

THE "FINE ARTS."

Frang's Chromo-Lithographs.

The last "chromo" received by us from Messrs. Frang & Co. of No. 150 Washington St., Boston...

only state that the publisher, after his servant, the lithographer, has done his best to fool the public by imitating the broad, plastery touches of painters...

Retrospection. We were interested in examining a large and speaking picture just issued in lithograph by McKimney & Co., 1384 Chestnut street.

A Queen Kept Hidden at Paris. We read in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, that we had at Paris a Majesty who is surrounded with the profoundest mystery...

purpose were hastened westward. From all we could learn Mormonism is rapidly advancing. They have some splendid merchants in the city now, who are sanguine of good times.

THE COST OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The expenditures in each Ward of the city, for the maintenance of the public schools in the city during the year 1867, as shown by the annual report of the Board of Controllers, just issued, was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: School Name and Amount. Includes Central High School, Girls' Normal School, 1st Section, etc.

General Expenses. $1,074,889 89. This was $48,494 25 less than the amount expended by City Councils.

TRIAL OF A NEW TUG.—Messrs. Neafie & Levy, having completed the machinery of the new steaming tug, General W. McCandless, she made a trial-trip, yesterday, to Greenwich Point, Point Breeze, and Gibson's Point...

ROBBED HIS EMPLOYER.—Mr. Hiltches, proprietor of a grocery store at Fifteenth and Master streets, went into his house to supper, about seven o'clock last evening, and left his store in charge of a young man who had been in his employ about three weeks.

DEPARTURE OF MORMONS FROM UTAH. A company of about one hundred and fifty Mormon converts left this city last evening for Utah. It is reported that this band was gathered from New York, Williamsburg and Philadelphia...

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.

THE RECENT RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The death of John Hutchinson, engineer of the train which was wrecked on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, on Tuesday afternoon, gives to the accident only one more serious character.

THE CAMPAIGN.—The nomination of Theodore F. Randolph, on Wednesday, by the Democratic Convention, as the candidate of that party for Governor of New Jersey, has had the effect to somewhat stimulate the drooping spirits of the Democracy in Camden, and they are making preparations to enter the campaign with the vigor of their usual spirit.

DROWNED.—Yesterday afternoon, a son of Mr. C. Carter, of Stockton, was drowned at the foot of Federal street wharf. He was fishing in company with other boys, and accidentally fell overboard. The boy was soon recovered, but life was extinct. He was but 11 years old, and quite a promising lad.

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION. Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will cure it.

THE RECORDS OF INSANE ASYLUMS. And the melancholy deaths by consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which...
