SEMMES, THE DEMOCRAT. No one seems to have been so overjoyed at the news of Seymour and Blair's nomination as Raphael Semmes, of the late Alabama, the hero of scores of chronometers and watches stolen from unarmed fishing and merchant vessels. At the ratification meeting at Mobile, Semmes,-styled in the papers"Admiral Semmes"---appeared and was received with "the most vociferous cheering and applause" from all the Seymourites present. His remarks to them are thus sketched in the Mobile

"Admiral Semmes advanced and stated that he lace and induced him to come to the city Democrat: he had fought in the war as a Democrat: that he had once desputied of a republican Gov-ernment in this country, but now there was a light in the east which bid them hope. by the South before Congress may safely adjourn. The meeting was addressed by Gen. Fremont, who said it would be highly inindicious for Congress to adjourn without leaving additional protection for the newly constituted government i the South.

Resolutions were adopted asking legislation authorizing an election in Virginia and for an investigation of the frauds in the Mississippi election, or the institution of a provisional loval government in those States. A resolution for the impeachment of the President, articles to be based on his recent veto message, is pendiug for action at an adjourned meeting to be held tonight.

The Mississippi Election. WASHINGTON. July 22d.-The Committee on

Reconstruction this morning appointed Mr. Paine as a sub-committee to examine Genera lem's report on the subject of the recent vot in Mississippi, on the adoption of the Constitution of that State. They also appointed a subommittee to prepare a bill which will be reported to-morrow, providing for a provisional government for Texas, pending the sitting of the Convention. The intention is to put United States troops under the control of the Convention. A brother of Gov.
