feat in October would to thousands of men be held as a defeat of Grant and Colfar. Therefore, the issues in October are those of November. Just look at your candidates; you know them I now desire to advert to a few facts that strike me and I am done. I am certain that in this audience there are men of the opposite party who would like to listen to the truth, and if they hear some point that strikes them home, will tell it to their neighbors. You are thinking men, for there are few drones in the American hive; thanks to such glorious men as Thaddeus Stevens. [Ap-plause.] The system of free schools has educa-ted most of the men born upon the soil—those not born here have been educated either in for not born here have been educated either in for-cign lands, or obtained it through the les-sons of adversity. Therefore, this ques-tion comes home to all. There are in the United States at present three representative men-men representative of ideas, and more no-ticed at the present moment than any others. As they go large numbers of followers go. The first is a man educated at West Point, who when the war broke out, lived at Arlington, nearly oppo-site Washington-sworn to protect the Ameri-can flag-who received all he knew at the hands f a glorious Government. His faith to defend hat Government was registered. What did he lo? When the war broke out, Robert E. Lee

In this State they nominated Woodward, who openly shows his sympathy with treason: in Ohio they have nominated Vallardiz-ham for Congress, who when the war closed, was so odious that even the Johnson difference in the main on the statute books difference in the main on the statute boo

At the market-house in Frankford on Saturday evening, the clizens of that borough favorable to the election of the Republican ticket assembled in full force. The meeting, which was one of the largest and most respectable ever held in Frank-ford, was organized by the selection of the fol-lowing officers: President—Richard Garsed. Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Chicago platform as the able exposition of those princi-ples of government which, if rightly carried out, will guide the good ship of state through the perils of treason and repudiation into the haven of peace and prosperity. Resolved, That the nominations of the Republi-can conventions for State, Congressional, Legis-lative and city offices meet with our bearty ap-proval, and we pledge our utmost exertions to secure the success of the whole ticket at the com-inr elections.

It is a pleasant thought, surely, that the young, vigorous, bust-ling city, so practical, so prosperous, should have the charm to the stranger of association with so lovely a character and so genuine a fame as that of Elliott. The story of his life has been teld in all the papers. An artist's life is usually tranquil. Like the Vicar of Wakefield he moves from the blue of his year. Elliott went from Onondaga county to the city of New York in 1834, and although he was often absent for the purposes of his profes-sion, and indeed for the last two or three years.
