HOW THEY HAVE DRIFTED. The Democracy are running after strange gods. Until the evil hour when the party sold itself out to the slave power, it boasted of its Jeffersonian paternity and swore by Robert Morris and Alexander Hamilton as the men who were only second to Washington himself in carrying the country safely through the volutionary war, and who had put it on the high road to presperity at the close of the struggle by establishing its finances upon a struggle by establishing its finances upon a firm basis. It would be absurd for a party that has sold itself out, body, soul and pantalons, in the interest of slavery, to claim

KEY WEST, Sept. 11, 1868.—We have three days and a half later news from Hayti by the arrival at this port of the United States steamer Gettysburg. The news is highly important.

Cape Haytien, Môle St. Nicholas and Gonaives still hold out for President Salnave.

The port of St. Marc is still held by the rebels. The latter had met with a very severe defeat at the village of La Coupe. They had also aban-doned the siege of Port au Prince. leaving their guns and all camp equipage in the hands of rave's troops.

President Salnave had issued a proclamation granting an amnesty to all rebels except to the leaders in the late rebellion. Numbers have profited by this proclamation. The rebels are losing ground rapidly, and Salnave's prospect; are improved.

The Georgia Revolution. An Atlanta correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, after giving an account of the expulsion of the negroes from the Georgia Legislature, says:

This breach will be followed, after the election, by others. The next step will be to deprive the colored man of the right to vote, then he will be stripped of his citizenship, and finally of the last vestige of his constitutional rights. It is thought by some that the Democrats contemplate an effort to remove the Governor from his cflice,

It is thought by some that the Democrats contemplate an effort to remove the Governor from his effice, and put in one of their own men. No human being can conjecture the extent to which this revolution, inaugurated by the Democracy, will reach. There is every moment danger of a fearful ontbreak, which will cause much innocent blood to flow. This is encouraged by the spirit of the press. The editorial fraternity at the North must be well acquainted with this spirit. Falsehood, slander, vituperation now fill the columns of the Southern Democratic papers. It was never so in former times. The press was generally high-toned, temperate, and breathed a spirit of purity. They seldom, even in the fiercest political contests, attacked the private character of their opponents. It is very different now. CHARGED WITH EMBEZZEMENT.—William Hood, aged seventeen years, was before Alderman Beltler this morning upon the charge of embezzlement. He was employed as an errand boy in the picture-frame establishment of George A. Sauter, No. 138 South Eighth street. When sept out with picture-frames to deliver, he was frequently given bills to collect. It is alleged that he has appropriated to his own use about $240$ of the money to collected. He was arrested by Sergeant Crout, of the Reserve Corps. He was held in $600$ ball for trial.

England, in the year 1803. He was descended from good old stock, whose ancestors were settlers in Devonshire as far back as the thirteenth in 1824, a Bachelor of Arts. After some time he obtained a curacy, which he held for a brief period, and in 1832 was made rector of Trowning in the market.

The interest Chicagons from New York for money continues to increase, but there is no abatement in the supply—no change in the rates. Some of the Banks are calling in their loans, and others are demanding greater margins, but there is no difficulty in obtaining "call loans" on acceptable collaterals at 4½ to 6 per cent. All the first-class mercantile paper offered is taken at 6 per cent.

The Stock market was dull this morning, and for the speculative movement. Government Loans and State Securities were weak, with very little speculative movement. Government Loans and State Securities were steady at yesterday's quotations. City Loans sold at 103 for the new and 100 for the old issues
