The railway company which offers the best accommodations in its fares, and in all its provisions for the ease and comfort of travelers, does the largest and most profitable business. Even railroads form the sacrifice. The slaughter of war is travelers in the sacrifice in most promatic business. Even railroads that enjoy monopolies upon great traveling routes are not exceptions to the common law of liberality. If monopolies in this free country were ever assured things: if they did not always hold their privi-leges subject to a change of the sovereign will of the people, there would still be a good appeal against them, in favor of the principle we are advocating. But the reverse is true. TRAGEDY AT SEA. Vessel Wrecked Off Sandy Hook.

On the afternoon of the 6th instant, as the pilot-boat Nettle, Capt. Joseph B. Lockman, was cruising about 45 miles southeast of Sandy Hook a wreck was discovered, and, on being boarded, proved to be the bark Henry Trowbridge, of New Haven, Conn. She was deserted by every living being and her broken masts, disordered river the absence of small boats, compass, charts, &c., betokened that she had been struck by a heavy sea which had carried all before it. Captain Lockman took her in tow and brought her to the Highlands M Neversink, where he transferred her to the or Neversink, where he transferred her to the care of Captain Whitlock of the New York Sub-marine Wrecking Company. In pumping out the water the bodies of three seamen were dis-covered.
