

NEW PUBLICATIONS AND BOOKS

A lady-nurse, superintendent of the hospital at Fairfax Seminary, Alexandria, in 1862, has composed a series of letters from New England, a delightful book of recollections, in which she reveals, exquisite taste, the trick of story-telling, and a grand heart.

THE LONDON SPECULATOR

The London Speculator, having generally noticed the Report of the American Sanitary Commission, extends the same justice to the more modern standards of the time.

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Whole Line to be Completed in 1869. The Company has ample means which the Government grant the right of way, and all necessary track and other material to be furnished.

FOUR MILLION DOLLARS

First Mortgage Bonds. The Union Pacific Railroad Company has issued four million dollars of first mortgage bonds.

DE HAVEN & BROTHER

WM. PAINTER & CO., SMITH, RANDOLPH & CO., JOHN J. CLEGG & SON, BANKERS, 59 WALL ST.

GLOBE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

NEW YORK. Cash Assets, $1,200,000.00. The Globe Mutual Life Insurance Company is a New York corporation.

FOR RENT

Prizes 808 Chestnut Street. For rent, a fine residence on Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

HANDSOME COTTAGES

Nicely Furnished. To rent for the Summer Season. Handsome cottages for rent in the suburbs of Philadelphia.

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

AUCTION SALES

Real Estate, Personal Property, and other goods for sale at auction. Various notices regarding sales and legal matters.

FOR RENT

Prizes 808 Chestnut Street. For rent, a fine residence on Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

HANDSOME COTTAGES

Nicely Furnished. To rent for the Summer Season. Handsome cottages for rent in the suburbs of Philadelphia.

FOR RENT

Prizes 808 Chestnut Street. For rent, a fine residence on Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."

THE SPECTATOR

The Spectator quotes, as an "exquisite specimen of the English style," the "missionary 'en deshabille' and suez."

ONE OF "OUR OWN DAUGHTERS"

"Mrs. M." announced with dignity at a certain dinner party in New York, that she had written a book, "One of our own daughters."

THE CITY OF A MOTHER

"I read a strange meaning in the lower half of one day, the day that I was created, and going quickly down the stairs, I found my mother's room empty."

THE SUNDAY REVIEW

The Saturday Review treats Horace's charming "Italian Journey" with a sort of implicit approval, sneering at it wherever it inclines to be serious, and putting it on a level with the "Arabian Nights" and the "Arabian Nights."