AT THE CHESTNUT.—This evening the mag- nificent fairy spectacle The White Faun will be presented in all its original splendor, but with the addition of some important scenes and episodes which will add greatly to its beauty. Among the most attractive of these will be a water scene which the poetic managers have entitled "Neptune's Daughters of the Bath." This will consist of a conglomeration of female loyeli- ness disporting in a cascade, the effect of which will be further heightened by the play of varie- gated lights upon the water. Another novelty will be the introduction of a "horseback drill" by a troop of children, and a series of surprising evolutions by the reconstructed condition.
