The Patrie declared lately that the age of e "venerable" deputy, M. Garnier-Pagès. rived his arguments of all value, and that come for returning to private life. When the Emperor shall have reached the same age as M. Garnier-Pages will the Patric else? That is the question. The history of Charlemagne, by Napoleon

How I should love to read a history Japoleon III. written by Charlemagne There is talk of suppressing the Ministry of the Emperor's Household; M. Rochefort neatly insinuates a comparison between the Count de Nieuwerkerke and a head-chamberemploy themselves about in this ministry created expressly to manage a house: but we and assistants, all the host of them. may be replaced by one housekeeper. Rochefort has a word about the sabre just made for the little Prince: On one side are engraved the names of ranger, "On parlera de sa gloire" (his glory shall be talked of). Observe this tact of the engraver, who refrained from adding Béranger's next line, "Sous le chaume bien long emps" (many a day beneath the thatch), very well knowing that the "thatch" beneat costs us a round thirty millions a-year. I do not know precisely what "glory" is under stood here, but if the poor opinion of a futur subject may come to his future sovereign without too much displeasing him. I would dvise him to mistrust sabres. Formerl this warlike emblem was strongly in favor to-day it grazes the ridiculous. The fine tirade of M. Prudhomme had already notched its edge, when the couplets of the Grande esse — "Voici le sabre, le sabre de mon pere,"-gave it the final blow. The Etendard published a formidable article against the Lanterne. Rochefor eremoniously thanks the writer, who, having disagreeable things to tell him, had consider ately "buried them in oblivion in the columns t that paper." Flattering to the Etendard.

During the election the greatest excitement prevailed all over the hall. After much confusion the tellers announced that Mr. Jack had received 82 votes and Mr. Jones 77. Mr. Jack was declared duly elected.

The following are the subordinate officers chosen.

Vice Presidents—George W. Fetter, of Phila-delphia; W. N. Aiken, of Crawford; Miss Sallie Embric, of Chester; and Miss Hannah Thompson, Embric, of Chester; and Miss Hannah Thompson, of Centre.
Recording Secretary—Professor C. H. Harding, of Philadelphia.
Corresponding Secretary—J. B. McCaskie, of Lancaster.
Treasurer—Amos Rowe, of Lancaster.
Assistant Secretary—E. O. Lyle, of Lancaster.
Adjourned till half-past seven.
Evening Session.—Hon. Thomas H. Burrowes, of Lancaster, offered the following:
Whereas, The habitual absence from school of so large a proportion of the enrolled pupils of the common schools and of the children of proper school age, who are neither enrolled in the com-"On cigars of all descriptions, made of tosand; on cigarettes weighing not exceeding three pounds per thousand, $1 50 per thousand; when weighing over three pounds per thousand, $5 per thousand."
Section 108 enacts that all provisions of the act which require the use of stamps shall take effect at the end of sixty days from the school age, who are neither enrolled in the com-mon schools nor attend any other school, as is passage of this act, and that the delay may be still further extended, if deemed necessary, by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The last clause of section 82 provides that passage of this act, and that the delay may be still further extended, if deemed necessary, by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The last clause of section 82 provides that cigarettes and cheroots shall be held to be cigars under the meaning of this act.

The Department holds that under the 77th section all manufactured tobacco and snuff imported after the passage of this act, and until October 1, 1868, must be warehoused, and so remain until said October 1, 1868. Cigars, cigarettes and cheroots imported after the passage of this act are required to pay the new rate of import duty as prescribed by the state of at the end of section 87, above referred to, and the new internal revenue tax prescribed by the 81st section, above cited.

You will observe that section 85 requires that all cigars shall be packed in boxes not before used for that purpose, containing respectively 25, 50, 100, 250 or 500 eigars each, and that section 93 extends this provision to imported cigars, so that they cannot be permitted to pass from your custody without best middle of the containing respectively 25, 50, 100, 250 or 500 eigars each, and that section 93 extends this provision to imported cigars, so that they cannot be permitted to pass from your custody without best middle of their duty in regard to secular week day schools as a means of promoting that degree of general intelligence which is such an aimportant element of religious character, and they are respectfully invited to not confine their imported cigars, so that they cannot be permitted to pass from your custody without being so packed, whether imported in that condition or otherwise. But under the provisions of the 108th section no internal revenue stamps are required within the time limited by that section. In all other respects the several sections above cited or referred to take effect from and after the passage of the act.

Under the last clause of section 82, above quoted, the provisions in regard to packing also extend to cigarettes and cheroots.

The new law does not abolish the ordinary custom-house stamps now in use and placed on all packages of imported cigars, but stamps must be affixed to the boxes in which they must be affixed to the boxes in which they pass out of your custody.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue will, it is understood, at an early—day issue regulations for the collection of the internal revenue tax on cigars, cigarettes and cheroots, and until stamps are provided will, before permitting cigars, etc., to pass out of your custody, require the production of satisfactory evidence under said regulations, of the payment of said tax.

SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE OF IRON, According to the opinion of the mombers of the Paris Academy of Medicine, this article is superior to all the forruginous preparations known. It agrees hest with the stomach, never causes costiveness; it contains the clements of the blood and the osseous frame, and succeeds where other preparations fail, such as Vallet's pills, iron reduced by hydrogen, lactate of iron, and ferruginous mineral water. One tablespoonful of the solution or syrup

Children's Diseases—Todized Syrup Prepared by Grimault & Co., Paris. This syrup contains lodine combined with the juice of water crees, hore-radich and scurvy-grass, in which iodine and sulphur exist naturally, and for this reason it is an excellent substitute for cod liver oil, which is generally supposed to owe its efficacy to the precence of codine.

Dr. Burin Du Buisson's Digestive Lozenges of the Alkaline Lactates. The Alkaline Lactates exercise the most beneficial in fluence over the derangements of digestion, either by their peculiar action on the mucnous membrane of the stomach or by affording to the latter through their combination with the saliva to the gastric nuce a supply of lactic acid, which all English, French and other physiologists admit to be an essential principle of digestion. For the information of those who may be without medical advice, if may be stated here that the symptoms of interior digestion are: Headache, pain in the forehead, hemicrania, gastritis, gastriagia, heartburn, wind in the stomach and bowels, loss of appetite, emaciation, &c.

favor of Mr. James Thompson, whose re-appearance in Chess circles, after a prolonged sickness, we notice with unfeigned pleasure; and, judging from the dashing manner in which he carried off both of his tournament games from Mr. Dill, on Thursday evening, we should say that, in mental vigor, at least, he has suffered little from his late severe indisposition.—Sunday Mercury. TRIPLE TRANSFORMATION BEENE GRAND MATINEE BATURDAY AFTERNOON. Grand Promenade Concert and Hop at the Sea treeze House. APE MAY-SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST STILL
