THE PROPOSED NEW EPISCOPAL more than a vague hunt for tall, slim men Among other of the many important may ters which will be submitted to the approaching General Convention of the Episcopal Church, will be a project for the division of the diocese of Pennsylvania. Many of our readers are well aware that such a movement is on foot; but as its progress, and the special facts relating to it, are imperfectly understood by a large class of persons who are deeply interested in the subject, we give below an account of the present position of affairs, and

This morning there was little abatement in the excitement.

The post-mortem examination of the body made yesterday by Dr. E. B. Shapleigh, the Coroner's physician, disclosed unmistakable evidence that the little girl had been outraged. On the top of the head there were three terrible wounds, which had evidently been caused by some blunt instrument. The neck bore many scratches and bruises, showing that the little one had been strangled. The blood which had flowed from the wounds upon the top of the head was dry, and the physi-Change.

In such cases the vessel will be entirely exempt from admeasurement. If the gross tonnege is not indicated by the register, it may be necessary to measure the spaces appropriated to the crew and engines below the upper deck, whose capacity has been deducted under the British law, but admeasurement will be made only when and to such an extent a string was ted around her wrist, and she sat on only for the service actually rendered, and no other and ascertained the state of the pulse by The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The Committee on the Drug Market then made their report through Mr. Robbins, of New York. The report is very lengthy, and refers to facts that can only be properly understood by those thoroughly conversant with the terms. Many changes are recommended as being favorable to the trade generally.

The report was then accepted, and it was proposed to discuss the facts laid before the Association by the report.

Many gentlemen spoke against and in favor of a drug law. Some said that the drug law had done good, while others contended in favor of free trade.

It was resolved that the report should be made capacity has been deducted under the British law, but admeasurement will be made only when and to such an extent as is absolutely necessary. Fees will be charged only for the service actually rendered, and no more. Officials will remember that spaces appropriated to engines above the upper deck to the hull are, by United States laws, as well as by British, exempt from admeasurement for tonnage.

But the report was then accepted, and it was proposed to discuss the facts laid before the Association by the report.
