His Adventures With a Nigger Dele-gate from Tennessee.

NEW YOEK (at a cheap boardin-house), July 4, 868.—Ef I hid knowd just wat I hud to go through with, I never wood hey figgered for the posishen I new okkepy. Hed I knowed the troubles wich was to beset me, the Corners mite hev gone onrepresentid, and the Democricy mite hev nominatid a candidate without my help. I am at a cheep boardin house, wich is salubrusly sitooatid on an alley, the landlady bein one ov the anshent Kings of Ircland, wich her name is O'Shaughnessy. I coodent get rooms at the Aster, nor the St. Nicholas, ez I coodent git a clerk to look at me for an hour, and when I did succeed in rivitin the attenshun uv one, he flew atto a pashen and ordered me to move on, with the onfeelin remark that he hed no room for sich! And that insult mits he added no room for sich! And that insult mite be added to injoory, the on-feelin woman who presides over the manshen I inhabit, peremptorily refoosed to reserve me ontil I pade in advance. I tried eoveral places, but cz I badn't no baggage, the prevailin opinyun scemed to be that advance payment wood be bet-ter, and I wuz forst to return to her. My advenchers on the route were noomerous if not pleasant.

At some pint in Ingiany, where we changed cars, I found the trane we hed to take full uv delegates. In lookin around for a seet I diskivered but one that hadn't two in it, and that one hed in it a disgustin nigger who had the impoodence to be well drest, and hed a carpet-sack beside him. My Demokratic blood riz to wunst. Seein that in a Car filled with Democratic delegates, anything I shood do to a nigger wood be safe, I stawkt proudly up to him holdin my rose. "Good Lord !" set 1, "wat a smell." "Good Lord !" echoed the delegates which got

"Good Lord !" echoed the delegates which got on at that stashen, "wat a terrible smell. "My gentle Afrikin frend," sed I, seezin him by the collar, "I regret the necessity uv sayin disagreeable things, and still more uv doin em, but the fact is, yoor impudence in gittin into a car uv white gentlemen, with the disgustin odor inseperable from and part uv the Afrikin race, is rather too much. And more especially do I won-der at yoor keepin yoor seet, while I and these other white gentlemen are standin." "Out with the nigger!" yelled the lately ar-rived delegates, "hasite the stinkin cuss." "Merciful hevens, wat a smell!" sung out others uv them, "hist him!" "hist him!" Seein myself thus backed, and feelin a little zeal wood be safe, cz niggers can't yote, I knockt scal wood be safe, ez niggers can't vote, I knockt his hat out uv the winder, and follered up that demonstration with a serious attempt at liftin him ont uv the seet. I wood hev succeeded, but the nigger resisted, and resisted vigorously, to wit: He knockt three uv my front tech down my throte, pulled out wat little there waz left uv the hare that hangs in scanty festoons about my venerable temples, and blackt both my eyes. I wuz lyin on my back in the passage, somewhat astonisht, the nigger standin over me, with his heat heat related over my free when some gen boot heel raised over my face, when some gen-tlemen came in from another car and restrained him.

"Mr. Williams," sed tha, "let him up. He's pore white trach, and not wurth wastin yoor in-dignachen onto. Let him up, Mr. Williams, let oder even now makes the car ontenable to gentlemen uv refined sensibilities—and to heer the nig ger addresst az 'Mister,' after that, instid uv beir -and to heer the nigtored to pieces by the inturvated specktators! O, shame, wher iz thy blush !"

"You mizrable cuss," sed one uv these gentelmen, "apologize at wunst to this gentelman fur yoor insultin roodness, or we'll chuck yoo out uv the cars. Apologize, sir, to Mr. Josef Wil-liams, delegate at large for the State uv Tennessee." I almost fainted. This nigger then wuz a delo-gate! He wuz a regular delegate, armed and equipped with regular credenshels to the Demo-kratic Nashnel Convenshen, and I hed been guilty in my zeel uv assaultin uv him! (Gladly II apologized, and further I humbly begged per-mission to sit beside him, wich he accordid with o concluence in herver see detailed a graciousnis I never saw ekalled.

Wat the platform will be, or who the candi-dates will be, the Lord only knows. I am pro pared for anything and so are the delegates. Efpared for anything and so are the delegates. Ef-is P-indeton, on a repoodiashan platform, well and good—ef its Seymour, on a Nashnel Bank platform, jest ez good. I shood be happy to see Breckenridge the choice uv the party, and de-lighted ef Hancock shood be chosen. I kin hur-rah for Chase, and with ekal vigger kin swing my hat for Vallandygum, and I find all the delegates similerly affected. The Post Offis-ia the lean kine wich swallers up all the others. We are willin to sink every thing in Post Offis. That my sincerity may not be doubted, let it be remembered that I hey rid with a nigger from Ingenny to Noo York; hey ben whaled by one and hey felt good over it, hey bin hurrahin for an old line Abolitioniet, and swearin the while I liked it. Ef any other evidence uv floxibility is needed, I feel ekal to the task. Politically I am I feel ekal to the task. Politically I am ekal to all emergencies.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M. (Wich is Postmaster).

A Bride of 84 and a Groom of 20.

[From the Milwaukee Wisconsin of July 18th.] A few days ago a wedding took place on the South Side which has created something of a sensation, a lady eighty-four years of age being united to a gushing youth of about twenty. It is certainly a singular affair. The lady is a widow and wealthy, owing considerable pro-perty and having besides the sum of about $9,000 perty and having besides the sum of about $9,000 in gold and a number of Government bonds laid away. The property was left by her husband, who died some years ago, leav-ing a large family. The property of the husband was divided between the widow and the children. The widow of late years has not been on good terms with the children, and has threatened more than once that she would marry again rather than leave them the property. Threa years acco than leave them the property. Three years ago she came very near carrying the threat into exe-cution, but on that occasion the would-be bridegroom considered it was a little too much, even with the money—that difference of over fifty years between their ages. Some weeks ago, a young man boarding at the house of a relative of the old lady, was taken sick. During his illness the lady attended him, and when he had nearly recovered, intimated to him that she had a large amount of property, and that she wanted to get married. If he would marry her and take care of her for the few years she lived, the property should be his.

we know not how much persuasion it took to accomplish the object-if, indeed, any was needed. This we do know-a few days ago, Jus-tice Tucker, of the Eighth Ward, united the two in holy bonds of wedlock-the anxious bride of eighty-four summers, and the gushing youth of twenty. The wedding took place at a residence on the South Side, in the presence of only a few friends.

As soon as they learned of the affair, the relaand well they might be. They consider the affair a most scandalous one, and have threatened to arrest the justice who married the parties, and the gentleman at whose house they were married. Meanwhile the happy pair live as colly as a brace of turtle doves, their whole souls apparently wrapped up in each other.

THE HEATED TERM.

Interesting Statistics—The Thermom-ter on the First Sixteen Days of July for Four Years—The Hottest Days During the Past Forty Years.

The heated term still continues without any prospect of abatement. Each succeeding day prospect of anatement. Each successing duy appears to be warmer than the previous one, although the thermometer ranges about the same. Such a lengthy period of hot weather is rather unusual. While the old standard thermometers in the city have not quite got up to 100 degrees, the mercury in many workshops has then higher the mercury in many work shops has risen higher than that point almost every day during the past week. A glance at the interesting statistics pub-lished below will show that the thermometer has been 100 and upwards only five or six times since 1824

During the first few days of the present excessively hot weather but few cases of sun-stroke occurred, but yesterday a large number of cases were reported, and fourteen proved fatal. Another large list, reported to-day, is published elsewhere

JULY, FROM 1790 TO 1824. The record of the weather in Philadelphia by Chas. Peirce shows that in 1790 a large portion of the month of July was very warm. T cury rose to 90 and above on seven days. In 1791 it commenced and continued very warm until the 18th. There were several very foggy mornings between the 20th and 30th, and very hot

The following we copy from the Press of July 11: PROGRESS IN MANUFACTURES. United States Hotel, Atlantic City. "In an article which we published in this journal in December last, under the above caption, we referred at some length to the great soap CONCERT AND HOP, manufactory of Mr. J. B. Dobbins, at Sixth street and Germantown avenue, predicting that Music under the Direction of SIMON HASSLER. 1916-845 the soap which Mr. Dobbins manufacturesfamiliarly known as Dobbins' Electric Soap-was destined to attain a degree of popularity never equaled by any other manufactured article in this country; and stating that already the cupidity SHITH BANDOLPH& CO BANKERS AN PHILAS MAYORK of certain envious (would-be) rivals had been excited by Mr. Dobbins's unparalleled success. "It is to the latter of these points that we today wish briefly to direct attention. As a great economizer of time and labor, we then gave to Mr. Dobbins's Soap the indorsement which its merits deserve, believing that by so doing we should promote the comfort and happiness of millions throughout our cities and the country at large. But we are unwilling that our indorsement of a good article shall be falsely used in order to give respectability and character to poor imitations of it. There are certain soap manufacturers of the more unscrupulous class, who, after vainly endeavoring to joist their soap upon the "market under certain names have simply changed their names, without in the least improving their washing properties, and are endeavoring to delude the public into the adoption of these miserable shams. They are pretty looking white soaps, but for washing purposes are absolutely good for nothing. Let the people therefore, beware. One concern has even gone so far in this deception as to advertise Philadelphia Electric Soap, very nearly imitating his labels, with the evident design of misleading buyers into the supposition that it is the Dobbins article. Of course, no honorable, well-established firm would resort to such a trick. In fact, we know of respectable firms in the business who denounce the imposture more severely than does Mr. Dobbins himself.
