RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE

SEMI-CENTERNIAL CRLEBRATION OF ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, GERMANTOWN .--- The venirable parish of St. Luke's (Episcopal) Church in able parties of St. Lukes (Episcopai) Church in Germantown was the scene of a deeply interest-ing series of services yesterday... The occasion-being the celebration of its golden wedding, it having attained its fiftieth year from the date of its consecration by Bishop White. The occasion was one that, with all its attendant cir-cutasiances will not readily be forwatter here. occasion was one that, with all its attendant cir-cumstances, will not readily be forgotten by any who were present, and by the members of the parish old and young, will be treasured as a land-mark in its history. A printed invitation having been addressed to the clergy of the city and to all others in more remote sections who had in any way been connected with the parish and its history, an immense concourse assembled and completely filled the sacred edifice. Owing to the admirable ar-rangements made by the Rector and the Lay offiof the Church, all the services were conducted with perfect order, and without the slightest confusion. Besides the Rector, the Rev. slightest confusion. Besides the Rector, the Rev. B. W. Morris, there were present the Right Rev. Bishop of the Diocese, the Rev. Edward R. Lip-pitt (formerly a Rector of the parish); Rev. Drs. Beaaley, Clerc, Mombert, Suddards, and Yarnali; the Rev. Messrs. Buchanau, Clark, Davis, Evans, Newman, Roberts, Watson (of St. James the Less), Getz, Littell, Murphy, Perry, J. H. Brown, Matlack, Greene (of Illinois), White, Colemsa, Harris (of Chestnut Hill), Robins, Lundy, Childs, Field, Colton, Spackman, Stewart, Turner, Ely, Barrow, Dichl, Brooks, Bonnell and Newton. Newton.

Newton. Twenty-four of the clergy, besides the Bishop and Rector, occupied the chancel, in surplices. The procession moved from the parish building, headed by the Bishop and the Rector, and flanked by the laymen, who were led by the officers of the by the laymen, who were led by the officers of the church. An appropriate selection from the Psalms was alternately recited as a processional chant. Morning prayer was said by Rev. Wm. Buchanan--(the lessons by Dr. Yarnall and Mr. Dichl)---and. Rev. Dr. Becasley. The ante-com-munion was read by Mr. Spackman, the Epistle and Gospel by the venerable Prof. Lippitt. The sermon, by the rector, from Geneads, xxxII. 10, was a deeply interesting summary of the histo-cal events connected with the early efforts to or-cal events connected with the early enories to or-ganize the parish, and of many of the incidents which the pregress of. fifty years will always cluster around a congregation. We regret, that our space will not permit us to give aven an out-line of the eloquent sermon which was listened to throughout with the most marked at-tantion. tention.

to into indicate with the pulpit, the Rector took from the altar a beautiful silver alms-basin which he said had been given to the parish as a memo-rial of this anniversary, by members of the par-ish, and that it was to be used on that occasion to receive the first offerings for the first etone (whether the stone should be large or small) for the foundation of a new, large and more beauti-ful church. It was to be the first contribution towards a building fund. A generous contribu-tion piled up the two alms-basins used on the oc-casion—we trust enough to furnish several stones. Bishop Stevens stepped forward at the close of the Rector's remarks, and in a strain of simple eloquence, touched upon some of the many pleasant and some of the sadder memories of the pleasant and some of the solder memories of the parish. The Holy Communion was then admin-istered by the Bishop, assisted by several of the clergy. The benediction was pronounced by the Bishop. The music was under the direction of Professor A. G. Emerick, who presided at the organ with his accustomed skill. The volunteer choir trained and led by him, gave the musical selections in the very best manner. Mr. Emerick's participation in the services was of the most acceptable and pleasing character. When the choir sang "Jerusalem the Golden," the Bishop and clergy retired to the new parish honse, followed by the laity of both sexes, who, with the children, were cordially invited to be present.

The building was the scene of other incidents. no less interesting that those of the morning, though somewhat different. The spacious room was found to be beautifully decorated with flage, flowers of exquisite form and fragrance, portraits of men connected once with the church, and, last, but not least, a feast of good things, which the indefatigable and hospitable members of the parish had supplied with commendable taste and in very great abundance. The ladies certainly acquitted themselves with admirable taste in the provision and the arrangement, and in their faithful, attendance upon their guests. After all had been served, the Rector in-troduced successively Roy. Messre, Lippitt, Buchanan, Bonnell, Beasley, Spackman and Davis, and James M. Aertsen, Esg., who elo-quently addressed the meeting, chiefly in the re-collection of incidents comparison with the arrise collection of incidents connected with the parish history. The sparking wit and happy allasions of some of the speeches elicited considerable ap-plause. Rev. Mr. Morris then proposed a vote of thanks to the venerable Bishcy of Wisconain, (Right Rev. Dr. Kemper,) whose early services, (given gratuitously, for he refused all com-pensation), had contributed largely to the pro-motion and growth of the parish. The Rev. Mr. Coleman moved a vote of thanks by the guests for the privileges and entertainments of the oc-casion. Both of these motions were responded to with heartiness. At night the church was again filled, when, af ter evening prayer, addresses were dellvered by Rev. Messrs. Bonnell, William W. Newton, and Phillips Brooks. This service closed a day that will be long remembered by all the parishioners especially. It was the happiest celebration in its conception, arrangement and development that it has ever been our privilege to attend. There was but one shadow over the day and its celebration, and that was the absence of its late rector, the venerable Wm. Rodney, during forty years in charge of the parish, (now Emeritus Rector), who was detained at Lewes, Delaware, Rector), who was detained at Lewes, Delaware, by illness in his family. We can but hope that this parish, which having reached the grand climacteric, has now begun to renew its youth, will go forward, richly profiting by the lessons of the past. May its future be one of brightness and prosperity, and may a new and more churchly structure soon witness to the untiring zal and earnest plety of those upon whom now devolves the character of the future of the parish.

HORSE, WAGON AND HARNESS STOLEN .-- LAST week a colored man stole a horse, wagon and harness from the premises of John H. Stevens, in harness from the premises of John H. Stevens, in the Twenty-first Ward. He took the property to the livery stable of David Megargee, at Ed-dington, Backs county. With Megargee he made a trade, giving the horse, wagon and harness for another horse. Subsequently Mr. Stevens learned of the transaction and took out a warrant for the arrest of Megargee on a charge of receiving of the transaction and took ont a warrant for the arrest of Megargee on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Policeman Shaw served the docu-ment. Megargee denied receiving the property, but an investigation showed that he had. The har-ness was found secreted under the bed upon which Megargee had been sleeping. He was ar-rested and taken before Alderman Comby, by whom he was committed in default of ball. While the van was being driven to the prison, Police-man Cremer, of the Flifteenth District, stopped it and took Megargee out and thence before Alit and took Megargee out and thence before Al-derman Comby, in order that security could be entered for his appearance at Court. The magis-trate refnaed to enter bail, and Megargee was sent below. A BIG HAUL OF DISTILLERS .- This morning Special Officer Brooks, of the Revenue Department, assisted by the police of the Eighteenth District, visited the illicit distilleries on Salmon, District, visited the illicit distilleries on Salmen, Edgemont, Clinton and other noted whisky streets in the Twenty-fifth Ward and arrested the following named persons for violating the law relative to the distillation of spirits: Matthew Mc-namara, William Gallagher, John Boyce, Hugh McCafferty, Patrick Kelly, John Connor, Wm. O'Rourke, Michael Call. Edward Brown, John Brown, and Frank Tomlin. The prisoners were taken before Ald. Nell, who held them in $1,500 each, to appear before a U.S. Commissioner to each, to appear before a U.S. Commissioner to answer the charge mentioned.

OITY BULLETIN,

A BATCH OF LITTLE LARCENIES .- Yesterday William McLaughlin went into a livery stable on Griscom street, kept by Mr. McCaully. He picked up a whip, and was making off with it, when he

up a whip, and was making off with it, when he was captured and taken before Alderman Car-penter, who bound him over for trial. This morning, between one and two o'clock, Charles Brown, colored, purloined a tub of butter from the cellar of a dealer, at Water and Spruce streets. He was captured, so was the butter. Alderman Carpenter committed the thief. William Davis, a negro, went on board the Steamer Twilight, lying at Chesnut street wharf, yesterday, and asked for employment. Not ob-taining any, he packed up two pairs of pants belonging to one of the crew and made off with them. He was afterwards arrested at Sixth and them. He was afterwards arrested at Sixth and South streets, wearing one of the stolen gar-ments. This morning Alderman Carpenter sent

This morning he went into the yard of the Dispen-sary, on Fifth street, below Library, and stole two baskets of pears which had been donated for the patients. He was arrested and taken before Addrema Britled by whom he more committed Alderman Beitler, by whom he was committed.

IN THE WRONG PLACE .- Robert Lee is a colored man; he belongs to one of the first families of Virginia, but does not claim to be a relative of of Virginia, but does not claim to be a relative of fighting Bob. A night or two ago an old gentle-man got astray, and went into a honse on Hurst street to inquire the way home. He was nicely entertained, but when he had left he found that his pocket had been bewitched. In other words, $70 had mysteriously disappeared therefrom. Lee was in the honse at the time, and is supposed to know something about the money. He was arrested yesterday and taken before Alderman Carpenter, by whom he was committed.

Row AT HABBOWGATE .-- Michael Hattel is in custody for assaulting a German, at a dance at Harrowgate, on Monday last. The two had a quarrel about a woman, and Hattel was about to settle his disputant with a knife, or at least it is so alleged. Pollceman Greaves saw Hattel draw the weapon and captured him before he could use it. Alderman Holme held the prisoner for trial.
