ANTWERP, Aug. 12, P. M.-Petroleum quiet The Death of Thaddeus Stevens. [Special Despatch to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.]
WASHINGTON, August 12.—The announcement that Thaddeus Stevens died last night, at twelve o'clock, excited some surprise, as it was not known that his condition was so critical. To his one of the band old do. at 1239130. immediate housebold, however, his death was not unlooked for, as he has been growing weaker for several days.

During the day, however, he conversed with cheerfulness and animation on various subjects. He referred to Attorney-General Evarts in terms of marked kindness. He grew feebler towards night and about four o'clock became speechless. His physicians called at about nine o'clock and discovered that the veteran's end was near.

His last hours were calm and painless. Only a few members of his immediate family were present, with two Sisters of Charity from Provideace Hospital, for whom Mr. Stevens has always manifested great regard, and whom he has materially aided in securing appropriations for the erection of the hospital buildings in their charge.

About ten minutes before his death, having obtained the permission of his friends, Sister Loreit aperformed the haptismal rite.

Up to the last, Mr. Stevens continued to take a profound interest in public affairs. On Monday he expressed considerable anxiety in regard

Up to the last, Mr. Stevens continued to take a profound interest in public affairs. On Monday he expressed considerable anxiety in regard to the state of the country, refering to the condition of affairs in Louisiana. He expressed the hope that Mr. Johnson might abstain from anything likely to create trouble, and hoped that no necessity would arise for the reassembling of Congress in September.

Citchian delection will doubtless aggravate this tendency. The large preponderance of imports over exports requires to be balanced by beavy shipments of bonds or specie, or both, and since the lat of January we have shipped to foreless and eight killed; the remainder fied to the mountains. The Rollins Occision.

ISpecial Despatch to the Phila Evening Bulletin.]

Washington, Aug. 12.—The Attorney-General's opinion on Mr. Rollins's resignation was sent to Secretary McCulloch last night. It decides that there is no vacancy, and that there can consequently be no appointment to the Revenue Commissionership.

The opinion includes a decision that the President can fill original vacancles, like the Alaska offices.

With regard to the Congressional recess, Mr. Evarts is understood to hold the same opinion that the two Houses do, that it has not the legal effect upon a prointments which an adjointment.

August 11.—The Government bond market was robbed on the 6th instant. On the 8th the stage running from Celaya to Queretaro was also robbed. Various bands of robbers are infecting central Mexico, and are supposed to have formed secret societies through which they are united, they having passwords, signs and a language of their own.

The whole state of Vera Cruz was in insurrection. The rebels were well organized and the leaders men of influence. The insurection was extending quickly and held its ground firmly. Pricto was at Medellin, and had pronounced in favor of Ortega. Other leaders followed his example and were joined by the troops stationed at Tlacotalpam and Alvarado. Both of these places were hitherto in favor of Juarez. The city of Vera Cruz was left without sufficient force to repel an attack, which was momentarily feared. It
