some prompt and decisive measures for their Committee of that State, at a recent meeting held in the Senate Chamber at Jackson, are enclosed. A resolution to proceed at once to nominate candidates for Electors was rejected and the following was adopted in its place; this body, to be held in this Chamber on Taes-day, 22d day of September next.

It was also, Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee the act of Congress above referred to, excluding the State of Mississippi from her right to vote in the Presidental election, is in-contravention of the constitution and the rights of the States thereunder. Other resolutions adopted declare the expulsion of Governor Humphreys from the Executive Manelon by military forces under General bulsion of Governor Humphreys from the Exective Mansion by military forces under General Grant to be without authority of law and appoint a committee to correspond with General Grant and the President on the subject. That representative men of Southern Democratic sentiments be requested to represent the South on the Northern question in the present canvas, and that a Committee of Correspondence be appointed to bring this subject to the attention of the Democratic Committees and leading members of the party North.

A committee was also appointed to prepare an address to the Democracy of the Northern States. From information which has reached here from Virginia and Texas it is believed that the Democrats of these States are pursuing the same policy with those in Mississippi, of waiting until after the time of the September session of Congress before putting their electoral tickets in the field. The full development of the plan contemplated in South Carolina and other States where Democrats do not expect to be able to overcome the Radiical majorities, of holding a separate election for white voters under the Johnson provisional government is each to be sufficient of the subject to the deletation for white voters under the Johnson provisional government is entired to the subject to the attention of the Democratic Southern Quality (1974) (200, do., '65, 1194, @107 white voters under the Johnson provisional government, is also believed to be held in abeyance until the last of September, for like reasons.
