OUR CITY TICKET. The Republican party goes into the October campaign with a ticket as unexceptionable as was ever presented to the citizens of the variable as Philadelphia by any party. At the head of two hundred, years they lived in a radical are satisfied that it is, makes the strongest Philadelphia by any party. At the head of this ticket stands General Hector Tyndale for Mayor, and associated with him, Charles Gibbons, Esq., for District-Attorney. These two important officers are the chief representatives of the municipal government in the tatives of the municipal government in the coming election, and while the nominations which have been made for the other offices are all worthy of the patriotism and public spirit of the Republican party, it is upon the offices of Mayor and District-Attorney, at least when no Sheriff is to be elected, that least when no Sheriff is to be elected, that the general interest of our municipal elections

It is of vital importance to the welfare of their own. Either of these would have prepermitted to lapse into the hands of a party if the people had chosen to live apart from which proved so unfaithful to every public their fellows. The party afterwards visited the Mole Nicholas, which is designated by the American payal year nated as the rendezvous of American naval vessels in Haytien waters. At this the English, French and Spanish Ministers are jealous and condemn the American Minister. They have protested against the attempts which they alprotested against the attempts which they allege are made to annex part of the island to the United States. Generals Lynch and Normill, the Caco chiefa, had abandened Carrefour, near the capital, and President Sainave's troops had re-occupied it. Soulouque's wife has astrongly espoused the cause of President Sainave. She is reported as having considerable influence. The revolutionists seemed to be dissatisfied with the meagre results of the war. President Sainave's popularity appeared to be on the increase.

The Certa-Bica entirond—The Treaty

The Ath of July was appropriately observed throughout all the different Central American States by the resident Americans, the various consulate and public offices making their usual display of flags, &c.

The President of the Costa-Rica Raliroad Company has addressed a memorial to Mr. Seward, asking him to give his influence to support the claim of the company against the Costa-Rica Government, the contract, as your readers will remember, having been declared null and void by the latter. The company are desirous of going on with the work, but they are prevented by the Rovernment—hence the claim. Mr. Lyman Reynolds had arrived at 8an Jose de Costa-Rica, and was to begin to build the telegraph line from Punta Arenas, on the Pacific, to the capital, at once. As all the material for the work is already on the spot, it is estimated that the line will be finished by the 1st of next November. There has been a somewhat friend market for railway shares and border State stocks to-day the web have had to record of late, but the speculative feeling of the street continues tame, and the task of sustaining prices devolves entirely upon cliques.

There has been a very confident feeling all day in the market for government securities, and especially with regard to the home bonds, as disinguished from those for which there is a forcign demand. The inquiry was chiefly for the specially with regard to the home bonds, as disinguished from those for which there is a forcign demand. The inquiry was chiefly for the supportable bonds were neglected.

AUGUST 12.—The Government bond market was firmer and prices advanced. The demand is running chiefly on the new bends, which closed strong.

The money market is easy at 3 to 4 per cent. On call. There is more demand for money to the West and discounts of good business notes are made at 6 to 7 per cent.

The foreign Exchange market is unsettled by The Camanches had also brought in and delivered up to Agent Wynkoop, without ransom, a girl, about 9 years old. This child, Agent Wynkoop preferred to keep with his family until it can side. He says they were not taken prisoners nor

West and discounts of good business notes are made at 6 to 7 per cent.

The foreign Exchange market is unsettled by the supply of bills against bonds with which the market has been flooded of late. Prime bankers sixty-day sterling bills are offered direct at 109% and sight at 109% to 199%. Considerable transactions have been made in exchange by telegram. The low prices at which bills have been offered have induced a number of parties to remit in anticipation of their wants.

The recent tumble seems to have been engineered by the leading bulls, who had sold their gold and wanted to buy back again at low rates, as well as the bears. An outside operator, who had figured prominently as a persistent seller of gold for millions in the recent decline, failed on his contracts to day, which were made at 146½ and 145½ yesterday. The market closed firm and without any excitement.
