

POLITICAL.

General Carl Schurz on the Situation.
General Carl Schurz (Radical) spoke at Indianapolis, Ind., on Friday evening. We give his views on negro suffrage and the bond question.
The Democrats say that by giving the negro the right of suffrage will make the black race too overbearing. It may be replied to that that free labor entitles to political power.

Frank Blair's Strategy.
Our cotemporaries of the Republican faith are being considerably exercised over the brutally stippled letter of Gen. Blair, which procured the nomination of a black man to be commander of the expedition. Such indignation is a great waste of a good material. Frank is harmless. The really dangerous man is the one heading the ticket.

Spirit of the Rebel Press.
The New York World says:
For many crimes against law, Constitution and human nature as Congress commits, the British people would smash Parliament and hang by the necks the members.

THE GREAT BOMBINGHOFF ROBBERY--Another Arrest.
(From the Titonville (Pa.) Herald, August 3.)
John Bonninghoff's hired man, who was implicated in the robbery, and who gave Seeger and his confederates the information they desired about the money kept in the house, &c., was arrested and taken to Philadelphia by the four prison cars.

CITY BULLETIN.
A MIDSUMMER MASQUERADE.--A midsummer evening is not generally considered the best time for masked balls, but those who participated in an entertainment of that description given by Mrs. Hoebel, of the Chestnut Grove House, at Media, last evening, to her boarders, and a large number of invited guests, all agree that what is a night of fun and frolic for some, is a night of two hundred persons were organized into companies, regiments and brigades, and army corps, ready, if need be, to march to Washington.

DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN.--Wm. Hogg, Sr., a well-known and esteemed citizen, died at his residence, Hanover street, Kensington, on Sunday evening last. The deceased was in the 84th year of his age, having been a resident of Kensington fifty-six years. He was one of the first to introduce the manufacture of carpeting in this district, which business is still carried on by his sons.

CAMP MEETING.--A woods meeting in progress near Pottsville, 27th Ward, Building and lodging on the ground. Last Sunday about two thousand persons were in attendance. The religious services were almost uninterrupted for eight in the morning till ten at night. The meeting will continue over next Sunday. Darby cars run within a short distance of the woods.

SUBSTITUTION.--A young man named Theo. Greeninger was before Ald. Hood this morning, upon the charge of assaulting a policeman. He is alleged that he threw stones at the officer, who was arrested one of his friends. He was held to answer.

THE TAPPING.--A youth named John McSorley was arrested yesterday on the charge of having robbed the money-drawer of a store in the neighborhood of Seventeenth and Calloway streets. He was committed by Alderman Hancock.

MEETING AT GERMANTOWN.--A mass meeting of the friends of Grant and Colfax will be held at the Town Hall, Germantown, to-morrow. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. John W. Forney, Hon. G. A. Grew and others.

THE FUNERAL.--The funeral of Louis Moritz, who was drowned at Atlantic City on Saturday last, took place this morning from his late residence, No. 237 North Sixth street, and was attended by the employees of the Philadelphia Democrat, with which the deceased was connected. The funeral of the Press Club of Philadelphia, the Young Masonic choir, and a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

THE COURTS.
QUARTER SESSIONS.--Judge Brewster.--Prison cases were resumed this morning. Charles Shuster pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny of a gold watch, and was committed to jail on the 10th of the month, and kept it till 10 o'clock in the evening, when upon its return to the stable he fell down completely exhausted.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.
THE COMMERCIAL.--The campaign in South Jersey has been fairly inaugurated. The organizations have been formed, and the Republicans are beginning to lay aside much other matter to enter heartily and vigorously into the work.
