenial Wales and the Canada Tallong Fenial Wales and Tallong Fenial Wales and Tallong Fenial Wales Fenial Wales Tallong F states Government will be sincere enough to persevere in its former policy in regard to those Femians who attempt to invade Canada. We know that the American Presidential elections are imment, and it is said that the politicians will be greatly inluenced by the Irish votes. We hope, however, that the instincts of international justice will be sufficient to override mere political considerations, and that such an outrageons viotice will be sufficient to override mere political considerations, and that such an outrageous violation of the comity of nations as a permitted incursion of armed bands into Canada will be prevented by the United States authorities, who have always shown themselves most prompt in their observances of treaty obligations."

"Alwar between England and America," his royal Highness added, "would be abnorrent to every principle of Christianity and humanity, and I may say that such a war can never occur in the ordinary course of events. But while and I may say that such a war can never occur in the ordinary course of events. But while such claims as those in regard to the Alabama are pending it would, of course, be an act of folly to allow such breaches of treaty as an invasion of Canada, since, on the score of damages alone, the British government would be able to make reclamations which would more than counterbalance even the Alabama claims. The United States and England are united by too many bonds to make war possible; but for myself I am anxious to have every point in dispute ami-cably settled, and the two countries may then become one in policy, as they already are, i firmly believe, in continent and origin." The Prince of Wales spoke with the greatest possible carnectness, and with much animation and even cloquence.

CITY BULLETIN.

AN UNGRATEFUL FELLOW.—George Burges was arrested last night by Roserve Policeman Collom, at Ninth and Walnut streets, upon the charge of larceny. He was formerly employed in a Messenger Corps. His promptness and wil-linguess to work attracted the attention of Dr. Louis R. Koecker, residing at No. 1802 Walnut street, and he gave Burgess his meals and em-ployed him in errands of various kinds. Sometimes he was entrusted with bank business. On the Sd of July, 1867, Dr. Koecker sent Burgess to bank to draw a check of $130. The money was drawn, but it never reached Dr. Koecker, and Burgess disappeared. Burgess was known to the officers about the Central Station, and last night he was observed and captured. He will have a hearing this afternoon before Ald. Beitler.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT .- A youth named James Dowdell, aged 17 years, was arrested yesterday for the larceny of a gold watch and four silver watches from the jewelry store of John Schlegel-No. 1864 Ridge Avenue. He sneaked in the store while the attendant was in the back part. A supicious movement caused him to be observed, and he was seized and handed over to a police-man. The five watches were found on his person: Dowdell was taken before Ald. Massey and was committed in default of $1,500 ball to answer at Court. About three months ago he was arraigned at the Central Station on the charge of ouse-robbery.

SUICIDE.—The body of the man who was found n the Schuylkill yesterday has been recognized as that of Joseph Farrell, of Chester, Pa. Mr. Farrell left his home on Tuesday, and took a pistol with him. The weapon could not be found, but after the recovery of his body, some caps and his pocket-book were found in his pocket. It is supposed that he shot himself on the river bank, and that the wound on his face was caused by falling on a rock. An inquest was held on the body and the verdict of the jury was suicide. The deceased has been low spirited for some time, and his family has been apprehensive that he would put an end to his life.

A PLEASANT EXCURSION .- A party of twenty ive, consisting principally of policemen of the Third District, made an excursion down the river yesterday in the steam-yacht "Isabel," com-manded by Captair, Michael Malloy. The excur-sionists visited Wilmington, Delaware, and on the way home stopped at Port Penn and Red Bank. Several musicians accompanied the party, and singing, dancing and other amusements were indulged in. Everything passed off agreeably, and the trip was one of the greatest enjoyment to all the participants.

LARCENY OF A WATCH .- Joseph Keims was before Alderman Maull yesterday on the charge of the larceny of a watch valued at $150. The complainant is named Brookshank. It is alleged that Kelms went to Brookshank, and in course of conversation, showed him a watch, which was out of order, and asked him to keep it for him. Subsequently he saw in the possession of Mr. Brookshank another watch which he borrowed for a few days. It is charged that he sold this watch for $130, and used the money. He was committed in default of $1,200.

Boy DROWNED .- A boy named William King aged 10 years, while running around the basin at the Chestnut Hill water works, on Wednesday efternoon, was drowned. His body was soon afterwards recovered. The deceased resided in the neighborhood of the water-works.

MAN DROWNED .- This morning, about one clock, an unknown colored man fell into the Delaware from the first dock below Arch streets and was drowned. His body was recovered and the Coroner was notified.

LARCENY OF SUGAR.-A negro man named John White was arrested yesterday at Delaware avenue and Arch street for the larceny of a barrel of sugar from the front of a store. He was committed by Recorder Givin.

OVERCOME BY THE HEAT. -An unknown man was overcome by the heat, at Eleventh and Race streets, and was taken to the Pennsylvania Hossital in an ingensible condition by Policeman Cox, of the Sixth District.

AN OWNER WANTED -A lot of new ropes taken from a vagrant, are at the Police Station at Chestnut Hill, awaiting an owner.

To Summer Tourists. - The Philadelphia Local Express Company will forward freight and baggage of every description to Atlantic City, Long Branch, Germantown, and all places on the line of the Camden and Atlantic, and Raritan and Delaware Bay railroads.

They will also call for baggage at any point, and deliver it to all parts of the city, and to all the railroad and steamship lines, with promptness and despatch.

Persons about visiting the above-named places will find it to their advantage to leave their addresses at the Principal office, No. 625 Chestnut street, or at the depot, No. 320 North Wharves.

ATLANTIC CITY .- For the information of those who desire spending Sunday out of the city, we will inform them that the Camden and Atlantic Railroad are now running two trains daily to the City by the Sea. One at 7.30 A. M., and one at 4:15 P. M. In addition to these trains, the fast express (through in two hours) is now running, leaving Vine street wharf at 2 o'clock P. M. Also the Sunday train, which leaves every Sunday morning at 7.30 A. M. It will be seen that this road offers excellent facilities to the pleasure-

CAPE MAY .- The Superintendent of the West Jersey Railroad announces that the morning train will leave Market street Ferry (upper side) at nine o'clock, and the afternoon train at a quarter after three o'clock, from the same place, for Cape Island. Returning, will leave Cape Island at 6.30 A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M. The 9 A. M. down train and the 5 P. M. up train run on express time, making the trip in three hours and twenty-five minutes.

THE young man arrested yesterday for forgery, who gave his name as Stephen T. Beale, alias Henry St. Clair, is not the son of Dr. Stephen T. Beale, of this city.

THE WILL of the late Thomas Evans, as well as the official quarterly statements of all the Philadelphia banks, will appear in to-morrow's Commercial List and Price Current.

DRINK the famous Arctic Soda Water and read the Evening Bulletin, at Hillman's News Stand. at North Pennsylvania Depot.

THE attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of "H. E. C.," under the "Wants." The Hill Divorce Case in St. Louis Decided. [From the St. Louis Times, July 2.]

The Hill divorce case was resumed yesterday before Judge Rombauer, the motion for alimony pendante lite coming up for settlement. The depositions taken before Mr. Allen, referee, were submitted and examined by the Judge, who issued the following order.

positions taken bother Mr. Andri, retrees, who issued the following order:—

Defendant is adjudged and ordered to pay to plantiff $100 per month for her support and alimony during the pendency of the suit, payable with the exception of the month of July, on the first day of each month, alimony to commence from the first day of July, 1868, and payment for that month to be made ou the sixth day thereof, execution to issue for the non-payment of any monthly allowance at any time after default. Also, an allowance of $300 for her expenses in prosecuting this suit, payable on the 15th day of July, 1868, with a like award of execution.

Mr. Hill left the city on Tuesday for Europe via New York, where he proposed to take depositions concerning the conduct of his wife while abroad. Mrs. Hill's counsel will shortly follow, and the testimony when produced here, cannot fall to prove interesting. In the meantime Mrs. Hill is realding quietly at St. Charles, Missouri, with her mother, Mr. Hill keeping the child under his control.

CRIME. MRS. VICTOR.

She Reinses Food for Fourteen Days— A Visit to her tell-Letter from the Sheriff to the Governor in her Be-

(From the Cleveland (Ohio) Leader, July 8.1 It seems as if Mrs. Victor had been endeavoring to starve herself to death. During the four teen days since her conviction, she has persistently refused the food sent to her, and has taken nothing but wine. This wine is given her, mixe with water, by the spoonful, and she manifests great indifference about drinking it. Sometimes the nurse is obliged to almost force it down her threat.

On Monday our reporter visited the cell in which Mrs. Victor is. The cell is in the southeast corner of the part of the jall in which the prisoners are confined, and in the upper story. It is larger than ordinary, and is perhaps ten feet wide by twelve or fourteen feet long. Two good-sized windows admit the light. In one good-sized windows admit the light. In one corner is a plain bedstead, on which Mrs. Victor lies most of the time. A lounge for the nurse, a small table, and two or three chairs constitute the remainder of the furniture. On the wall are posted numerous pieces of newspaper cut in fanciful shapes, which Mrs. Victor amused hereaft by making for two or three down after here elf by making for two or three days after her conviction. While our reporter was in the reom, Mrs. Victor lay in the bed, her arms thrown outside the coverlid, muttering about her brother or elster, or matters connected with her trial, and occasionally humming a strain from the tune of "Rest for the Weary." She appeared utterly unconscious of the presence of strangers. The night before, she got out of her bed and staggered about the cell in search of her baggage, saying that she would go home when the carriage came.

It is the opinion of those who have had charge of her, and her physicians, that at first her in-sanity was assumed, but that now, from the effects of her pretensions, her excitement and her abstinence from nutriment, that she has really become deranged. In accordance with the belief that she is not mentally sound, the Sheriff sent yesterday the following letter to His Excel-

clever Gov. Hayes:

CLEVELAND, July 7, 1968.—Hon. R. B. Hayes,
Governor of the State of Ohio: At the present
May term, 1868, of the Court of Common Pleas for Cuyahoga county, Sarah M. Victor was tried and convicted of the crime of murder in the first and convicted of the crime of murder in the mis-degree. The verdict of the jury was rendered on the 23d day of June and she was on the 3d day of July sentenced to be hung on the 20th day of Au-gust next. Prior to the rendition of the verdict occasional symptoms of mental derangement manifested themselves. But upon the rendition of the verdict they became, to all appearances, marked and permanent. Sentence was delayed for days, in the hope that this condition of things was but temporary. It, however, continued, and it was deemed best to have the sentence pronounced, as by the peculiar phraseology of the law on the subject, it was doubtful whether your Excellency could interfere until after sentence. It is now very evident that Mrs. Victor's mind is shattered. She persistently refuses all nourishment, and unless she is at once removed to some place where she can receive the constant and skillini care her condition requires, must soon die. I deem it, therefore, my duty officially to call your attention to her case for action under the law provided for it, and request that whatever you may decide as proper to be done under the circumstances may be done as speedily as possible. I have the honor to be yours, respectfully, FELIX NICOLA,

Sheriff of Cnyahoga County, Ohio. Cold-Blooded Murder of an Editor in Missouri

[From the St. Joseph (Mo.) Union, July 4.] In Albany, Gentry county, on Thursday night, Mr. W. R. Boyer, local editor of the Grand River News, was shot dead by W. A. Hundley, of Gentry ville, in the most cold-blooded manner, Deputy Sheriff John W. Barclay, and Mr. C. B. Hinkley, of Albany, who arrived here yesterday, ve learn the following particulars of this flendish outrage:
"For some time Boyer and Hundley have not been on good terms. The difficulty grew out of political differences, Boyer being a Republican and Hundley a bitter, hot headed rebel. The immediate incentive to the commission of the act, however, was the publication of a paragraph in the News, a tew days ago, stating that two young men from Gentryville had recently visited Albany with two prostitutes, whom they had palmed off at the hotel as decent women. No paimed on at the notel as decent women. No names were mentioned. One of these men who had thus disgraced themselves was Hundley. On Thursday night Hundley arrived in Albany by the hack, at about 9 o'clock. He made seve-ral threats as to what he intended to do, but as he had the reputation of a blow-hard, little notice was taken of his remarks. About 10 o'clock, as Boyer was sitting in J. R. Cunningham's dry goods store, and but a few feet from the door, Hundley entered, walked deliberately up to within three or four feet of him, without speaking, the product of the hall account the drew a revolver and fired, the ball entering the unfortunate man's breast and killing him instantly. The murderer turned upon his heel and fied, no one knows whither, though horses, telegraph lines and railroads have been used liberv in all directions.

Boyer was a quiet, gentlemanly man, not more than 26 years of age, and was a general favorite with his acquaintances. He was originally from Ohio, but some time since was editorially connected with the Grant City Enterprise, Worth county, and last fall removed to Albany. He was married. Hundley was an original rebel, and had for some time been keeping a drug store in Gentryville.

New York, July 6th, 1868.—Editor of the New York Clipper—Dear Sir: Since the meeting between James Hamill and myself, on the Schuylkill river at Philadelphia, on the 18th and 19th ult. I have endeavered to induce him to make kill river at Philadelphia, on the 18th and 19th ult. I have endeavered to induce him to make another match with me, as the result of the last leaves the question of superiority precisely where it was before, but all my efforts, have, I regret to say, proven futile. I had hoped to have been able to arrange matters quietly, as I have no desire for newspaper notoriety, but as Hamill has seen fit to decline to agree to any terms I have proposed. I have been compelled, in justice to myself, to publicly challenge him. I am ready to make a match to row Jas. Hamill a five mile race on any waters in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh—where one man will be certain to have as good a chance as the other—for any amount from one thausand dollars a side upward. I wish to decide once for all who is the better man, and if this suits Mr. Hamill I will meet him at any time and place he may designate, for the purpose of drawing up and signing articles. An early reply will be thankfully received and promptly responded to by discharges, what effect does it produce upon your gener health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce paintation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order! Is your urise sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a [thick scum rise to the top! Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the luster of your eyes as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy. Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless onights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have you but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or

New, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badiv cured. and sexual excesses are all capable of producing a weak ness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect healfly, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of paipitaceed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged they are always polite and pleasant in the company of adies, and look you and them right in the face-none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease-idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal a ections nicide, and almost every other form of disease which umanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the
