Thaddeus Stevens's Death

OPINION OF THE LONDON PRES

The Revenue Commissionership

LONDON, August 14.—Telegrams promptly ceived from New York, announcing the death o Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, created a most profound sensation, and nearly all the morning journa have elaborate obituary notices.

The Times, after recounting Mr. Stevens's pro projects, and his views relative to the payment of nited States five-twenties, concludes its article "The death of Thaddeus Stevens is not now a public loss. His impeachment policy was of incalculable injury to his political party, and the corner of Eleventh and West streets, last night, in the building occupied by G. B. Lawton & Co., as willed man, but not mean or deceifful. He is feed and grain store. The loss amounts to the last of the leading Americans who had the $24,000, and is fully covered by insurance. The courage to rise above politican partisanship."

The Morning Telegraph says: "Mr. Stevens a negro named Smith has been arrested on sus
